Ashdown meets Cavic in Banja Luka	BH Radio 1 by Dragan Stegic – HR Paddy Ashdown is visiting Banja Luka, where he discussed cooperation with ICTY and police reform with RS President Dragan Cavic. In the course of the day, Ashdown is expected to discuss the issue with representatives of political parties as well. Given that cooperation with The Hague Tribunal will probably not represent a problem any more, the police reform is the last obstacle to BiH's moving closer to EU, according to Ashdown. HR said that the talks on the issue would therefore be held from 24-28 April and the final solution had to be found by May 19. He emphasized that the political compromise on police reform was possible. Cavic for his part said that the final solution needed to satisfy both European standards and interests of BiH entities and the state. Cavic emphasized that the RS would not represent obstacle on BiH's road to Europe but he expressed reservations regarding the proposed police regions/maps. RTRS and RHB also reported.
Ivanic: Positive assessment on SiCG Feasibility Study is good for entire region	RTRS – Mladen Ivanic, BiH Foreign Minister, is of the view that a positive report on SiCG Feasibility Study represents a good development for the entire region. He said that this is encouraging, noting that regional activities are accelerating their path towards EU.

FBiH HoR in session	RHB, BH Radio 1 – The FBiH House of Representatives has continued its session that started yesterday. Among other issues, the chamber should give its consent to the European Bank's loan for regional programme of roads; discuss changes to the law on criminal proceedings and PRC report.
Beara pleads not guilty	RTRS, RHB, BH Radio 1 – Former senior RS Army officer Ljubisa Beara rejected today before ICTY amended indictment accusing him of Srebrenica genocide as well. Bosnian Serb Milorad Trbic postponed entering a plea before ICTY today. Tribic was indicted for war crimes committed in Srebrenica.

BiH HoR doesn't discuss Covic: Dzaferovic urges a proposal, HDZ wants discussion on HR decision

BHT 1 – At the session of the BiH House of Representatives, the delegates did not discuss the potential candidates for replacement for agan Covic at the position of the Croat member of BiH Presidency. HDZ has not yet nominated their candidates for the BiH Presidency wanting BiH Parliament to discuss decision by the HR Paddy Ashdown to remove Covic.

"It is not the job of the Parliament to discuss HR's decisions – our job is to elect new Croat member of BiH Presidency, and we should do it as quickly as we can", said

Sefik Dzaferovic, the Speaker of the BiH HoR. "I believe that we should elect new member of BiH Presidency as soon as possible, but it's not my decision – I have to obey the decisions of the Party", said HDZ's representative Vinko Zoric.

PINK– On the possibility of holding the BiH Parliament plenary session to discuss the HR's decision, the HDZ leader Barisa Colak comments: "I hope that such a session is going to be held as soon as possible, and I think that it is of extreme importance for a session to be held, due to the fact that we are faced with crisis in authority."

Dnevni List, front pg splash and pg 3 'There is not crisis in authority', by Danka Polovina-Mandic – Colak says: "I really think the Parliament has something to say... Because of dignity of institutions of this country, there is no reason for the Parliament not to declare itself and take an appropriate position that should bind everyone".

Hayat – Hayat comments that the entire situation resulted in blocking the work of BiH Presidency and for this reason Presidency is unable to nominate BiH Ambassador to Croatia. Dzaferovic said that the issue had to be solved as soon as possible since the work of BiH Presidency was brought into question. HDZ asks for regular sessions of both BiH Houses to discuss on the HR's decision. "We do not want to change decisions or position of the HR, but this issue can be discussed", said Zoric.

FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 8 'No discussion on appointment of new Presidency member' by V. Zivak, Nezavisne Novine pg 4, announced on cover 'Croat member to BiH Presidency not elected' by M.Cubro, EuroBlic RSpG 3 'Negotiations with EU as of autumn' by D.S., Vecernji List pg 3 'Discussion on removal first and then Covic's successor' by E. Medunjanin, Slobodna Dalmacija last pg 'HDZ demands discussion on legality of Covic's removal' by H also covered the BiH HoP's session. – also report.

