For 8 month they failed to establish the cantonal government. Today we are going to sit down together with the International Community and our main discussion will be BiH's way to Europe, but today's outcome in Mostar sends a bad message. One of questions BiH is going to be assessed by is: are we able to establish the functional governments. Today afternoon we showed we could not. That is very harmful for BiH' integration into Europe".

Croatian President Mesic on Gotovina case	Vecernji List (front and pages 10 and 11, by Z. Bajt, D. Knezevic, J. Popovic, M. Saric, "Mesic vouches for Gotovina") – a statement by the Croatian President Stjepan Mesic: "After carefully reading the interview General Gotovina gave to 'Nacional', I learned more about the whole case and I decided to propose to the ICTY to review the indictment against General Gotovina. I am ready to vouch that General Gotovina will respond to any call from the Tribunal if he is given a chance to give his statement to the ICTY investigators in Zagreb in capacity of a suspect." VL also carries a statement by the spokesperson of the Chief ICTY Prosecutor, Florence Hartmann: "Gotovina is an indictee and the Chief Prosecutor is prepared to listen to him in capacity of an indictee. It is not a personal position of the Prosecutor but a procedure described by the law, rules and Statute of the Court." (Dnevni List, page 16, by I. G., "I will propose The Hague review of indictment against Gotovina", Slobodna Dalmacija, page 3, by H., "I will propose The Hague Tribunal review of indictment against Gotovina", Vjesnik, front and page 2, "Mesic ready to vouch for Gotovina if General is summoned as suspect" and Jutarnji List, front and pages 2 and 3, "Mesic to Carla del Ponte: I vouch The Hague for Gotovina")
Confiscation of illegally acquired property	Dnevni List (front and page 9, by Miso Relota, "New BiH Criminal Code allows confiscation of illegally acquired property") – apart from citing articles 110-115 of the BiH Criminal Code that talk about confiscation of illegally acquired property, DL talks about the recently published Executive Decree by the US President Bush, which stipulates blocking of property of persons included in the Decree. The daily goes on to say there are rumours that some sort of an agency that would deal with blocking of illegally acquired property is going to be formed in the future in BiH, the agency that would reportedly be under BiH institutions. In light of this, DL says the OHR denied activities in forming of such an agency, however the daily claims to have learnt that there are persons who have been hired in the name of OHR to do a study about the situation in BiH with regards to the confiscation.

DL's editorial on situation in FBiH Intelligence Service	In light of public debates on whether the published transcripts of the former FOSS director, Munir Alibabic, represent a public or a state secret, Dnevni List's editorial (p 6, "Spy among us", by Bakir Hadziomerovic) reads that, apart from his role during the unrest organised in Grude at the time of the raid into Hercegovacka Banka, Ivan Vuksic, the acting Head of FOSS, placed himself among the most compromised personalities in BiH by illegal eavesdropping. "Instead of concentrating on his own self, Vuksic tries to hide his own criminal activities by silly, staged scandal on Alibabic's role in selling state secrets, which is welcomed by the SDA because the party, in fear for the destiny of its own "patriots", accepts most shameful compromises and public blackening of those who may jeopardize their position acquired by criminal activities", says the author. Yet, the editorial says that Tihic will pay a high price for this hypocrisy when all the allegations on Vuksic are proven before the court. After all Vuksic's criminal moves are revealed, DL says, it will become clearer why Ashdown removed Alispahic. The paper says a very reliable source from the OHR has confirmed that the reason behind Alibabic's removal was the very audiotape which Vuksic planted to the British Lord in order for him to get control over FOSS.
