Mala Broda (Zenica)

Last night, under-ground waters initiated sliding of 600,000 cubic meters of ground in the Zenica residential quarter, Mala Broda. Three individuals were killed and another six have disappeared. Rescue teams search for the survivors. Some 136 inhabitants of Mala Broda were evacuated. The report was produced by OBN reporter from the area, Koraljka Kurcenberger.

Sarajevo (Croatian Foreign Minister Visit)

Bosnia and Herzegovina is the first country which the new Croatian Foreign Minister, Tonino Picula, officially visited. The BiH Foreign Minister, Jadranko Prlic, said this was a new phase in the relations between Croatia and BiH. BiH officials expect concrete steps regarding the return of Serbs to the Republic of Croatia. The piece was produced by OBN reporter, Danijela Bozic.

The High Representative in BiH, Wolfgang Petritsch, met with the Croatian Foreign Minister as well. The High Representative and Foreign Minister Picula noted the historic importance of the Foreign Minister's visit to Sarajevo, given the fundamental role of the Republic of Croatia at the Dayton and Paris Peace Conferences and in the years since those pivotal events. In light of this, both observed that it was particularly appropriate that the Foreign Minister's first trip abroad was to Bosnia and Herzegovina to address issues of concern to all constituent peoples and other citizens of BiH.

During the afternoon, Tonino Picula, visited OBN premises in Sarajevo, wanting to found out more about activities of this electronic media company. In an interview to OBN, the Foreign Minister stressed that a part of the Croatian Government will travel to Lisbon, Brussels and Berlin tomorrow.

In their talks with the EU officials, Government's representatives will reiterate that the new Croatian authorities were ready to establish a completely new foreign policy, based on the principles of good neighbouring relations. In that respect, relations with BiH will not have tactical, but strategy importance. Danijela Bozic produced the interview.

French Defence Minister Visit

This was followed by an item on the visit of the French Defence Minister, Alan Richard, to Bosnia and Herzegovina. The French Minister visited French troops in Mostar and than came to Sarajevo. Upon his arrival to Sarajevo, he said that no government could say they were not arresting those who committed war crimes. Last month, SFOR French troops arrested Mitar Vasiljevic. In an exclusive interview for OBN produced by OBN reporter, Vedran Persic, the French Minister of Defence talked about role of French troops within SFOR and KFOR.

World

A law on the re-establishment of a direct British administration in Northern Ireland enacted. The Queen Elizabeth the Second approved the law, previously adopted by both houses of the UK Parliament. The regional Government was established only two months ago, and the decision was made because IRA refused to hand over arms. In Chechnia, Russian troops continued their attacks on the South of the country. OBN journalist, Gordana Frimel produced the report.
