Debate on referendum initiative

Serbian delegation visits BL to meet Dodik, Cavic, Ivanic and Radojicic; No talk of referendum; RS PM: HR CSS was not correctly informed on nature of discussion; Conclusion: DPA must be respected equally	BHT 1 by Zoran Sarenac – The changes to the agreement on special and parallel relations, and concrete arrangements on economic cooperation between RS and Serbia are the result of the Serbian Government delegation's visit to Banjaluka. The possible referendum in RS was not discussed; however, guests from Serbia stressed that the stance of the official Belgrade is entirely supportive of the Dayton Peace Agreement. The agreement on special and parallel relations between RS and Serbia has to be revised as soon as possible following the succession of Montenegro, was concluded at the Banja Luka meeting of Serbian Prime Minister Vojislav Kostunica, RS President Dragan Cavic, RS PM Milorad Dodik, BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic and RS National Assembly Speaker Igor Radojicic. If there is a country in the region that cares about the international agreements, it's Serbia, stated Serbian PM Kostunica, mentioning Dayton Peace Agreement, and the UN Resolution 1244 for Kosovo. "Everything that goes beyond that, everything that questions those agreements can provoke different reactions. It is better to avoid those reactions. Therefore, let's obey the agreements as they are", concluded Kostunica, and reports comments this obviously refers to the DPA. According to BHT reporter, two Prime Ministers, Dodik and Kostunica, separately held meeting to discuss concrete ways of economic cooperation and not referendum, something the HR Christian Schwarz-Schilling was afraid of. "Well, I think that HR Schwarz-Schilling was not correctly informed about some things regarding those discussions. If you ask us whether we discussed the referendum... we have discussed air traffic, border crossings and some other issues", stated RS PM Dodik after the meeting with Kostunica. Dodik was commenting to the letter the HR sent to him on Thursday urging him to stop with the talk on referendum. RHB, FTV – In a letter sent on Thursday, HR stressed that he expects Dodik to act in line with his obligations, and to stop giving statements in favour of referendum on secession. HR stressed that RS has no jurisdiction to schedule a referendum on secession: "I hope that You are clear that any concrete plans along that line would represent obvious breaching of Dayton Peace Agreement", the letter said. PINK by Milka Mrdja – Also notes RS referendum was not discussed but nevertheless Kostunica stressed that principles and rules of international law, Dayton Agreement included, must be equally implemented. Vecernji list pg 4 'Serbian will go to EU through Belgrade, not RS' – Kostunica noted that if one was to count, he visited Sarajevo many times more than Banja Luka. He also denied the statement of the BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic who said that Serbia is trying to enter EU through Banja Luka. The two of them have not discussed the issue of referendum on RS' secession. RTRS, FTV – Cavic stated that he and Kostunica agreed to affirm the Dayton Agreement thus sending a message to those who look at Banja Luka – Belgrade relations in a bad way. Kostunica stated that ICTY cooperation was one of main topics of conversation. He stressed that this issue is very important for RS and Serbia. "There is political will for it", says Kostunica noting this issue must not prevent Serbia joining EU. Hayat by Snjezana Mulic – "We mostly discussed on extending our economic cooperation and in that sense we agreed that we should start from infrastructure", said Kostunica. "I particularly want to emphasize our talks on a project, which would support good relations between BiH and Serbia; namely to jointly use Raca border crossing in terms of customs and transport of goods", said Dodik. PINK by Milka Mrdja – On the issue of Raca border crossing, RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik says the "RS Government will insist on that at Council of Ministers." Cavic and Kostunica also agreed that ICTY cooperation is inevitable. HR launches European tour in Moscow , meets Russian PM Lavrov: entities have no authority to schedule referendum	FTVby Sinan Saric – The High Representative in BiH Christian Schwarz-Schilling is on six-day tour of Europe visiting Moscow, Berlin and Brussels. With the European officials, HR will discuss progress BiH has made so far, but also the reforms that have to be carried out in BiH. The implementation of reforms that would improve the living standard in BiH and enable full integration of the country into the European structures, has to be a “clear strategic goal for BiH”, Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov and HR Schwarz-Schilling stressed at their meeting held in Moscow on Friday. They also concluded that BiH entities have no jurisdiction to schedule a referendum on secession. Minister Lavrov confirmed that Russian Federation is committed to respecting the Dayton Peace Agreement; both officials called upon BiH authorities –especially RS PM Dodik and President Dragan Cavic – to a full cooperation with The Hague Tribunal. Lavrov and Schwarz-Schilling also discussed the process of police reform urging its implementation in line with the EC principles, and the preparations for the coming elections in BiH. SDS Novakovic on referendum talks: this is obvious election campaign	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 ‘New proposal for disintegration of BiH’ by A.Malagic – Reacting on statement of Rajko Vasic, SNSD Secretary (that SNSD would agree to resume talks on constitutional changes after elections if changes to constitutional stipulate right to referendum), daily carries comments of political officials. SDS’ Momiclo Novakovic underlines that the SNSD leader Milorad Dodik has not been presenting such stances when discussions on constitutional changes were run, adding this is “an obvious pre-election campaign”. He also noted: “The legitimate right of any people, including Serb people, is to right to decide on its future, but this needs to enjoy support of the international community...It would be good if this were included into constitutions, but the Constitution is a result of agreement between the all, not only desire of one party.” SDA’ Sefik Dzaferovic, firmly stated: “What Vasic is proposing is a way to disintegration of BiH. We firmly reject it and will not accept it at any cost.” HDZ’ Miso Relota assessed the story on referendum is a result of pre-election campaign in BiH. HNZ also shares this view of HDZ.

