list of Srebrenica
victims: 8106
missing persons

FTV, Hayat, Oslobodjenje pg 3, mentioned on cover, 'List includes 8106 missing Srebrenica citizens' by Sakib Smajlovic, Vecernji List pg 3 'List with names of 8106 missing persons from Srebrenica published' not signed, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash and pg 4 '8106 names of Srebrenica victims are on the list' by J. Sarac, Vecernje Novosti pg 14 '8106 are missing' by FoNet – The Executive Board of the Srebrenica-Potocari Foundation published on Thursday a preliminary list with the names of Srebrenica Bosniaks who went missing in July 1995. The list, printed on 140 pages, contains 8,106 names of missing persons. According to the foundation Vice-President, Amor Masovic, has warned that information is neither final nor entirely correct, expressing reserves regarding some names. Foundation also concluded that to date 510 body remains of killed Bosniaks from Srebrenica were identified.

BHT 1 Samir Kahrovic – Masovic said that the list is not final as additional checks on approximately 500 victims have not yet been completed. "Those victims will not be left out of this list. We decided not to publish those names now, because we did not want to provoke any kind of doubt in a credibility of the document", added Masovic.

RTRS by Svjetlana Markovic – This list was based on information submitted by the FBIH and International Commissions for Missing Persons, as well as Red Cross, Srebrenica Commission, Association of families of Srebrenica victims and other official sources. Chairman of Potocari Foundation Executive Board Beriz Belkic stated that the public process of verifying has been opened and citizens can now see the list so interventions regarding the list could be carried out.

Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'List with names of 8106 missing Srebrenica citizens published' by A. Hadzic – Dnevni Avaz will publish the list in its Saturday's edition [June 11].

| Tomic: Milan Lukic negotiations on his surrender; RS MoI/RS President neither confirm nor deny Tomic | BHT1, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Milan Lukic negotiates surrender' by Srna, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 18 'Indictee Milan Lukic negotiates on surrender to The Hague' by A. Macanovic, EuroBlic cover pg splash 'Milan Lukic negotiates surrendering to the Hague' and pg RS3 'Tomic: Milan Lukic negotiates on surrender' by Dusanka Stanisic, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Milan Lukic in the Hague soon' by A. Durmo and D. Risojevic, Vecernje Novosti pg 14 'Milan Lukic will surrender' by FoNet – Lawyer Dusko Tomic claims to have information that ICTY indictee Milan Lukic has been negotiating with RS and Serbian Interior Ministers and ICTY to surrender to the Tribunal. Tomic told reporters that Wednesday night he obtained information that Milan Lukic is somewhere in the area of the Montenegrin border and will soon surrender. "His hiding became pointless since generals Lukic and Borovcanin went to the Hague," said Tomic after trial of two special police officers accused of killing Novica Lukic in a police action in Visegrad last year [carried out in attempt to detain Milan Lukic]. Tomic is defence lawyer of police officers and supporting the position that they were sent to kill Milan since he wanted to surrender to the ICTY documents on war events in BiH, including those proving participation of units from Serbia. PINK by Danijel Vujanovic – "RS MoI neither can nor wants to comment Dusko Tomic's statement on alleged negotiations on Milan Lukic's surrender", said RS MoI Spokesperson, Radovan Pejic. Hayat – RS President Dragan Cavic commented to Tomic's claims: "I cannot speak in public about RS MoI's activities. I will repeat this one more, RS MoI is not resting but working, and it is not Ministry of Public Relations but Ministry of Interior. It will inform after having the job done. Till then, any comment is pointless", said Cavic. |

HDZ Presidency holds session; Covic says crisis in CoM politically motivated/ HDZ to assess work of its Ministers/ Colak appointed to HDZ Presidency

FTV, Hayat, BHT1, Dnevni Avaz pg 10 'Covic: Great damage to HDZ and Croat people was made' by F. Vele, Dnevni List pg 2, mentioned on cover 'Covic: Through authority crisis some people want to have constitutional changes' by M. Karacic – Following the HDZ Presidency session held on Thursday, new party's leader Dragan Covic held press conference on a number of issues. Commenting the current crisis in authority, Covic said believes that it was politically motivated and that there is a wish to transfer it on the filed in order to run the process of constitutional changes [which would take place by next general elections]. Oslobodjenje pg 8 'It is questionable will Colak stay in state Government?!', mentioned on cover 'Barisa Colak leaves Government?!' by V. Zivak, Vecernji List pg 4 'Audit of work in executive and legislative authorities' by M. Relota, Dnevni List pg 2, mentioned on cover 'Covic: Through authority crisis some people want to have constitutional changes' by M. Karacic, Nezavisne Novine pg 3, announced on cover 'Removals of HDZ Ministers are not a revenge' by V. Coric – Elaborating on his announcement that some of HDZ ministers could be replaced, Covic said that he would judge the work of HDZ Ministers and MPs soon and those who are willing to work harder would stay at their positions, while those who do not want to work harder would have to withdraw [based on which Oslobodjenje concluded this refers to Barisa Colak, putting this in headline. However, inset reads Covic appointment Colak as HDZ Presidency member].

