Sarajevo

SFOR Spokesperson, Paul Hubbard, said: "Yesterday, SFOR elements of Multinational Division South-East in Bosnia and Herzegovina, acting within SFOR's mandate, detained an individual suspected of being Zoran Vukovic. The suspect has been processed for an immediate movement to the Hague. There were no SFOR casualties sustained during the operation". The Hagu Tribunal indicted Zoran Vukovic for the breach of laws and customs of the war and for the crimes against humanity because of participation in raping and torturing Muslim women between July 3rd and 23rd 1992. The report for from the Hague TV INFO was produced by Mirko Klarin, reporter of the SENSE Agency.

This was followed by a report on the reactions to the decision of the BiH Presidency member, Alija Izetbegovic, to object the decision on the restructure of the BiH Council of Ministers, adopted by other two members of the Presidency. Izetbegovic said that the decision was against the BiH Constitution and destructive for the vital inerests of BiH Federation and Bosniak people. The Advisor of the BiH Presidency Chairman, Tihomir Begic, said that the veto of Alija Izetbegovic showed that he saw BiH as a centralised and unitary state.

A few days ago, news that the Croatian Minister of Interior Affairs, Ivan Penic, promised to arrest and hand over Fikret Abdic to the BiH authorities was published. After that, both representatives of Croatia and BiH denied that. The Croatian Minister claims that at the recent meeting he had with the BiH Federation Minister of Internal Affairs, Mehmed Zilic, it was agreed that the decision about eventual arrest of Fikret Abdic would be made by the Croatian Ministry of Justice. This was confirmed by the BiH Federation Minister of Internal Affairs. The report was produced by OBN reporter, Damir Kaletovic.
