Sarajevo

Today the BiH Federation Government held its session in Mostar. Representatives decided not to increase oil and oil derivatives price for this year. A decision whether the price would go up was postponed for some of the forthcoming sessions. The Vice President of the BiH Federation, Dragan Covic, said that the Government, together with importers of oil in the Federation, had strength to control the situation. Because of the previously announced decrease of prices, fuel stations in the BiH Federation were crowded today, OBN reporter Adis Saranovic, confirmed.

Banja Luka

A report on the special session of the RS National Assembly about the New York Declaration and the participation of the RS high officials at the round table meeting in Dayton. The Co-chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers, Svetozar Mihajlovic, and the RS Prime Minister, Milorad Dodik, explained that participants in Dayton discussed the implementation of the Dayton Peace Agreement and that opinions were different. The RS Prime Minister suggested the establishment of a Commission for Truth and Reconciliation because of different positions regarding the BiH war. The report was produced by OBN reporter from Banja Luka, Dragan Stanimirovic.

Mostar

At today's session in Mostar, the BiH Federation Government discussed the budget for next year. The Government suggested that the budget should be 940 million DEM. The Vice President of the Government, Dragan Covic, said that approximately 330 million would go to the Army and around 258 million for soldiers and invalids categories. Today, the Government adopted draft measures of economic policy in 2000. The report was produced by OBN reporter, Denis Vila.

Tuzla

Criminal charges for the misuse of official authorities were raised against four officials of the Tuzla Canton. The Supreme Court of the BiH Federation asked for the annulling of immunity for the Vice President of the Tuzla Canton Government, Mehmed Bajraktarevic, and the Tuzla Canton Government Ministers, Ismet Osmanovic, Muhibija Delic and Adib Dzozic, in order to start a criminal procedure against them. At last night's session, four officials resigned. The report was produced by OBN reporter from the area, Muhamed Berbic.

World

After 30 years of violence in Northern Ireland, the authority for government in the province was taken over by the regional Government made up of both pro-British and pro-Irish political parties. This was followed by a report on the autumn session of the defence ministers of NATO member countries in Brussels. The participants discussed the situation in Kosovo, BiH and Chechenia. The Russian Foreign Ministry announced they might withdraw their troops from Kosovo if KFOR do not stop violence in the area. In the meantime, Russian strikes against Chechenia continue.
