

High Representative Christian Schmidt meets German President Frank-Walter Steinmeier

High Representative Christian Schmidt met on Wednesday, October 29, with German President Frank-Walter Steinmeier in Berlin.

HR Schmidt updated President Steinmeier on the current developments in Bosnia and Herzegovina, including the political situation, ongoing reform efforts, and the country's path toward EU integration. He expressed his gratitude for Germany's steadfast commitment to Bosnia and Herzegovina and its strong support to the Office of the High Representative in implementing the Dayton Peace Agreement and advancing stability and progress in the country.
