Political Developments/Reforms

RS Government proposed new police reform concept	RTRS, SRNA , Oslobodjenje pg 5 'New proposal on police reform', Dnevni Avaz pg 2, mentioned on cover 'RS Government proposed new concept', Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'RS police remains' – The RS Government on Friday offered a new police reform Proposal in accord with the three EU principles but within the framework of the RS, FBiH and BiH Constitutions, the RS Government said. "A BiH Law on Police would define the institutions, bodies and competencies of police structures which would insure their full effectiveness," says the Proposal. It states that the BiH Police Ministry would have jurisdiction over criminal acts in the jurisdiction of the BiH Prosecution and Court, as well as the authority to take appropriate action throughout BiH in accordance with decisions and orders from the BiH Prosecution and Court. The Proposal stipulates that the RS police ministry and RS police represent a sub-system of the security system of RS, having in mind the competencies of district prosecutors and the areas covered by district courts. One of the criteria for the formation of functional local police districts ought to be the jurisdiction of district prosecutors and the areas covered by district courts. It states that the election of bodies, officials and personnel shall be done in accordance with the appropriate laws. "The period for the implementation of police reform is five years, beginning in 2006, by the reduction of police ranks and other employees. Legislation in accord with the three EU principles is to begin being enforced in 2007," says the RS Government press release. This Proposal on Friday was presented to the major political parties in RS and to all RS parties having seat in the RS Parliament, to the high representative, Paddy Ashdown, the members of the PIC , the EU commissioner for enlargement, Olli Rehn, the EU High Representative for common foreign and security policy, Javier Solana, and to the head of the European Commission delegation to BiH, Michael Humphries. The Proposal is accompanied by a letter from RS premier Pero Bukejlovic. "We believe that the proposed solutions shall contribute to meeting the last remaining condition for the commencement of talks with the EU on stabilisation and association. If you agree with our approach to police reform, we hope to get your personal engagement to ensure that this document should get the necessary political support of the IC and the RS Parliament," says the letter.

EU Foreign Ministers will on Monday send a clear signal to PIC members that an issue of the further existence of RS in this form should be put on the agenda.