Vecernji List pg 4 'Audit of work in executive and legislative authorities' by M. Relota – Covic stated that soon HDZ is going to send an extensive letter to the seat of the European People's Party (ENS) in which they would inform the ENS about the future acting of HDZ. Vecernji List pg 4 'Audit of work in executive and legislative authorities' by M. Relota – He also said that constituting sessions of HDZ Main Board and HDZ National Council will take place next Tuesday in Mostar. Slobodna Dalmacija pg 14, mentioned on cover 'Covic: Accusations are nonsense' by Z. Zekic carries Covic as saying that accusations that HDZ elections were rigged are nonsense.

| Feral on relation Covic-Sanader | Feral pg 21 'Love is myth' by I. Djikic harshly comments on a newly elected HDZ President Dragan Covic. The author also says that President of HDZ Croatia Ivo Sanader wanted a reliable person (Bozo Ljubic) at this position for two reasons. Feral says that the first reason is control over HDZ electorate in Herzegovina, while the other reason is that Sanader wants to present himself before the people from the European People's Party as someone who has strong influence on the Croat political leaders in BiH and who can use this influence to direct BiH Croats towards more moderate politics and better cooperation with the International Community. Feral also says that Sanader would not deprive Croats of 300 million Kunas that Croatia gives for Croats in BiH every year because of 4 or 5 positions in the Croatian Parliament that the Croatian Diaspora secures, however it is certain that BiH Croats are bigger ballast for him then he is willing to admit, especially after Covic's victory. |

| Grabovac says he has not yet decide on whether to return to politics | Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Ashdown pardoned Grabovac and Jervic', mentioned on cover, by A. Omeragic – In addition to OHR's announcement, daily also carries comment by Nikola Grabovac who confirmed that OHR investigators talked to him about a months ago and that HR Ashdown told him about the decision a day in advance. "I know from day one that I am innocent, however until that is proven one can stay without head," said Grabovac. Of current situation in the country, Grabovac says: "We have pushed back [in the past]. Everything I warned about, and what foreign officials called socialist attitude, proved to be correct." Foreign Finance Minister, removed following the 'Amsped' affair which was about taxes evasions, said he still doesn't know whether he would return to the political life. FTV by Sinan Saric – "I'm very sorry for all of this, because I know that I could have done a lot for FBiH as a minister", stated Grabovac for FTV. |
| DA: Ashdown's mandate may be extended | Dnevni Avaz pg 2, mentioned on cover 'Paddy Ashdown stays as long as needed' by S.N. – Daily learns in diplomatic circles in BiH that a mandate of the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, could be extended after the end of this year. Several international officials and local politicians speaking under condition of anonymity said it would be good for Ashdown to stay in BiH until the country launches the beginning of negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement with EU. "If current blockage in reformatory process is soon overcame – latest in the next two or three weeks – and if CoM, in full composition [regardless of the composition itself], goes back to reforms, and if police reform is implemented in accordance with the three European principles, than Ashdown's staying would not be necessary," reads the article. Author concludes that if HR stays, IC could launch more energetic process of reforms, while those "obstructing" especially in RS could "lose much more than they are losing now." |

| PDP's Dokic says real reasons for Ivanic's removal being hidden | Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Reasons for Ivanic's removal are being concealed' by A. Terzic – In an interview with the daily, BiH Transport and Communications Minister in resignation Branko Dokic said that the latest developments regarding the removal of BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic were a clear indication of a serious crisis in the BiH Council of Ministers that could even deepen further. Dokic emphasized that the two current Serb Ministers in CoM, Slobodan Kovac and Nikola Radovanovic, did not represents any political party so that a question might be raised which political party from RS was a genuine partner (to other ruling parties) in CoM. "These developments are damaging BiH, which is just a step away from starting Stabilization and Association Agreement talks with EU," said Dokic. Dokic said that BiH CoM Chair Adnan Terzic had not made a decision on Ivanic's removal alone and that issue of SIPA Director appointment was not the only reason behind the decision. |
| SDS members will not replace Ivanic, Dokic | BHT 1 Gvozden Sarac – SDS announced that it will not appoint their members in the BiH Council of Ministers to fill vacant posts after CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic have accepted Mladen Ivanic's and Branko Dokic's resignation. "Let me be very clear – none from SDS will replace PDP Ministers", stated SDS President Dragan Cavic. In the meantime Ivanic, who is currently in Spain taking part in the OSCE conference on anti-Semitism and other forms of intolerance, stated that he would remain BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs until BiH Parliament confirms his dismissal. "The only thing Terzic can do is to release me from this post. But for that he has to have Parliamentary support. I will obey his decision as soon as Parliament confirms is", said Ivanic in his telephone statement for BHT. "I believe that Ivanic is not in Spain as the Minister of Foreign Affairs, but I'm not sure", said Terzic. |

