BiH Presidency rejected Terzic's resignation	Herceg Bosna Radio, BHT, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje pgs 4-5, mentioned on cover 'Minister Halilovic might be removed from the Government?!' by V. Zivak, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Premier Terzic's resignation rejected', Dnevni List pg 3 'Survival of current authority in hands of Party for BiH', mentioned on front 'Green light to Terzic for reconstruction of FBiH Government' by D. Polovina-Mandic, Vecernji List pg 2 'Reconstruction of CoM up to Terzic' by D. Jazvic, Slobodna Dalmacija last pg 'Terzic's resignation was not accepted' by D. Pasic, Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash and pg 2 'Terzic announced removal of Halilovic' by M. Cubro; EuroBlic RSpG 2 'Resignation results in confidence' by D.S.; Glas Srpske pg 5 'Terzic's demand rejected' – The BiH Presidency on Wednesday rejected Adnan Terzic's request for resignation as chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers. Terzic was asked to cooperate more closely with the BiH Parliamentary Assembly and to continue working on reforms. The resignation (request for dismissal) was not accepted and, after the meeting with representatives of political parties, the BiH Presidency gave Terzic freedom of action to use his discretion and reorganize the cabinet if necessary. According to BiH Presidency member Sulejman Tihic, reforms in BiH must be continued. "This decision is, among other things, also a result of yesterday's (Tuesday) meeting, during which representatives of the political parties that make up the parliamentary majority gave their unambiguous support to Prime Minister Terzic and the present members of the Council of Ministers; only one party lent conditional support. We believe we will emerge stronger from this situation," Tihic told journalists after the Presidency session. According to Oslobođenje, it is not hard to conclude that the possible reconstruction of the CoM refers to Safet Halilovic and his Party for BiH. On Wednesday, Halilovic was not informed by Terzic on his possible removal as Terzic himself did not exclude possibility that Halilovic is removed if he does not provide necessary support to reform processes. Dnevni Avaz cover page 'I am prepared to make some personnel changes', pg 5 'I do not exclude possibility that some ministers be dismissed' – "BiH Presidency gave support not only to me but to a more accelerated implementation of reforms," said Terzic in an interview with the daily commenting on the BiH Presidency decision to reject his request for being relieved of duty. Oslobođenje pg 4 'Session of the Interstate Council postponed', Dnevni List pg 5 'Agreement on Ploce Port does not exist any longer', mentioned on front, by I. Glibusic and Slobodna Dalmacija pg 17 'Session of Inter-State Council for Cooperation between Croatia and BiH postponed' by D. Pasic, – The Presidency also made a decision, in cooperation with Stjepan Mesic, President of the Republic of Croatia, to postpone the session of the Intergovernmental Council scheduled for November 19 due to insufficient preparation. Property rights relations, the status of the port of Ploce, as well as the passage through Neum remain open bilateral problems. The BiH Presidency annulled the decision on the appointment of Dragan Bozanic as BiH ambassador to the Council of Europe. A new candidate for the ambassadorial position will be discussed at the next session.
NN op-ed on Terzic's actions	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Love towards the power' by Mirza Cubro – The author is writing about Adnan Terzic, saying that we have all known we would remain the BiH COM Chair. He claims that well-informed people knew very well from the very beginning that Terzic's demand for resignation was actually a call for more discipline of delegates at BiH Parliament. According to him, the only news following five-days peripeteias is that ruling parties remain in coalition.

Crisis in the Federation Government	Oslobodjenje, pgs 4-5, 'Mandates at disposal of party', by A. Terzic – President of the SDP Caucus in the FBiH Parliament, Karlo Filipovic, reiterates that SBiH's ministers in the FBiH Government should leave the said Government if they are unhappy with the work of it since it would be the best solution to overcome one in the series of crisis in the work of this executive body. On the other hand, the FBiH Minister of Trade and Tourism, Maid Ljubovic (SBiH), told Oslobodjenje that he and his party colleagues, namely Ramiz Mehmedovic, Gavrilo Grahovac and Izet Zigic, have put their ministerial mandates at disposal of the SBiH. "I did what I should do. I offered the ministerial mandate to the party that had appointed me and it is down to the party leadership to decide on my future in the FBiH Government. I am ready to leave the Government if the party asks me to do so and if such position is reached", says Ljubovic. Ljubovic stresses that he comes to work on daily basis and does his job, however he will not be attending sessions of the FBiH Government. Oslobodjenje, pg 7, mentioned on front, 'Rapporteurs instead of ministers?!', by A. Terzic – The FBiH Prime Ministers, Ahmet Hadzipasic, believes it is not good to transfer the 'alleged crisis' in the FBiH Government to the FBiH Parliament, noting it is a matter primary for the Government itself. Hadzipasic notes that he is yet to receive anything in writing from the SBiH's ministers about reasons of their dissatisfaction, and goes on to say that he has sent the SBiH's ministers Ljubovic, Mehmedovic, Grahovac and Zigic a letter in which he asks them to appoint authorized rapporteurs, who would be attending sessions of the Government. "The rapporteurs would present projects that the FBiH Government would discuss, but they would not have the right to vote. However, this is not the best solution, and the best thing would be that SBiH's ministers return to sessions of the Government (...) I expect from SBiH's ministers to inform me in following days whether the rapporteurs will be appointed and who they will be", says PM Hadzipasic. Vecernji List pg 5 'Silajdzic's representatives will demand removal of Government' by eme reports that the resolving of the Federation of BiH Government crises will take place next week since SBiH will demand at the first, next session of the FBiH House of Representatives the discussion on the work of the FBiH Government and on the demands of SBiH Ministers regarding privatization. VL says that in case that their demands do not get support (which is very likely to happen), SBiH representatives will initiate removal of the FBiH Government and they will withdraw their ministers. The article concludes that in that case, SDA and HDZ will keep the majority thanks to support of a few smaller parties. Dnevni List pg 3 'Session op FBiH Government without SBiH Ministers' by N. Bise carries that SBiH Ministers will not attend the session of the FBiH Government that is to take place on Thursday.

