Introduction

The Media Development team focuses its activities on the establishment of public service broadcasting and independent media. Its other priority of a legal and regulatory framework that will protect journalists and promote freedom of speech, the right to information, and journalistic and editorial standards in accordance with best international practice. The team chairs regular round table meetings with the embassies of the main donor nations in order to co-ordinate international funding for media projects in Bosnia and Herzegovina.