| V. Sehic: Constitution does not envisage dissolution of BiH HoR | Dnevni List pg 3, mentioned on cover 'Constitution did not envisage dissolution of authority' by N. Bise – Talking about the possibility of early elections due to the current authority crisis, President of the BiH Election Commission Vehid Sehic stated that the BiH Constitution did not envisage as to who passes the decision on dissolution of the elected body. Talking about dissolution of the BiH House of Representatives, Sehic said the BiH Constitution does not deal with this issue at all and the question arises whether the BiH HoR can be dissolved at all. |
| Terzic's appearance in FTV's Forum on crisis, police reform, constitutional changes | FTV 'Forum' current affairs program – Appearing in the TV show on the current political situation, the BiH Prime Minister Adnan Terzic noted that stoppage in reformatory process was noted once former RS PM Dragan Mikerevic, whom he described as very cooperative, resigned leaving RS Government composed of SDS members. On the other hand, PDP participating in BiH Government, says Terzic, used CoM to promote Serb interests through obstruction of reforms. Terzic said that he will go to Banja Luka on Friday to meet officials from RS assuming until till next session of the BiH Parliament a position on Mladen Ivanic's replacement will be more clear. On the police reform, Terzic said that there are some hints from RS that negotiations from Vlasic could be continued, stressing that it is important to understand reform as such is a long term project. Terzic explained that once politicians reach the agreement on police, and after the Law is passed the experts will need 3-5 years to conclude all points on the police. BiH PM also said that he attended a round table in Banja Luka two months ago on constitutional changes, expressing his concern as political subjects in RS do not accept a notion that there is any need for the changes. |

| Media comment on CoM crisis | Hayat Denis Zaimovic – NTV Hayat journalist comments the situation/crisis in the BiH Council of Ministers saying Ivanic uses all media to revenge to Terzic, at least verbally. Meanwhile, BiH House of Representatives tasked Terzic to consult with political parties represented in the HoR in order for the crisis in the CoM to be overcome. This means that Terzic has to find RS Political party wanting to propose two its candidates to fulfil ministerial positions. Reporter says that PDP would hardly do this. According to a source, SDS is also not going to do this. FTV Blazica Kristo – FTV reporter says unless SDS, HDZ and SDA reach an agreement in the next few weeks, CoM could fall. Slobodna Dalmacija pg 18 'State Government does not rule' by B. Kristo carries a commentary which says that the BiH Council of Ministers does not work as the BiH CoM at all and those whose positions are not under question mark, at least for the time being, are Ministers from SDA and SBiH. BHT 1 'Frankly Speaking' current affairs program – BHT 1 comments that Terzic's decision to accept Ivanic's resignation proves that BiH politicians act as if BiH was their private company, and notes Terzic doesn't want to admit that he had caused a new crisis in BiH government. |
| Butler meets Dodik in Banja Luka , urges progress in police reform | BHT1, PINK, Hayat, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 8 'RSMNA stopped a path towards Brussels' by O. Vukovic – PDHR Larry Butler warned in Banja Luka on Thursday that the RS National Assembly has with its conclusions on police reforms stopped the process of integration of BiH into the EU. Following the meeting the leader of SNSD, Milorad Dodik, Butler said that they both agreed that the police reform is an activity that has come to a halt, and stressed that this is a process to which politicians have to return in order to unblock and ensure talks with the EU on the SAA. Dodik also pointed out to some of his earlier proposals on police according to which Mostar region should be split into Trebinje and Mostar, while Tuzla region should have HQ in Bijeljina, which would ensure 6 regions in FBiH and 5 in RS. RHB – Butler stated in Banja Luka that BIH has not time for extraordinary elections. |

| BHT 1 int. w/ PDHR Butler on economic situation: main obstacle is RS refusal to accept conditions necessary to move to EU | BHT 1 ‘Frankly Speaking’ current affairs program by Duska Jurisic– In an interview to BHT1, the PDHR Lawrence Butler commented on the present economic situation in BiH stating the unemployment rate was increasing in past two years, whereas situation has been getting better again. The exchange deficit is also decreasing, and number of foreign investments is increasing. Butler emphasized that the deficit is lower in BiH than in RS, and most of the foreign investments are also coming to FBiH. However, these improvements are not sufficient, says Butler , and much more needs to be done. Butler stated that the internal fiscal situation in BiH is not sustainable, and there are several possible solutions for this problem – BiH can try to increase the budget income, reduce state administration or open new work places. He emphasized the importance of strengthening the private sector and creating conditions for more foreign investments. According to Butler , main obstacle for development of private sector and foreign investment is the political instability caused by RS’ refusal to accept the conditions necessary for association with the EU. |
