Sarajevo

After a three day visit to BiH, the delegation of the Council of Europe Sub-committee for relations with the non-members countries, returned to Strasbourg which is the seat of this oldest European institution. Their intention was to learn about fulfilling the conditions needed for BiH to enter the Council of Europe. The report produced the OBN journalist, Vedran Persic.

This was followed by a report on the BiH Council of Ministers session held today in Sarajevo. The consultations with entities' prime ministers have been finalised. The conclusion was that they should meet at least once a week in order to provide more efficient solutions for issues relevant to BiH.

At today's session, the Representative House of the BiH Federation Parliament adopted a suggestion for the law on federal radio and television. HDZ members were against discussion on the issue, explaining that there was no constitution basis for that.

This was followed by reports on the BiH Federation Government and the RS Government sessions held today.
