

LEGAL OFFICER FOR PUBLIC LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Duty Station: Sarajevo

Contract Type: National Contractor (full-time)

Grade: 7

PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF POSITION

The Department for Legal Affairs of the OHR plays an important role in giving legal advice to the High Representative and providing legal service for other departments of the OHR and for the Steering Board of the Peace Implementation Council on legal issues, in particular those involving the interpretation of the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina (GFAP) as well as on other international and domestic law matters.

In general, the Legal Officer will assist the Department for Legal Affairs to play a key part in the provision of specialist legal services in the areas of law that are of interest to the Office of the High Representative. The Legal Officer will prepare analysis and recommendations on legal issues related to a number of fields of laws which will include human rights, institutional and administrative matters. In light of the mandate of the High Representative over the civilian aspects of the GFAP, his/her function will focus primarily on issues related to human rights and public law issues.

The Legal Officer will be responsible for monitoring developments within his/her portfolio and assisting in formulating policies and/or co-ordinating activities in that portfolio within the OHR.

Carrying out the functions of the Legal department requires close coordination between legal advisers. As such the Legal Officer will be required to work as part of a team and will be requested to deal with a number of different issues falling within the mandate of the High Representative.

The Legal Officer will also maintain relations with other international agencies and local authorities in his/her field of responsibility. Other tasks will include preparing briefings reports, correspondence and updates relevant to the field of responsibility for the Head of the Legal Department.
