Issue of RS Government

SNSD submits an initiative on casting of vote of no confidence to RS Govt signed by SNSD, PDP, SNS, SDA	FTV by Marina Marjanovic – SNSD Caucus on Wednesday presented the RS National Assembly speaker Dusan Stojicic with the initiative for convening a special session of the Entity Parliament with only one item on agenda: casting of a vote of no confidence to the current Pero Bukejlovic's Government. Head of the SNSD's Caucus Krstan Simic stressed that they expect Stojicic and the RS President Dragan Cavic to assess this initiative in an urgent procedure. "We have sent the initiative to the RS President, and we expect him to assess whether a crisis has been created in functioning of the RS Government, and call on Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic to resign", explained Simic. Although Simic did not say how many representatives' signatures SNSD have gathered, FTV reporter unofficially learns that 18 SNSD representatives, 9 PDP representatives and 1 SNS representative signed the SNSD's initiative. "We have enough signatures to launch the initiative... We will discuss the issue of new Government after we cast a vote of no confidence to the current RS Government", added Simic. Although representatives of DNS and Socialist Party have not signed the initiative, representatives of those two parties stated that they would give their support to SNSD at the special session of the RS NA. SDS stated on Wednesday that they would not support the initiative as they do not see the 'real arguments for such move'. After he received the document with representatives' signatures, Stojicic stated that the special RS NA session should take place by the January 25. Before that, RS Government has ten days to take a stance on the SNSD's proposal. BHT1 by Boris Gagic – BHT says it is questionable whether the SNSD is able to establish the new RS Government. "It is not good to start this procedure if we do not have (necessary) 42 votes. I think that it is not good for RS. But if there are 42 votes, this should be finished with as soon as possible", stated Stojicic. BHT speculates that the news parties would consist of SNSD, PDP, SDP, SBiH, partly DNS and SPR, with SDS, Radicals and SDA as the opposition. According to some unofficial information, SDA will support SNSD's initiative; this party would even support the new RS Government if it gets the ministerial positions for Bosniaks. "Since I am politically active in RS there was no such complicated situation. I believe that SDA will profit in any case", stated SDA's Tarik Sadovic. RHB, PINK, HAYAT, RTRS, Vecernji List pg 2 'Initiative for removal of RS Government' not signed, Dnevni List pg 4 'Discussion on voting confidence to Government', Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'About confidence vote in RS Govt until 25 January' by V.Popovic, EuroBlic RSpG 1 'Political game' by Rajna Radosavljevic – also reported on the issue.

