Slobodna Bosna
on start of war
crimes trials
at BiH Court

Slobodna Bosna cover pg splash '10,000 war criminals will stand trials in Sarajevo' and pgs 24-28 'Detention unit in Sarajevo will hold 250 war crimes indictees in each moment' by Suzana Mijatovic – The article carries an announcement that the processing of war crimes in Sarajevo will commence in several weeks before the Special Department for War Crimes of BiH Court. Former "Ramiz Salcin" barracks have been adjusted for the needs of the court and, according to SB, several tens of million € have already been invested for this purpose. According to BiH Court President, Meddzida Kreso, eventually 39 local and international judges should be employed at BiH Court. The Department for War Crimes will consist of three judicial councils and one Appellate Council – consisting of two international judges and one local judge. Two years later, court councils should be consisted of two judges from BiH and one international judge and, by 2010, the councils should consist of local judges only. With regard to costs, Kreso said 2 million € have been spent for the construction of a detention unit. EC helped renovation of the barracks by donating 20 million €. The article also carries a statement of BiH Chief Prosecutor, Marinko Jurcevic, as saying he does not know when the first cases would be transferred from the Hague. It is assumed that ICTY might transfer seven cases to BiH Court and Prosecutor's Office. Indictments were already brought in these seven cases and, according to some speculations, the Mejakic case will be processed in Sarajevo, as well as cases of Pasko Ljubicic and Miroslav Bralo Cicko. Apart from these cases, the Prosecutor's Office would also takeover cases in which The Hague prosecutors have already launched investigations and, according to Jurcevic, this would be approximately 1,000 cases against approximately 10,000 persons.

Political Developments/Reforms

OHR: BiH is sovereign state, not the RS	TV Pink – Answering the critics stated by the office of the resigning RS Prime Minister Dragan Mikerevic on Chair of BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic's visit to Brussels, OHR gave statement saying that the term sovereignty, according to its definition, was being used for sovereign states, and not for entities. The statement states that BiH is a sovereign state; entities are not, and that RS has to admit this and it has to learn to live with it and act in accordance with it; RS has to stop acting like a state, since it is not a state, says the OHR's statement, reports Pink. (also covered by Hayat, Dnevni List pg 5, mentioned on cover 'BiH is sovereign state and RS is not' by NINA, Nezavisne novine pg 3 'RS is an entity, not a state' by N. Tihic meets Schook, Gregorian	Oslobodjenje pg 4 'Continuation of defence reform', FENA – BiH Presidency member Sulejman Tihic on Thursday held talks with the Commander of the NATO Headquarters in Sarajevo, General Steven Schook, and the Co-Chairman of the BiH Defense Reform Commission, Raffi Gregorian. The talks focused on the issues that should be resolved in the further course of defense reform, which are obstacle to BiH's admission into the Partnership for Peace and NATO, said a press release issued by the Presidency's Public Relations Service. This primarily refers to the existence and the role of the Entity defense structures, and the conception and functioning of the recruit and reserve contingents of the military in BiH (also reported by Pink TV, Dnevni Avaz, pg 10 'BiH must be protected from aggression in future too')

Ljiljan: Police
re-organization
first step towards new organization of BiH

Ljiljan cover pg splash 'Vance-Owen Plan from 1993 will be ground for new organization of BiH' and pgs 14 and 15 'BiH will be organized according to Vance-Owen Plan?' by M. Borovic – Ljiljan learns from its high-ranked international and diplomatic sources that the future organization of the BiH Police is the initial and primary phase for a new re-organization of BiH and its authorities according to the Vance-Owen Plan from March 1993. This would imply abolishment of BiH entities and complete decentralization of the whole authority in 10 regions with the joint leadership at the state level, that is, the BiH Presidency, BiH Parliament and BiH Council of Ministers. Asked whether the police regions are a copy of the Vance-Owen Plan and whether this is a forerunner of the future political-territorial organization of BiH, an OHR spokesperson Oleg Milisic stated that this question is in the domain of speculations and the OHR does not deal with such things.

Colak on Police reform, arrest of war criminals	Ljiljan pgs 10 -13 'After implementation of reforms I will take over responsibility for arrest of war criminals' by T. Lazovic- Carries an interview with BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak. Asked to comment on the Police reform, Colak says: 'I am convinced that if we persist on the concept, which was proposed, we shall have the police, that will be better educated, better paid and that will serve its citizens.' Asked whether he would take responsibility for the arrest of ICTY fugitives and the struggle against the organized crime as the Minister under whose competence will be the Police (after the end of the Police reform) and intelligence structure, Colak says: 'Of course. The Minister has the political responsibility.'