Interview with Niko Lozancic (crisis in FBiH Government)	Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'Crisis is a permanent term in the work of the Federation of BiH Government' by R. Cengic – in a lengthy interview, the Federation of BiH President Niko Lozancic has stated that the crisis at the Federation of BiH Government, caused after ministers of the Party for BiH have left a session, is 'a standard situation' and he added that 'crisis has become a permanent term in functioning of the Federation of BiH Government'. He does not think the Party for BiH would withdraw from the authority at all levels. Asked to comment whether the new crisis at the Federation of BiH Government would have an influence on results of the executive or legislative authority, Lozancic said 'this cannot have an influence on results of the authority as long as Paddy Ashdown and Donald Hays are functioning'. He also said the Government is only formally confirming projects that were actually developed outside the Government.
Ashdown met with US officials	Dnevni Avaz, pg 5 'Lack of cooperation of RS with The Hague endangers BiH's progress', mentioned on front 'Rumsfeld hands out award to Ashdown', by S. HR Ashdown will be addressing the UN Security Council today (Thursday). Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'RS must correct nine-years of mistakes in the following three weeks' by VOA – High Representative Paddy Ashdown has stated US State Secretary Colin Powell was very clear when he stated there is a possibility for RS to be accused of violating the Dayton Agreement, because of which it will suffer serious consequences unless it arrested Hague indictees. During his visit to Washington and New York, where he is consulting American officials and officials of the World Bank and UN, the High Representative has stated that entire BiH is suffering because of the lack of cooperation of RS with the Hague Tribunal. HR Ashdown on Wednesday met with Colin Powell's Advisor for War Crimes Issues Richard Prosper and World Bank President James Wolfenson, and today he will address the Security Council of UN.

Z., FENA – The Head of the European Commission Delegation to BiH, Michael Humphreys, on Wednesday expressed an expectation that BiH could start the negotiations on signing Stabilization and Association Agreement with the EU in the course of the next year. "We have still not reached the phase of being able to negotiate Stabilization and Association Agreement, but I hope that we will reach this goal during the next year", said Humphreys in his address at the opening of the conference "EU and the Western Balkans", which has gathered the youth from the entire Europe. Humphreys was not able to specify when BiH will join the EU, but noted that this would definitely not happen in 2007, when Romania and Bulgaria, and probably Croatia, are expected to join the EU. He underlined that great progress in implementation of reform had been made in BiH over the past two years, but he added that it was necessary to do much more so that a country could be capable of becoming EU member. Humphreys stressed that EU is enhancing its presence in BiH in a very visible manner. Apart from the EC Delegation, the EU Special Representative, Paddy Ashdown, and the EU Police Mission, the EU military forces will be taking over the competencies from SFOR in the next month. "All this indicates a substantial EU commitment to BiH. It is our goal to insure that this country becomes a participating state of the EU", underlined Ambassador Humphreys. The conference "EU and Western Balkans", which was organized by the Sarajevo branch of the European Students' Association, has gathered some 40 young people from the entire Europe so that they could be informed about the current relations between the region and the EU, and the situation in BiH.

It means that control over police force should be under the authority of BiH Ministry of Security."

Namely, this is the first apology to be made by RS officials for the Srebrenica tragedy, when 7.800 Bosniaks had gone missing. The RS Government has previously accepted the Final Report of the Srebrenica Commission and adopted certain conclusions that, among other things, says that the Government is prepared to "bring all perpetrators of war crimes to justice". The conclusions, which were presented to the public on Wednesday, also state that "no crime, regardless of who had committed it, must go unpunished". The RS Government is requested to swiftly conduct exhumation and identification of missing persons so that the entire process could be completed. "The method and the manner of working by the Srebrenica Commission should become a example for the necessary further investigations into the war crimes committed in these areas, regardless of who had committed them and when", was concluded by the Entity Government. They consider this report, which has been endorsed by the RS Government in its entirety, as a frank recognition of the atrocities which took place in July 1995 and invite the RS authorities without delay to take all necessary steps to implement fully the conclusions of the report, including fresh efforts to locate mass graves, to identify victims and to bring those responsible for crimes to justice. They also express the hope that the Commission will be a model for future investigations into war crimes and its report the beginning of a wider process of genuine truth and reconciliation, covering the war crimes committed by all parties involved in the war that raged throughout Bosnia and Herzegovina. Only then the basis can be laid for a common future, directed towards future membership of the EU, which contributes to peace and stability in the region and to prosperity for the people of Bosnia and Herzegovine.