DL edit. on HDZ' behaviour regarding Covic's removal	Dnevni List pg 2 'Putting things in order' by I. Glibusic carries an editorial, which says that although HDZ demanded the discussion on the removal of former Croat member of the BiH Presidency Dragan Covic at the joint session of both Houses of the BiH Parliament, the discussion did not take place. The author goes on to say that even if the discussion did take place it would not be binding for the HR and the author concludes that this means that HDZ should decide on Covic's successor as soon as possible in order to avoid speculations about creating of certain factions and the division of HDZ on moles and loyalists.
BiH HoR endorses CoM's report on Feasibility Study progress	RHB, Hayat, Oslobođenje pg 5, mentioned on cover, 'Agreement with EU until the end of mandate of these authorities', Dnevni Avaz pg 10 'BiH is getting closer to Stabilisation and Association with EU' by H. Orahovac, Nezavisne Novine pg 4, announced on cover 'Croat member to BiH Presidency not elected' by M. Cubro, EuroBlic RSpG 3 'Negotiations with EU as of autumn' by D.S. Dnevni List pg 5 'Law on RTV system and police restructuring disputable' by D. Polovina-Mandic – At the session held on Tuesday in Sarajevo, the BiH House of Representatives adopted a report prepared by the Council of Ministers on the implementation of conditions contained in the Feasibility Study, presented to the delegates by the CoM Chair Adnan Terzic. The HoR delegates gave its full support to process of meeting the remaining conditions and endorsed the conclusion calling on all levels of government in BiH to actively cooperate in this course. PINK – Terzic briefed the deputies about a letter received from EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn in which he very precisely identified remaining obligations, including adoption of a law on a single ombudsman in BiH, law on public broadcasting system and harmonization of a police reform action plan. Terzic said that BiH has a chance to be given consent by the end of May for the start of negotiations on Stabilisation and Association Agreement and in the late autumn for opening those negotiations. According to him, the CoM is in the last phase of fulfilling conditions defined in the Feasibility Study, after which BiH would be in a position to receive a recommendation to open talks.

Election Commission annuls election results in two of Sarajevo municipal councils	BHT1 by Lejla Redzovic – The BiH Election Commission annulled the elections of the councillors in the council of Stari Grad Sarajevo and Novi Grad Sarajevo for the Sarajevo City Council. The elections for these two municipal councils, were in opinion of Commission the irregularities were conducted, will be re-run on April 19. “The secrecy of the elections was not maintained in those two municipalities”, explained Branko Petric, BiH Election Commission member. SDA, which has the majority in City Council, said it is satisfied with this decision believing that the results of the new elections will be the same, so there won’t be any changes in the structure of the City Council. “I believe that the secret voting will bring the same result, and that we will elect the same people”, said Safet Keso, SDA representative in Stari Grad Municipal Council. Reporter comments that the is unclear if the decisions of the newly formed City Council – such as the election on the new Mayor of Sarajevo – will be annulled as well. FTV, RTRS, Hayat, Oslobodjenje pg 8 ‘Elections for Stari Grad and Novi Grad municipal councils annulled’, mentioned on cover, by A. Terzic, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 ‘Ten news councillors stay in the Sarajevo City Council’ by L Sinanovic, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 ‘Condition for reduction of salaries to officials’ by M.C., Nezavisne Novine pg 3 ‘Election of delegates at two Sarajevo municipalities annulled’ by N.K. – reported on the BiH EC’s decision.
BiH CoM endorses a constitutional change to allow salaries’ reduction	BHT 1, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Terzic’s initiative on salaries of the public officials adopted’ by Srna, Oslobodjenje pg 5 ‘Ministers agree on salaries’ reduction’ by M.K.S. – The BiH Council of Ministers on Tuesday accepted and forwarded to parliamentary procedure the Proposal amendments of the BiH Constitution proposed by the Chair CoM, Adnan Terzic. This amendment suggests erasing item 2, Article 9 of the BiH Constitution, which states that compensations for officials in BiH institutions cannot be reduced during the mandates of those officials This decision was made after the International Monetary Fund requested reduction of the public expenses in BiH. After Tuesday’s CoM decision, the salaries of BiH officials could be reduced up to ten percent, said Dragan Doko, BiH Minster of Foreign Trade and Economic Relations. On issue of the Free Trade Agreement with SCG, CoM reinstated the zero rate of customs taxes for flower and bear imported from SCG.

