OHR

The High Representative of the International Community in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Wolfgang Petritsch, imposed the Law on the State Border Service today. This was announced by the OHR

Spokesman, James Fergusson, at the press conference in Sarajevo today. In an interview for OBN, the High Representative said that he was utterly dissatisfied with the unwillingness of the Serb delegates in the BiH Parliament to vote for the Law on the State Border Service. He reminded that the State Border Service would make profit for the country and encourage the economy. The Border Service will help battle smuggling, crime and illegal immigration. The interview was produced by OBN journalist, Duska Jurisic.

Guest of TV INFO

The guest of TV INFO and the presenters, Danijela Bozic and Mujo Delibegovic, was the US Ambassador in BiH, H.E. Thomas Miller. The Ambassador was asked to comment the investigation of the BiH Vice Minister of Internal Affairs, Jozo Leutar, which occurred last year, especially having in mind that FBI participated in the investigation. The Ambassador Miller said that they were very interested in finding perpetrators of that terrorist act. The Ambassador also reiterated his position on the Law on the State Border Service and the importance to enact this law. Also, the Ambassador was asked to comment the recent canceling of the USAID support to the process of privatisation in the BiH Federation. The Ambassador Miller said that he made the decision to suspend the US efforts regarding the privatisation process in the BiH Federation after months and months of failed tries to help.

This was followed by a report on the three day visit of the special envoys of the European Council to Bosnia and Herzegovina. They stressed that the Parliament which functions was a very important element for a democratic Bosnia and Herzegovina. The Representative of the European Council in BiH, Peter Iiskola, said that obviously they were not satisfy if the High Representative had to make important decisions such as the Law on the State Border Service. The report was produced by OBN reporter, Vedran Persic.
