The conclusions adopted after the meeting read that BiH and SiCG, following the Istanbul Summit in June, have "made a certain progress" in the field of defence, but none of these two states has not as yet accomplished a full cooperation with the ICTY. Conclusion read: "We share concern of the High Representative over the RS failure to cooperate with ICTY." Foreign Ministers have also appealed to BiH and SICG to move forward in the fulfilment of pre-requisites necessary for admission into PfP, and they supported the territorial integrity and sovereignty of all Western Balkans states and their full integration into Euro-Atlantic structures. The session has emphasised the urgency for the arrest of war crime suspects, including Radovan Karadzic, Ratko Mladic and Ante Gotovina. BHT 1 by Elvir Bucalo – According to journalist, it was noted at the NATO's meeting on Wednesday that the atmosphere regarding BiH membership in the Partnership for Peace was much better last summer year in comparison to this summit. It was noted that the internal climate in BiH was good at the time, mostly thanks to the High Representative Paddy Ashdown, and international community was responding to that. RTRS by Sinisa Mihailovic – RTRS reporter comments that nothing new was stated at the NATO summit with the regard to BiH.

VL concludes that the greatest impact will suffered by the RS’ institutions, namely the RS Defence and Interior ministries because their authorities will be reduced and transferred onto the State level. The assent of all three peoples in BiH is necessary for the change of Constitution." Sulejman Tihic, the member of the BiH Presidency, said that: "The sanctions against RS are logical thing to expect." According to EuroBlic inset 'Radovan will not surrender', Luka Karadzic, the brother of Radovan Karadzic, reiterated once more his brother would not turn in voluntarily. RTRS by Sinisa Mihailovic– Spokesman of RS PM Goran Radivojac stated that things that could happen to RS are hypothetical at the moment. Mayor Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Still without mayor', Slobodna Dalmacija, front pg splash and pg 19 'SDA undermines election of Mayor', by Zoran Zekic, Dnevni List, pgs 12-13 'SDA councillors obstruct appointment of Mayor', by Vera Soldo, Vecernji List, pg 4 'Mostar did not get Mayor yesterday', by vr – Mostar Mayor wasn't elected at the resumed session of the Mostar City Council (MCC) on Thursday. None of the candidates got the support from the councillors after two rounds of voting. As a result, the Serb and Croat caucuses requested postponing of session for seven days. Coalition led by HDZ was surprised when their candidate, Ljubo Beslic, wasn't elected the Mayor of Mostar.

Dailies report that an agreement was made between HDZ and SDA at the highest level that the SDA would support Beslic, but the SDA of Mostar didn't support this agreement. On the other side, SDA candidate Murat Coric was elected the President of the City Council, while his Deputies will be Ivan Beus (HDZ) from the Croat people and Obren Lozo (SDA) from the Serb people.

RHB – Chairman of Croat caucus in MCC, Mladen Margeta stated for FENA that SDA and HDZ could create strong government and ensure smooth running of the City Council. Margeta stated that the 2 parties agreed that the mayor will be a Croat and Council Speaker a Bosniak, and added that Croat caucus is surprised with the action of Bosniak caucus since it hasn't respected their agreement.

Noting that Murat Coric was elected the President of MCC owing to votes of the HDZ councillors, DL says that Zijad Hadziomerovic, a member of SDA Presidency and Zijad Music, the President of Bosniak war veterans in Mostar, were instrumental in influencing SDA councillors not to support Beslic.

Councillors are, off course, free to decide how they will vote at the City Council sessions,"* said newly elected MCC Head, Murat Coric.

NN op-ed on Mostar	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 '35 little pharaohs' by Josip Blazevic – The author notes that all events related to the election of the Mostar Mayor have showed that Paddy Ashdown has imposed extremely bad solution for the city of Mostar. He notes that this solution might have succeeded if it had been applied to other cities across BiH, stressing that a better solution would be the one resembling the organisation and process in Italian cities, where the election of the Mayor is supported by 60% of councillors. He concludes by saying: "This solution for Mostar has to some extent protect the national interests, but the principles of responsibility towards citizens do not exist at all. Mostar Mayor is held responsible before only 35 little male and female Pharaohs."

He added that Executive Board, according to SDA Statute, couldn't bring such decision. Dnevni Avaz pg 10 'Hasim Kujundzic and Halil Ljuca barred from the party' by E. NN op-eds on
decision re:
assistance
to PIFWCs

Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Law in the function of new destruction' by Slavo Kukic – The author is critical of the RS Government decision to allocate material assistance to PIWC's (who voluntarily surrender) and their families, doubting it is all about a complete turn-about in their heads, but instead the attempt to catch some more time in their constant failure to cooperate with the ICTY. He is also critical of decision of Islamic community to provide assistance to families of Bosniak PIWC's detained in the Hague , making by this act them heroes. He notes whether Bosniaks, who have not been suspected of anything but do not have income to live on have a right to live.

Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 8 'Encyclopaedia of cynicism' by Branko Todorovic – The author also refers to abovementioned decision by the RS Government, raising the question as to why war criminals and their families worth double than ordinary people of RS, especially the families of the war victims.
