Cavic confident compromise on police can be found	RHB – Talks on police reform continue in Banja Luka today. RS President Dragan Cavic is confident that a compromise solution on this issue can be found. Cavic added that in case that an adequate solution was not found, the RS authorities might be faced with many political consequences.

EU will not give up on three principles regarding police reform	BH Radio 1 – Spokesperson for the EC delegation in BiH, Frane Maroevic, stated that if BiH wants to start the negotiations on the Stabilization and Association Agreement with EU by the end of year, than if has to reach an agreement on police reform by the end of this month. Maroevic explained that the EC needs some time to prepare the negotiations, and underlined that EU will not give up on the three main principles of the police reform.

Police negotiations continue today in Banja Luka	PINK by Ljubisa Davidovic – Negotiations on police reform will continue in Banja Luka on Monday afternoon, and will be participated by the negotiation teams of the BiH Council of Ministers, and Governments of FBiH, RS and Brcko District, as well as the representatives of the Zenica-Doboj and Hercegovina-Neretva Cantons. This will probably be the last round of negotiations, since the final deadline for accepting all of the requirements for the start of negotiations on Stabilisation and Association Agreement is Thursday, September 15, comments the reporter adding all negotiations on police reform so far have failed to bring results. Stances of the RS negotiation team are still the same, basically not accepting the transfer of police authorities to the state level. They also refuse to accept the territorial organisation of police regions which would cross the entity border lines. Chair of BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic deems that police reform is only acceptable if all police authorities are transferred to the state level, and if police crosses the inter-entity border line. FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic stated that the requirements set by the European Commission must be accepted fully, without alternatives. However, Hadzipasic is optimistic regarding the Monday's negotiations. "I think that the common sense must win", stated Hadzipasic. Reporter commented that the negotiations on Monday must be successful, otherwise BiH can't hope for the start of negotiations on SAA soon. BHT 1, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 13 '5th negotiations on police reform' by Z. Zekic, Vecernji List pg 2 'Continuation of police reform negotiations' by bs– carry announcement of the new round of the talks. Hayat also announced the talks, however also stress that the success of the negotiations is expected.

RTRS feature on police reform	RTRS by Bojan Kecman, Sanja Stankovic – RTRS reporter speculates that the fifth round of negotiations is unlikely to produce some “spectacular” changes in the positions of the negotiating teams. While HR Paddy Ashdown and other IC representatives in BiH insist on obeying the three basic European Union principles, RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic said that, at this point, it is not possible to reach a consensus on the final solution. On the other hand, French Ambassador to BiH Anri Zipper de Fabbiani said that the solutions RS has presented so far are not satisfactory. Therefore, according to Fabbiani, “it is high time to change this, on September 12th. Time is passing by, so don’t miss this opportunity”. The Headquarters for the Protection of the RS Constitutional Position believes that RS would disappear if the police reform process is completed; they announced protests for the September 23rd, when the new RS National Assembly session is scheduled. But those protests could start even sooner, if RS representatives accept police reform on Monday. “If RS negotiating team accept any principle that is not in line with preserving with the RS and BiH Constitution, then we will overthrow such government by democratic means. We don’t need such government, who would betray all the principles of people who gave their lives for the RS”, said Slavko Jovicic, RS Association of Inmates Vice-President.

Hadzipasic says three EC principles must be respected, Covic comments police reform agreement would be compromise	FTV – FTV carries the statements of the FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic and HDZ President Dragan Covic on the police reform. “FBiH Government’s stance is that BiH should and can enter Euro-Atlantic integrations and the only way to enter is to [respect] EC criteria... if the agreement [on police reform] is not in accordance with those three principles we will again remain where we are now,” stated Hadzipasic. “I believe that agreement will be made these days, which will give one agreement, which will provide a Commission on State level, which in next five to six months should make new plan, which would then be carried out in next five to six years – and that is not it. That is too slow, that is not what we have expected, but it is evident that at this moment, everyone is searching for a way out to save the process in some way, and I believe that some kind of agreement... will be made in next few days,” stated Covic.

Bukejlovic: at this moment consensus on RS police is not possible, but after certain period	FTV, Oslobođenje pg 6 'RS is not against European principles' by O. Vukovic, Glas Srpske pg 3 'The Constitution is not an obstacle' by Z. Markovic – RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic stated in an address to the citizens that police reform is possible without constitutional changes. Bukejlovic's address released Saturday on web-site reads: "At this moment, in which there is a high level of agreement on important issues concerning police reform, the process has been brought into the question because the arguments of the RS institutions, before all RS National Assembly's, have not been accepted." Bukejlovic underlines that in this moment it is "not possible to ensure a consensus on final solution for the RS police and it being under entity's jurisdiction. However, we believes that after certain period of implementing police reform in BiH and analysis of entire process under different conditions this issue can be launched again and we can discuss it in different atmosphere."
SDS to support RS Government re police reform	Glas Srpske pg 5 'Talks instead of threats' by Z. Ma. – Reacting to threats of sanctions against the RS and SDS in the event that talks on police reform fail, SDS stated on Sunday that it rejects all accusations, which serve as a basis for such conclusions and added that a solution to police reform cannot be reached by force and pressure, but only through democratic dialogue and respect of arguments. SDS expressed support for the positions of the RS Government and its negotiating team in their effort to reach a compromise based on realistic feasibility and common European practice. SDS also stated that it would support those solutions that are an expression of agreement of RS institutions.

