RS PM Designate Dodik revealed names of future RS Government Ministers	RTRS – Milorad Dodik, RS Prime Minister Designate revealed names of Ministers, while the RSNA session on election of the Government should be scheduled between February 20 and 25. According to RTRS, Dodik believes that has support of majority in the RSNA and that the budget will be passed by the end of February, right after the Government's elections. Dodik is still waiting for proposals of PDP and SDP for ministerial positions. "We know now that the Minister of Finance would be from SNSD, Aleksandar Dzombic, who is now a deputy director of Nova Banka Bijeljina, Minister of Administration and Local Self-Government Nebojsa Radmanovic, Minister of Communication and Transport Nedeljko Cubrilovic from DNS, Minister of Economy, Energy and Development would be Milan Jelic, present director of Refinery and Minister of Health and Social Welfare would be Ranko Skrbic", said Dodik. According to RTRS, Dodik looks for a ministerial position for Omer Brankovic. Ministry of Interior would go to SNSD and new Speaker in RSNA would be Igor Radojicic. SRS will be along with SDS in opposition since they care very much, according to RTRS, about the Serb majority in RSNA. NHI will give great support to Dodik. "We believe that Mr. Dodik is man of this time. He (Dodik) is in his nature man of action, ready to take political risks. This time demands people like him", said Kresimir Zubak, NHI President. DSS is close to give full support to Dodik and is only waiting to get certain guarantee for RS status. The consultations will end on Sunday and Dodik will officially request the RSNA session on Monday. BHT 1 carries that Dodik pointed out that before electing the new government, SNSD would propose dismissal of the RS National Assembly Speaker Dusan Stojicic and appoint Igor Radojicic as the new one. Nezavisne Novine pg 4, mentioned on cover 'New RS Government by February 25' by V. Popovic carries a similar report.
