

Eight Applications Received for Two Vacant Judicial Posts in the BH Constitutional Court

In the open competition for two posts as members of the Constitutional Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina, to be appointed by the National Assembly of Republika Srpska (RSNA), the High Judicial and Prosecutorial Council of Republika Srpska has received eight applications. The final selection will be done by the RSNA upon proposal of the High Judicial and Prosecutorial Council of Republika Srpska.

"The number of applicants is satisfactory," said Judge Jan Erik Oja, President of the HJPCs. "At this point it seems that the overall qualifications of applicants are good, however the applications will be reviewed and their content verified prior to starting the interviewing process. The HJPC of RS is aware of the need to propose the candidates to the RSNA for approval in order to have the Constitutional Court of BiH operational. We will choose the best candidates and put them forward as a proposal to the RSNA." – concluded Judge Oja.

The candidates who have applied are:

Hadžimusić Mensur – Applicant at large

Pajić Miodrag – Applicant at large

Mujkanović Aladin – Municipal Court in Tešanj

Smailagić Husref – Basic Court in Banja Luka

Hadžikarić – Jakšić Mirjana – Applicant at large

Simović Miodrag – Republika Srpska Constitutional Court

Slavnić Slavica – Applicant at large

Rosić Jovo – Republika Srpska Constitutional Court

It is unclear if one more applicant has applied for one of these posts. Additional inquiries will be made with the person concerned, which may increase the final number of applicants to nine.
