Zagreb

The Supreme Court of the Republic of Croatia has been preparing itself for the forthcoming summon where the extradition of Fikret Abdic would be examined. His extradition was highlighted at the moment when the Hague Tribunal accused Croatia for being non-cooperative. OBN received confirmation on this from Zagreb by the STINA Agency reporter, Tanja Vukcevic.

This was followed by a report on reactions of BiH about the extradition of Fikret Abdic. The Hague Tribunal gave its approval to the BiH court to start up court proceedings against Fikret Abdic, allegedly accused for war crimes committed in BiH. This means that Fikret Abdic could be brought to trial at the BiH court.