President of RS CoP Kadric: 'RSNA conclusions that Pero Bukjelovic is referring to are illegal'	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'RSNA conclusions that Pero Bukjelovic is referring to are illegal' by E. Sarac carries President of the RS Council of Peoples (CoP) Remzija Kadric as saying that the RSNA conclusions that RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic is referring to during the police reform negotiations are illegal since they were disputed by the RS CoP and their interpretation was demanded from the RS Constitutional Court. Kadric stressed that he claims under full responsibility that there would be no obstructions if Croats and Bosniaks were involved in the negotiating team. He added that this should have been done since according to the Article 1 of the RS Constitution Bosniaks and Croats are constituent peoples and they equally share authority in the RS. Dnevni List cover pg splash 'Karadzic's Constitution prevents reform' and pg 3 'Karadzic's Constitution prevents police reform' by M. Zorlak carries Kadric as saying that it has been deliberately manipulated with the RSNA conclusions on this issue and he wonders as to how HR Paddy Ashdown and Chairman of the BiH CoM Adnan Terzic fall for it. Kadric also said: 'RS President Dragan Cavic and RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic are implementing the RS Constitution written by Radovan Karadzic according to which the RS is a state of the Serb people only.'
Dodik opposes possibility to ban SDS	FTV – After it was stated that SDS will be marked as main culprit for failure of police negotiations and that this could result with banning of this party, SNSD leader Milorad Dodik has issued a statement in which he objects to banning of SDS, stressing that SDS is in front of its debacle and that it is losing support daily. Asked whether SDS will change its stance, Dodik said that this would mean that threats of International Officials have succeeded.

SDS official: reforms caused severe conflicts in SDS	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Fifth round of negotiations to commence, RS Government maintains same stance' by G. Maunaga – apart from carrying announcement on continuation of police reform talks, the article carries a statement of anonymous top official of SDS who claims 'unexpectedly fast reforms of defence and police has caused severe conflicts within SDS' and he claims it is certain RS Government would not accept such reforms although pressures that are being exerted are great. The official also claims there is a possibility Dragan Cavic, together with a group of people from Banja Luka Board of SDS, would establish a new party at the beginning of the next year.
Ollie Rehn replies to HR Ashdown; GS: neither first nor the last reform	Glas Srpske pg 5 'Nether the first nor the last' by N. G. – The article quotes EU Enlargement Commissioner Ollie Rehn as saying: 'Police reform is one of the last crucial issues that need to be resolved before launching SAA negotiations' and it interprets this statement by saying: 'Ollie Rehn has in a direct way told RS public, but also Paddy Ashdown, that the police reform is neither the first nor the last reform in BiH'. Inset 'Bellow the counter' – according to sources, CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic offered RS delegation to adopt two versions of an agreement on police reform – one official agreement and one for domestic public. The first one would mean the adoption of the Martens' draft proposal, while the second one would serve only to convince public that the proposal of RS delegation was adopted. The RS delegation, reportedly, rejected Terzic's proposal.

Oslobodjenje says police reform necessary	Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Citizens pay for crime', mentioned on cover, by V. Jahic – Daily announces the continuation of the police negotiations which will be held in Banja Luka today [Monday]. Article comments that the current police structure does not satisfy the needs of the citizens in BiH, reminding that in 2003 the European Commission has established that the police is inefficient in fighting crime, and in 2004 EC said that police is divided and limited with the ethnic entity border lines. It further reminds that ICTY Chief Prosecutor, Carla Del Ponte, stated in 2004 that the "there are systematic weaknesses in the police and security structures, especially in the RS." Because of all this, says daily, the police reform is a necessity especially having in mind that the current structure, which employs 22560 officers costs BiH about 350 million KM, or 2,9% of the gross national product.
VN op-ed on police reform: last defense of Dayton	Vecernje Novosti op-ed pg 2 'Last defence of Dayton' by Dusan Stojakovic – The author comments on police and defence reforms and says if RS politicians accept police reform its competences would be reduced to the level of competences of a canton and this would mean final abolishment of the Dayton agreement. He also says HR Ashdown has forced RS to accept something nobody dares to ask from Great Britain to accept, where police authorities respect boundaries of England, Wales and Scotland. 'Obviously, European standards are not applicable neither for Ashdown nor Contact-group for RS', the author notes.

DL op-ed: BiH authorities should implement police reform	Dnevni List pg 2 'Deadlines expire!' by A. Beus carries an editorial on the police reform and, among the other things, the author says: 'Truly the time has come that the BiH authorities start thinking about BiH citizens and not about their interests only. If you ask BiH citizens what they want, they will tell you that they want to join the EU. However, it would be difficult to achieve this goal if all principles were not met, and the first one, that is ahead of us at the moment, is the police reform.'

