The Prijedor expelled and displaced citizens protest publicly against media ignorance of the exhumations of the Prijedor victims. They are asking whether it is done on purpose and how is it possible that the Prijedor tragedy which is called Krajina's Srebrenica, has been forgotten. The Prijedor residents reproach also the Federal officials who up to today did not appear at the tragedy site and have not attended any of the funerals of the exhumed Bosniaks.