He adds: "This apology has not been made in conjunction with proper terms, such as the term of genocide, which report itself indicts. My view is that conclusions lack provisions saying that necessary measures RS Government needs to undertake now in order to see all those persons mentioned in the report prosecuted." Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'As long as Karadzic is at large, they do not trust written deceptions' by A. A number of items were confiscated in the raid, which will be investigated in detail in order to establish if any activities in contravention of the Dayton Agreement had taken place. A SFOR statement said that the operation was part of the ongoing process of lending support to the Hague Tribunal and BiH authorities in their efforts to arrest war crimes indictees. Jovanovic says that those who were hiding Ljubisa Beara for 10 years in Serbia are hiding Mladic, Karadzic and other ICTY indictees. He notes it does not surprise at all that Vojislav Kostunica is not cooperating with the Hague Tribunal, since Kostunica said during pre-election campaign he does not support cooperation with the ICTY. Jovanovic stresses: "I am of the view that the RS has always been depending on the guilt created by Belgrade. Such was at the times of Slobodan Milosevic, and so is nowadays." He noted that the RS must think of its future, and politicians in RS must improve economy, which should result in more efficient health service, education services and police and judiciary.

Serbian officials on Kostunica and cooperation with ICTY	Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Kostunica promised to socialists he would not send anybody to The Hague' by V. Korac added: "I find claims of Miload Dodik as being serious." Former Serbian Minister of Justice, Vladan Batic, states that RS President, Dragan Cavic, notified Serbian Premier, Vojislav Kostunica, in October on addresses of 9 ICTY indictees from RS that are hiding in Serbia, adding that meeting Cavic-Kostunica was difficult and unpleasant, since people from RS "acknowledge their future depends on cooperation with the ICTY, unlike officials from Serbia, who do not want to do that". (Glas Srpske pg 3 'Kostunica got the addresses') According to NN inset 'SDS about addresses of Hague indictees', SDS Presidency at Wednesday session discussed this issue and also to take a stance regarding publication of Srebrenica Commission Report. Conference on preparing BiH
sector for EU takes place in Sarajevo

BHT, FTV, Oslobođenje pg 8 'State Ministry necessary', Dnevni List pg 4 'Preparations of BiH agriculture for integration in EU' by NINA, Glas Srpske pg 3 'Agriculture under one hat'; EuroBlic RSpG 2 'Agriculture at BiH level as well' by SRNA, FENA – Numerous problems in the agricultural sector in BiH can be avoided through the administrative and legal changes and they must be dealt with so that the country could have an agricultural policy and a programme for accessing the processes of European integration. In addition, it is clear that the establishment of a state-level ministry of agriculture would resolve many of these problems. The Principal Deputy High Representative, Donald Hays, made this statement in his address at the opening of one-day conference "Preparing BiH agriculture for EU integration", which was jointly organized by the OHR, the EC Delegation to BiH and the BiH Council of Ministers, with the aim of finding the guidelines for institutional development of the agricultural sector and agro-business in the period between 2005 and 2010. "We must all be aware that over a half of the population in BiH live in the rural areas, in poverty, and that they have serious problems with a low employment rate. The new system of registering land, which will facilitate privatization and transfer of ownership on agricultural land, has already been developed and I think that certain solutions are on their way," said Hays. He added that the aim of the international community is to, through different manners, such as the campaign "Agriculture and profit" and the "Bulldozer" initiative, stimulate the young returnees and DPs from the rural areas into viewing agriculture a means of making their return sustainable. BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic stressed that agriculture in BiH is a matter of crucial importance, and reiterated that this sector can bring a greater well being to the citizens of BiH. He reiterated that the agricultural production currently makes up to 12 percent of the GDP in BiH, that agriculture participates with 18 percent in the total employment and that BiH is the country that has the lowest subventions in Europe. The Head of the European Commission to BiH, Michael Humphreys, said that the EU is prepared to help the reform of the agricultural system in BiH, reiterating that the country must finally have a single ministry that will speak on behalf of all agricultural producers.

Senior party officials of SDA did not want to make comment on this, neither were other political party's officials willing to do that, bar Momiclo Novakovic from SDS who said: "If SDS President Dragan Cavic supported the BiH CoM composition, it does not necessarily mean SDS supports a single VAT rate."

SNSD on VAT	Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'A single rate is behind game on VAT' by V.P – The SNSD on Wednesday released a press statement, saying that the SNSD stance regarding VAT is clear and remains unchanged (support to differentiated rate with zero and 17% rate).
