

OHR Reaction to Global and Dnevni Avaz Reports

The magazine Global (29th of October) and the daily Dnevni Avaz (30th of October) have recently run stories based on papers publicly associated with the Office of the High Representative.

What they have printed appears to be graphic versions of open source reporting over the last few years.

The High Representative deeply and genuinely deplores any inconvenience or embarrassment caused by these publications.