

High Representative Christian Schmidt meets Jasmina Selimović, Governor of the Central Bank of Bosnia and Herzegovina

The High Representative thanked Governor Jasmina Selimović for ensuring that the BiH Central Bank carries out its constitutional and legal obligations efficiently, effectively and in the best interest of the entire country.

“An independent and professional Central Bank is one of the key pillars of Bosnia and Herzegovina’s stability, resilience, and economic credibility.” said the High Representative.