No incidents during liturgy in Konjevic polje, returnee Fata Orlovic banned from leaving home during ceremony	Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'RS police banned Fata Orlovic to leave house because of liturgy' by A. Hadzic – Over hundred police officers and members of RS Ministry of Interior have secured the liturgy served in the Serb Orthodox Church in Konjevic Polje, near Bratunac. The church was illegally built on private property and Bosniak returnee, Fata Orlovic, and has been a reason for dispute and tensions in the area. Day before the liturgy, Orlovic has surrounded with Church with wire, after which RS MoI has decided to ban her to leave the house during the ceremony. "Police arrived on [Sunday morning] and took down the fence and brought the priest in the church, while me and my family were banned to leave the house... I give them ultimatum: they have a month to take the church out of my yard, and after that [deadline] I am not sure what will happen," stated Orlovic. Despite the tensions no incidents occurred. DA reported that only few people attended the ceremony. Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Liturgy in Fata Orlovic's yard', mentioned on cover, by A. Avdic – In a statement to daily, Orlovic said that the Church will be demolished. The Chair of Bratunac Municipal Assembly, Refik Begic, stated that while it is most important that no incidents occurred, "as long as the issue of illegally built church is not solved, the incidents are possible in Konjevic polje." Spokesperson for PublicSecurityCenter in Bijeljina, Dragomir Peric, stated that it was police duty to provide security, "especially after the agreement was reached in the municipality." Begic denies agreement was reached and adds that Nedjeljko Mladjenovic, Head of Bratunac Municipality, has rejected their request to close down the church. BHT1, FTV, RTRS, Glas Srpske pg 4, announced on cover 'Liturgy in police presence' by K. Cirkovic, Nezavisne Novine pg 8 '70 policemen was securing the liturgy' by J. Kristo, Lozancic: Continuation of FBiH Govt session depends on Dzihanovic	Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Continuation of session depends on Dzihanovic', mentioned on cover, by Av. A. – FBiH Justice Minister, Borjana Kristo, told daily that FBiH Government is not in crisis as speculated. However she added that the Government is not complete either, thus any decision it would bring would be unconstitutional and illegal. "I am certain this will be solved in a way stipulated by the Constitution," said Kristo, adding that Government session will be held once the replacements for Ibahima Naradrevic and Tomo Lucic are appointed. FBiH President Niko Lozancic also comments for daily stating that he has done his part of job on time by nominating Zahid Crnkic and Vjekoslav Mandic, underlying that the continuation of FBiH Govt sessions solely depend on Sahbaz Dzihanovic [who rejected these appointments claiming Lozancic did not respect the legislation in proposing these two candidates].
VL: 'Dzihanovic is creating conditions for early elections'	Vecernji List pg 2 'Dzihanovic is creating conditions for early elections' by D. Jazvic says that if the Federation of BiH Vice President, Sahbaz Dzihanovic, does not sign the decisions on appointments of two new Ministers in the FBiH Government, the executive authority in the FBiH will be in a systematic crisis and its further work might be even judged as unconstitutional. VL quotes a high-ranked SBiH official who says that Dzihanovic's credibility and influence in SBiH have been shaken completely and he realizes that he would be politically dead if he does not find a new party or political stronghold. The same official added that it is also possible that the ultimate Dzihanovic's goal is organizing of early elections.

DA op-ed on FBiH Govt crisis: People do not care anymore who is responsible, crisis unnecessary	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Unnecessary crisis of authorities' op-ed by Mirela Kukan – Editorial reads that the newest crisis in the FBiH Government has to be solved in the next few days as people are “sick of halts in work of authorities which only block a number of processes important for future of this country.” Author underlines that after so many rifts in the government, people do not care anymore who is responsible and who caused it and concludes that this particular crisis is entirely unnecessary and it is just a re-run of the

VL: Criminalization of Herzegovina has been on scene during last 10 years	Vecernji List cover pg splash and pgs 4 and 5 'Criminalization of Herzegovina' by M. Vasilj, V. Leto carries that during the last 10 years criminalization of Herzegovinian Croats has been on scene (Hercegovacka Banka case, Lijanovici case, attacks on the Catholic Church officials etc.). VL says that it is clear that the well-devised policy stands behind all these cases and the goal of such policy is to intimidate Croats and hide illegalities within 'ones' own lines especially in Sarajevo'. VL also says that preparations for constitutional changes have started and weakened Croats who would be nodding and agreeing with all ideas of international, Bosniak and Serb representatives respectively are desirable partners.
Drvar: Blockade of roads in eve of 'Maestral' war military operation	Oslobodjenje pg 4, Dnevni List pg 3 'Blockade of road and company Finvest announced' by NINA – On September 13, at the 10 anniversary of the joint Croatian Army and HVO military operation 'Maestral', Serb returnees to the Drvar Municipality announced a blockade of the roads and company 'Finvest' in order to make familiar the public with the PDP initiative to proclaim 'Maestral' a criminal military operation. Head of the DrvarMunicipality Anka Papak-Dodik confirmed this information to DL.