DA: DNS turns back to Dodik; Stojicic: attempt to deceive public that majority could be established without Bosniaks	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'DNS turned back to Milorad Dodik', mentioned on cover, by N.Diklic – In regard to SNSD initiative for casting of a vote of no confidence to RS Government, RSNA Speaker Dusan Stojicic stated that DNS and SPRS have not signed the initiative despite Milorad Dodik's announcements. "It is clear that by hiding the signatures of certain parties, and SDA signed it, there is an attempt to deceive the public that the majority could be established without Bosniak parties," commented Stojicic. As for other parties Dodik has been mentioning as his supporters in this case, DA carries that they claim not being approached by SNSD. DNS officials Jovan Mitrovic said he has no intention to call on the RS Government to resign, accusing Dodik of announcing similar initiatives and wasting party's time. SPRS representative Nedjo Djuric agrees with DNS, however his party's leader Petar Djokic claims that misunderstanding has occurred due to great amount of holidays, which were cause that no one from SNSD could contact SPRS. Djokic stated that they are in favour of replacing the RS Government. Oslobodjenje pg 6 'SNSD launched initiative for replacement of Government' mentioned on cover by Orijana Vukovic – SNSD Vice-President Krstan Simic said that SNSD is ready to take over authority in RS and BiH institutions. SDS to become opposition at state level if no-confidence voted to RS Govt; comments	BHT1by Damir Simic – As several SDS officials stated, if the RS Government falls down, SDS would become opposition at the state level as well. However, leading parties and opposition in BiH Parliament claim such move would not have too big influence at the parliamentary majority. SDS announced that it would not support the state budget, which would transfer the crisis from entity to the state level. “Not a single Serb in the Commission supported this budget. We have proposed quite a few amendments, they were rejected, and therefore SDS did not vote for the proposed budget. Now, the budget is before the state parliament, and we will see what is going to happen”, stated SDS President Dragan Cavic. SDA claims that SDS has five representatives in state Parliament, which means that if they went into opposition, Council of Ministers would not lose the parliamentary support. SNSD has three representatives in the BiH Parliament, but, according to BHT reporter, it is still not clear how would they conduct themselves if they become the ruling party in the RS. “I personally believe that the main goal of the crisis in RS is to interfere with the work of the CoM and BiH Parliament. But I don’t believe that they will succeed in it”, stated SDA Caucus member Elmir Jahic in a statement to BHT. SDP believes that SNSD’s initiative is ‘understandable’, but not very clever only half a year before the elections. “We have the crisis somewhere almost every day, in some municipality or a canton, or one of the entities. Crisis seem to be completely normal thing in BiH political life, and I would say that current governments are surviving very well thanks to those crisis”, stated representative of the SDP Caucus Jozo Krizanovic. PINK– Commenting the crisis in the RS, Adnan Terzic, BiH CoM Chair believes that BiH should not allow any kind of governmental crisis since it could affect its way to Europe. According to Terzic, SDS Chair should do everything in order to prevent transfer of crisis from RS to the state level and holding up reforms in our country. EuroBlic RSpG inset ‘SDS “understood situation”. Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘Tesanovic: Government is culpable’ by V.P. – also reports.
PDP’s Tesanovic rejects SDS accusations	Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘Tesanovic: Government is culpable’ by V.P. – The PDP Wednesday rejected accusations of the SDS Presidency (that accused PDP of having caused institutional crisis in RS, threatening to be transferred onto the state level). Zoran Tesanovic, PDP Main Board member, stressed that the PDP is not responsible for the current situation, noting PDP has withdrawn its support to RS Government since it had failed to do anything in a year of its mandate.

NN op-ed critical of RS politicians	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Defending the homeland' by Pero Simic – The author criticizes the political officials in RS, accusing them of raising the issue of the RS protection whenever it suits them, i.e. support to a majority is withdrawn or akin. He notes that "greater the fuss is, bigger the possibilities are to remain on power, which is – at least here – one of the prosperous professions."

Economic and judicial issues
BiH HoR to discuss SDP/ Terzic amendments to VAT law on Jan 16	FTV by Zeljko Tica – SDP still demands introduction of the zero rate for the VAT in BiH to be applied on basic goods such as food, medicines, publishing and newspapers, as well as the products that would stimulate primary agriculture production. For the third time, SDP caucus in the BiH House of Representatives submitted the proposal of the changes to the VAT law, which should be discussed at the session on January 16. SDP justifies their move with the fact that even the BiH Council of Ministers submitted the proposal of the changes to the VAT law, which foresees that publishing sector to be exempted from the VAT. "The CoM's request is in fact only one segment of our proposal of the changes to the VAT Law", explained Head of the SDP Caucus in the BiH HoR Jozo Krizanovic. FTV reporter speculates that SDP's support to the CoM's proposal will depend on CoM's attitude towards SDP's proposal. Krizanovic stressed that Trade Union, non-governmental organizations, experts; trade chambers and 150,000 BiH citizens (who signed the petition for differentiated VAT rates) support their proposal. SDP also does not believe that the announced controls of the prices will have some effect. Hayat, Oslobodjenje pg 7 'Law on VAT to be put in agenda', Dnevni List pg 4 'VAT would be the end of citizens' by R.D., Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'SDP of BiH again demands good be exempt from VAT' by R.C., Dnevni Avaz pg 10 'SDP doesn't quit demand on change of Law on VAT'- also carried.
