

It is of ultimate importance that citizens trust the election process

High Representative Christian Schmidt met with Ilija Cvitanović, President of HDZ 1990, for an exchange focused on strengthening election integrity through the introduction of election technologies, as well as addressing the issue of state property.

“It is of ultimate importance that citizens trust the election process and know their votes are counted as cast,” the High Representative stressed.