DEPOS condemns the declaration, whilst SDA supports it. SDA member Adil Osmanovic stated that this party would re-examine its stance towards the RS Government. BiH House of Peoples deputy Djoko Pajic stated that Dodik should dismiss SDA and SzBiH Ministers from the RS Government. SRS member in BiH House of Representatives Mirko Blagojevic on the other hand feels that RS Government has caused damage to RS, claiming the issue is a pre-election trick of SNSD and SDA. RS Pensioners Party decided to support Dodik on the referendum issue. Oslobodjenje op-ed on referendum talks: Karadzic could be satisfied	Oslobodjenje pg 9 ‘Karadzic could be satisfied’ op-ed by Mirko Sagolj – Editorial refers to the talks of the referendum, noting that “Radovan Karadzic now can be more than satisfied. Not only he is at large, but also his successors continue with this work, aggression on BiH and [aiming] at its division.” Commenting the latest statements by the RS PM Milorad Dodik, Sagolj notes that it is especially interesting that SDS “is reserved towards the Dodik’s initiative... it is hard to understand whether they do not believe it is realistic or it is only elections trick... Dodik’s initiative on referendum is not only empty talk, but it has long-reaching... goals... Despite the fact that all legal and political circumstances, in addition to the stance of the international community, disable this kind of referendum in BiH, it seems that [Serbian and RS official] are now taking up their start positions for desired political climax... – dissolution [of BiH.]”

BiH Court : ICTY suspect Zelenovic to be transferred to Hague ASAP; Media speculate Russians use this to improve relations with IC	FTVby Zeljko Tica – According to the order issued on Friday by the Court of BiH, Dragan Zelenovic would be extradited to The Hague Tribunal within 36 hours of passing this decision. Zelenovic would be kept in detention until NATO transfers him to The Hague, as was decided by the pre-trial hearing judge of the Court of BiH Marie Tuma. Zelenovic was indicted by the ICTY for the crimes against humanity and violations of the laws and customs of war committed in Foca; he was extradited to BiH from Russia on Thursday afternoon, only two days after Chief ICTY Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte expressed discontent with the cooperation of the Russian Federation in her report to the UN Security Council. ICTY spokesperson in BiH Mathias Hellman expressed hope that he would be transferred to The Hague as soon as possible. Russian Embassy wouldn't comment on this issue. The Hague Prosecution has already asked ICTY to transfer Zelenovic's case to BiH; ICTY judges have not yet discussed this request, since Zelenovic was not in The Hague. BHT 1 by Marina Boskovic – BHT reporter comments that Zelenovic will be extradited to The Hague exactly ten years after the indictment for war crimes committed in Foca has been launched. He was arrested in Russia in 2005 for possession of forged passports. "After we received the request for extradition from The Hague Tribunal, he was handed over to the country whose citizenship he's got – that is, BiH", stated Russian Foreign Minister Sergey Lavrov. According to BHT reporter, Russian media speculate the extradition to BiH is an attempt to shift the responsibility to BiH authorities, and to improve relations with the International Community. "[Dragan Zelenovic] believes that he has become a political issue, that he is used to improve the relations between Russia and The Hague", stated Zelenovic's attorney Slavisa Asceric. Commenting the request for the transfer of the case to BiH Court, Hellman says: "That request is yet to be discussed; it will be discussed only after Zelenovic arrives to The Hague." PINKby Zeljko Mandic – BIH Court Chair Meddzida Kreso explained that Russian authorities are not recognising ICTY thus meaning that Zelenovic was transferred to BIH first. BiH HoR's Gligoric critical of SDA demand to PIC to sanction RS delegates at BiH Parliament over blocking its work	Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5, announced on cover 'De-blockade after the appointment of Sarajevo Commission' by Almir Terzic – Tihomir Gligoric, President of the Mixed Club of delegates at the BiH HoR, has stated that the decision of the SDA Club at the BiH Parliamentary Assembly to address PIC and demand sanctions for the Serb delegates from RS who are blocking the work of the state Parliament clearly shows that the SDA has actually always been a conflicting political factor in BiH. He has stressed it is now clear that "actions of SDA has an aim when it is not done their way, they immediately demand action of their friends at the OPHR and abroad". According to him, such SDA' stances (that introducing discipline to Serb delegates would lead to obedience) is a bad political assessment, and it will not happen. He underlines: "Neither SDA or OHR observe causes but rather consequences. Why SDA did not react so firmly to see conclusion of the BiH PA implemented and Commission, whose establishment has been obstructed for two years and a half, is formed...Where was Schilling then to say it could not be done." BiH HoR Co Chair, Sefik Dzaferovic has stressed that he will meet with Martin Raguz, BiH HoR Chair Monday and discuss the latest developments, since he is of the view this is a "a classical obstruction and blocked of state institutions". According to inset 1 'Gligoric opposes to Masovic', Gligoric says that statement of Amor Masovic (that he would become a Commission member out of spite) are astonishing.