Int. Comm. for Balkans urges constitutional changes	BHT 1 Elvir Bucalo – Constitutional changes in BiH must be carried out immediately in order to strengthen the State, concluded participants at the meeting of the International Commission for Balkans held in Brussels. The Commission is a non-governmental organization whose members are 9 European and world officials, mainly former presidents, prime ministers and ministers of foreign affairs. FTV– The report explains that the situation in the region is still unstable.
DL: USA takes over initiative in const. changes/Butler promised support to Lagumdzija at next elections?	Dnevni List pg 9 ‘Support to Zlatko Lagumdzija and opposition’ by Z. Jukic carries that according to an official from a western embassy in BiH, in the coming months the USA is going to take over the initiative in the political life of BiH in order to change the authority and implement constitutional changes which are more than necessary. The DL source added that the USA has decided to make this move in order to finish the tasks that, objectively, the High Representative will not be able to do. DL also says that after the BiH ruling parties did not discuss the constitutional changes at all, the opinion prevails among western politicians that BiH needs changes and new authority that will be brave enough to implement constitutional changes. According to the article, the meeting between SDP President Zlatko Lagumdzija and new PDHR Larry Butler should be seen in that context. DL says that according to their sources during the aforementioned meeting Butler promised support to Lagumdzija and his partners from SNSD, NHI and HSS to take over authority at the elections in 2006 and as a condition for the support Butler demanded the constitutional changes.

On HSS, NHI, HNZ, HDZ and HSP Djapic-Juriscic on constitutional changes	Dnevni List pg 6 'Croats in BiH demand joint proposal' by I. Rozic carries that representatives of HSS, NHI, HNZ, HDZ and HSP Djapic-Juriscic met on Tuesday in order to harmonize basic principles of the platform on the eve of coming constitutional changes. HSS President Marko Tadic stated that the aforementioned document should secure the joint stand of the Croat parties when the constitutional changes are in question. He added that HSS wants a new Constitution in BiH, which would correct injustice made to Croats and Bosniaks especially. NHI President Kresimir Zubak shares Tadic's opinion, while HNZ President Milenko Brkic believes that the meetings of this sort should be taking place so that Croat representatives can reach consensus on the most important national issues. HDZ spokesperson Pero Pavlovic stressed that the meeting just represents a talk on possible different re-organization of BiH and he added: 'This is a too serious subject to sign some binding document just like that.' Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'BiH is a homeland of Croat people' by A.S. also report.
EuroBlic: Can BiH effect on selection of Ashdown's successor/HR's powers	EuroBlic RSpG 1 'It is better to become a partner, instead of remaining obeyer' by Nedeljka Breberina/Rajna Radosavljevic – Daily writes about initiative of SDP of BiH which proposed Resolution on approach BiH institutions have towards the appointment of Paddy Ashdown's successor. The Resolution calls on local institutions to define partnership relationship with the OHR by the end of this year. Jozo Krizanovic, SDP Presidency member, says: "The most responsible institutions must give their view on possible definition of HR's powers." Momcilo Novakovic, SDS delegate at the BiH Parliament, says: "The HR's mandate does not depend on us. However, it would be desirable to at least hear our view on that, since many powers should be abolished." Ivo Miro Jovic, HDZ delegate, claims the IC is not eager to see local institutions take over duties. Jelina Djurkovic, PDP delegate, reminds that PDP warned of vast powers of HR two years ago. Slavo Kukic, Professor of Sociology at the Mostar University, claims that nobody will ask local officials for opinion regarding the appointment of the new HR. he is also of the view that HR powers should be reduced.

