(Provided by OHR Mostar)

The ICTY decision of releasing the four BiH Army officers and letting them defend themselves out of detention has caused a storm of disagreement among Croats in Central Bosnia.

The Association of the Families of Killed and Missing Croat Soldiers, HVIDRA, and the Association of Volunteers and Veterans addressed an open letter to the Federation Government, the Alliance for Changes, the ICTY and the international institution representatives in BiH.

They say the Federation Government and the ICTY are biased, which is proven in the fact that Tihomir Blaskic was in prison for three years while awaiting the trial and still, he and other Croats were not allowed to defend themselves out of detention although they surrendered to the Tribunal.

They say they would not be surprised if the international institutions said that Croats themselves killed 3,056 people of their own nationality in Central Bosnia or that they themselves expelled a hundred thousand Croats.
