OHR expresses its condolences to family of Josip Jole Musa

The Office of the High Representative expresses its sincere condolences to the family and friends of Josip Jole Musa, a member of Mostar’s City Council and City Government, who has died after a long illness.

Mr Musa was a well respected citizen and politician who will be remembered for his hard work for the people of Mostar. From the time of the European Union Administration of Mostar to the present, the International Community found in Mr Musa a man who fought actively for a better future for the city.