Tihic on Ashdown's successor: Politicians from former Yugoslavia areas could be partial	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Politicians from former Yugoslavia areas could be partial' M.Dr. – Bosniak member of the BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic told the daily that the basic problem of BiH was its constitutional system, which cannot function without the High Representative regardless of whether the office was held by Paddy Ashdown or former Slovenian President Milan Kucan. Tihic was asked to comment on initiatives by certain political/intellectual circles in BiH proposing that the next High Representative be from Macedonia or Slovenia. "The current High Representative knows very well situation in BiH, maybe better than some politicians from Bosnian surrounding and particularly from the areas of former Yugoslavia, who in a way might be partial (if appointed to the post of High Representative)," said Tihic. Kucan said that he was pleased with the initiative by eight former Sarajevo Mayors for him to be the next High Representative but that he was surprised since no one had discussed the issue with him so far.
BiH Foreign Ministry to appoint Charge d'Affaires of BiH Embassy in Croatia soon	Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Appointment of charge d'Affaires of BiH Embassy in Croatia soon' by SRNA, Glas Srpske pg 3 'Charge d'Affaires on a temporary basis'– Lepa Babic, Spokesperson of the BiH Foreign Ministry, on Wednesday stated that the BiH Ministry of Foreign Affairs will soon appoint Charge d'Affaires of the BiH Embassy in Zagreb, who will be assuming this position on a temporary basis until the new ambassador is appointed.

Sarac – Message of Croatian Government to BiH authorities that Branko Kesic was definitely not acceptable as new BiH Ambassador to Croatia will not worsen relations between the two countries, according to BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic, acting BiH Foreign Ministry's Secretary Adnan Hadzikapetanovic and Bosniak member of the Presidency's Foreign Policy Advisor Edin Dilberovic.

NN int. with SDHR Wnendt: BiH deserves to get to EU	Nezavisne Novine pg 8 'BiH deserves to get in EU' by V.Popovic – In a page-long farewell interview to NN, Werner Wnendt, SDHR, who is to assume position of Head of OSCE Mission in Kosovo, says that after two years of mandate, he leaves BiH with a great optimism, assessing that many things "have improved in this state". On this he adds that progress has been achieved in the fields of defence, intelligence, judicial reforms, and step forward has been made in facing with the past (referring to Srebrenica Commission Report). He stresses the issue of cooperation with the ICTY is very important, and also that police reform is a pre-requisite for commencement of SAA talks, on which it is necessary to reach a consensus before May. He notes that he leaves "BiH with conviction that BiH is an integral part of Europe...I am of the view that BiH deserves to become a partner in European integrations, and I hope this will be achieved in the near future." He says it is evident there is a commitment to overcome obstacles and bring Rako Mladic and Radovan Karadzic before the court. He stresses that officials assuming high positions should tender resignations once they are charged. On constitutional changes, he says that the goal of those is not to abolish the RS, but instead creation of efficient, economically sustainable system that could function.

The article claims that BiH is one of rare countries that do not appropriately protect witnesses in trials, adding that the SIPA and Department for support of victims and witnesses with the BiH Court should soon improve the situation. Finally, the article warns of abuse of protected witnesses, citing cases ‘Leutar’ and more recently ‘Covic’.

War crimes

Schook: 250 million KM being spent annually to support hiding of Karadzic, other ICTY indictees	Dnevni Avaz cover page 'Criminal networks are annually stealing 250 million KM', pg 5 '250 million KM being spent annually in hiding Karadzic' Sead Numanovic – Commander of the NATO Headquarters in BiH Steven Schook reiterated in an interview with the daily that the issue of BiH cooperation with the Hague Tribunal had to be solved focusing on apprehension of Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic. He emphasizes that NATO has arrested and transferred to The Hague 28 war crime indictees so far. However, at the same time, RS and BiH authorities have been hesitating to do the same too long, according to Schook. "I assess that Radovan Karadzic and other Hagur fugitives' support networks are annually stealing from this country some 250 million KM. This is tremendous sum of money that should be used for the good of people in RS and BiH," said Schook. Speaking on the ongoing defence reform, Schook said that the reform laws would be adopted by the end of this year. He emphasized that all involved in talks on the reform agreed that the entities' defence ministries had to be abolished.
