Members of the BiH Council of Ministers did not agree on the interpretation of the BiH Constitutional Court decision. The Court proclaimed positions of the Co-chairman and the Vice Chairman against the BiH Constitution. Positions on the issue of Serb and Croat members in the Council are different from the position of the Bosniak members. Now, a fight for the position of the Chairman is happening. This issue will be handed over to the BiH Presidency for further procedure. According to the Peace Agreement, the Presidency is authorised to appoint the Chairman of the Council of Ministers. The deadline for the implementation of the Constitutional Court is December 28th. The report was produced by OBN reporter, Damir Kaletovic.

This was followed by a report on the session of the BiH Presidency held in Sarajevo today. The Presidency adopted a decision on the look of 1 and 2 KM coins. The Presidency also agreed the draft budget for next year which should be increased by 10%. According to this draft, the budget of the BiH joint institutions in 2000 will be 265 million KM. The report was produced by OBN reporter, Bakir Hadziomerovic.
