

High Representative Strengthens Court of BiH

The High Representative has appointed Carlos Alberto Gameiro de Campos Lobo and Malcolm Simmons as International Judges to Special Panels for Organized Crime, Economic Crime and Corruption within both the Criminal Division and Appellate Division of the Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

These appointments further strengthen the BiH Court bringing the total number of Judges working on serious criminal in this court to sixteen. The appointments, with a two-year mandate, became effective on 5 May 2004 and can be renewed.
