

OBN News Review, 28 August 1999

Russian Space Station

A report on return of the last crew from the Russian space station "Mir" to the Earth. The space station has spent 13 years in the space to date. Currently, no one is at the station. The report was produced by OBN journalist, Zeljka Lekic.

Headlines

- In explosion in Pristina, Josip Broz Tito's monument damaged last night
- Richard Holbrooke, new USA Ambassador to UN, arrived at Kosovo
- Turkey – earthquake in the famous tourist place Antalya occurred yesterday
- Inspectors from the USA and Great Britain started investigation on accusation for corruption which includes the Russian President, Boris Yeltsin
- Bijeljina – new digital main telephone exchange with mobile phone system opened
- Banja Luka – lines in front of book shops prior to the start of new school year
- In Sarajevo, pupils will use old textbooks with offensive parts crossed
- In tonight's TV INFO: First case of computer crime in BiH

Kosovo

A report on the beginning of the seven day tour of Richard Holbrooke. The USA diplomat will stay in three day visit to Kosovo and afterwards visit Albania, Macedonia and Bosnia and Herzegovina. The blockade of Orahovac continued. Kosovo Albanians do not let Russian troops to enter the town. The report was produced by OBN journalist, Gordana Frimel.

Turkey

A report on yesterday's earthquake in the tourist part of Turkey, Antalya. Aid is coming from all parts of the world. OBN reporter from Turkey, Amarildo Gutic, reported that the Turkish Prime Minister denied accusations that the Government done minimum regarding alleviation of consequences of the earthquake.

World

A report on the corruption investigation in Russia started by investigators from the USA and Great Britain was followed by a report on the bomb explosion in the capital of Yemen.

Bijeljina

A piece on the establishment of the new digital main telephone exchange with mobile phone system in Bijeljina. This is the first such main telephone exchange in the eastern part of the RS. For the time being, mobile telephone system of the RS is linked only to three countries. It is planned that the system would be linked to all others in the world within the next three months, OBN reporter from Bijeljina, Zeljko Pantelic, confirmed.

Donja Rabina (Mostar)

Thirty Bosniak families have returned to the Donja Rabina village in the Mostar area. Before the war, forty families lived in the village, OBN reporter from the area, Sinisa Jokic, reported.

Caire (Doboj)

A piece on the donation provided by the humanitarian organisation MSC – SEA, for 34 returnee families in the Caire village in the Doboj Municipality. The donation will be used for reconstruction of their houses. The report was produced by OBN reporter from the area, Muhamed Cabric.

Sarajevo

A report on the refugees from the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia in BiH. Eight families, who were provisionally placed in the Center for blind people in Nedzarici in Sarajevo, due to their health problems, had to return to refugee camps near Sarajevo. They complain to difficult living conditions in the camps and ask the authorities to help them. The Ministry for Refugees promised to provide concrete help to the refugees during the winter.

Tuzla

The Serb Orthodox Church asked for return of their property in the Tuzla Canton. OBN reporter from Tuzla, Sabina Smajic, researches how this issue would be solved.

Banja Luka

New school year begins in three days. There are lines in front of Banja Luka book shops because insufficient number of textbooks for elementary school was printed. The report was produced by OBN reporter from Banja Luka, Biljana Arsic.

Sarajevo

A report on the pupils in the BiH Federation who will use old textbooks with offensive parts crossed. New textbooks for elementary and secondary schools were not printed yet.

Zenica

The first case of computer crime detected on the territory of BiH. The problem is that the BiH legislature do not have provisions about this criminal act.

Sarajevo

A report on accountancy seminar held in Sarajevo. The seminar was organised by the US Agency for International Development. Participants of the seminar were from both BiH entities, OBN reporter, Anes Alic, confirmed.

Sarajevo

This was followed by a report on the Sarajevo Film Festival. The report was produced by OBN reporter, Mirela Pehar.

Sport

A report on the International Athletic Championship was followed by reports on the local and international football matches and Formula One.