

OBN News Review, 6 November 2000

Headlines

- Jadranko Lucic, one of the suspects in case of murder of the B&H Deputy Minister of Internal Affairs, Jozo Leutar surrendered today
- “Establishment of diplomatic relations between Yugoslavia and B&H is matter of days”, the Yugoslav President, Vojislav Kostunica said
- The RS Prime Minister, Milorad Dodik demanded support for the peace process in B&H from Patriarch Pavle in Belgrade
- Mayor of Banja Luka, Dragoljub Davidovic refused to meet Halid Genjac, the B&H Presidency Member
- OSCE Centre for counting of votes was opened today in Sarajevo

Sarajevo

Jadranko Lucic, one of the suspects in case of murder of the B&H Deputy Minister of Internal Affairs, Jozo Leutar surrendered today. In his statement for “HINA”, Lucic denied all accusations.

Istanbul

The arrest of Abdulkadir Palta with a bag full of blank diplomatic passports is still in the focus of attention of the Turkish media. According to the media, the smuggled passports arrived from Sarajevo. Reported by Jusko Bojadzic.

Yugoslavia

The Yugoslav President, Vojislav Kostunica met the OSCE Chairman, Benita Ferrero Waldner. “The ICTY office will be opened in Belgrade”, Ms. Ferrero-Waldner said after the meeting.

Mr. Kostunica met the Head of the UN Mission in B&H, Jacques Klein in Belgrade.

4 people were injured in last night's uprising in a prison in Sremska Mitrovica. Prisoners demanded better living conditions in the prison. Gordana Frimel produced the report.

Banja Luka

The B&H Presidency member, Halid Genjac visited Banja Luka today. Mr. Genjac met representatives of the Office for return to Banja Luka, the Deputy Mayor, Omer Visic and several other officials. The Mayor of Banja Luka, Dragoljub Davidovic did not receive Mr. Genjac, allegedly due to other obligations, Milorad Milojevic reported.

Banja Luka

6 local and international NGOs with their head offices in Banja Luka accused OHR, UNHCR and IPTF representatives of participating in obstruction of property restitution in the region of Banja Luka. In their letter to the High Representative, Wolfgang Petritsch they warned of numerous illegal acts and passiveness of international organisations. They demanded a written reply to their requests. Reported by Dragan Stanimirovic.

Sarajevo

B&H "Elektroprivreda" paid DM 556 000 to the budget of the city of Mostar, in accordance with the order from the OHR. According to unofficial information, the money will mainly be used for reconstruction of facilities that were damaged in last year's floods. According to expert analyses, employees of "Elektroprivreda" were responsible for the floods, Anes Alic reported.

Sarajevo

The Bulgarian Ambassador in B&H, Georgi Yurukov met representatives of the Canton Sarajevo Chamber of Commerce. "B&H and Bulgaria could co-operate in several fields", Mr. Yurukov said. An inter-state agreement has already been completed, and it should be signed soon. Sevko Bajic produced the report.

World

New storms took place in Great Britain and France.

The Israeli Security force killed a 14-year-old Palestinian in the West Bank.

The Israeli Prime Minister rejected Arafat's idea on deployment of international forces in Gaza and the West Bank.

1 person died and four were injured in a bomb explosion in Karachi.

According to analyses, US Presidential candidates Al Gore and George Bush have equal chances to win the elections. Zeljka Lekic reported on world events.

Banja Luka

Railway-engine drivers and health workers in the RS continued their strike. Pensioners also announced a strike, Suzana Vukcevic and Biljana Arsic reported.

Mostar

Reconstruction of the "Musala" bridge in Mostar has been almost completed, Semsudin Serdarevic reported.

Sarajevo

The book "Croatian Language and Franciscans of Bosna Srebrna" by Dr. Ivo Pranjkovic has been promoted today in the Museum of Literature and Theatre in Sarajevo. Reported by Branka Vrebac.

Sarajevo

The OSCE Centre for counting of votes was opened in Sarajevo today, Svjetlana Celic reported.

Sport

Reports on the Chess Olympics in Istanbul, local and international football were presented.