NN: Lozancic reduced sentence to Prce for a year	Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash, pg 3 'Lozancic reduced sentence to Prce for a year' by R.Cengic – NN learnt from several sources that Niko Lozancic, F BiH President, has altered the BiH Court verdict, which sentenced Miroslav Prce, former F BiH Defence Minister, to five years imprisonment, and reduced it for one year. A source close to F BiH Justice Ministry claims that Malcolm Simmons, Council Chair in the case of "Hercegovacka Banka", on Thursday addressed OHR regarding this issue. Source claims that Simmons was promised OHR would give its stance after the entire case is analysed. Daily further brings comments of its sources and judicial representatives, claiming that BiH inmates cannot be pardoned on the basis of entity laws. Dnevni List cover pg splash 'Miroslav Prce pardoned', pg 2 'Miroslav Prce pardoned for a year' by N.Dedic – Daily adds referring to its source close to BiH Court that Prce has launched procedure for his probation release, in line with the Law on criminal proceedings.

New police reform talks to be held on August 17

TV PINK, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni List pg 5 'A meeting on police restructuring scheduled' by NINA, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Resumption at Mrakovica' by Z.Ma., Nezavisne Novine pg 8 'Resumption of police reform talks on Wednesday' by V.P., Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Resumption of talks on 17 August at Mrakovica', announced on cover 'Resumption of talks at Mrakovica' by E.Sarac— New meeting on police reform has been scheduled for August 17, on Mrakovica. RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic expressed expectation the talks will be held in a tolerant environment. The aim of the meeting is to end police reform talks by the date set by EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn. Bukejlovic invited the Chair of BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic and FBiH Prime Minister Ahmet Hadzipasic to attend the meeting.

NN interview with Osmanovic: Ten police regions is a minimum	Nezavisne Novine pg 8 'Minimum is ten police regions' by V.Popovic – In an interview to daily, Adil Osmanovic, RS Vice President, reiterates his accusations against RS President, Dragan Cavic, saying that through SDS, Cavic is running all institutions not only in RS, but also at the level of BiH. On police reform, he says that ten police regions are minimum, adding it is obvious it is attempted to make a compromise at the detriment of professionalism in order to satisfy aspirations of the RS politicians. On HR Paddy Ashdown, Osmanovic expresses fear that HR, at the end of his mandate, might accept some compromises in order to ensure police and defence reforms are completed during his mandate.
VL: Garlic accuses HR Ashdown of interference	Vecernji List pgs 2-3 'Garlic accuses' by Zoran Kresic – Explaining reasons for his departure from the BiH Court, Paul Richard Garlic accused Paddy Ashdown, HR to BiH, and BiH Court Registry of having "undermined" his judicial independence by having transferred him from the war crimes department to organised crime department. He expressed hope that the remaining fellow-judges would help building independent judiciary, but without "interference of (foreign) politicians". In a statement to the British attorneys' paper "The Lawyer", Garlic actually confirmed suspicions that court proceedings are run with prior assent of the international management, including OHR.

Covic on appointment of SBS Director	Vecernji List pg 2 'Covic: SBS Director should be a Croat, since he is the most skilled' by Zoran Kresic – Dragan Covic, HDZ President, assessed that professional criteria would have to be respected during the selection process of SBS Director, stressing that the HDZ would insist of seeing a Croat representative, Robert Peric, appointed to this position, since he is the most skilled candidate.
HDZ: Regionalisation is solution for changes	Vecernji List pg 3 'Solution for changes is regionalisation' by Marijan Ivesa – Daily carries a sort of report from presumably a meeting of the HDZ of BiH, without providing sources for this information. Daily writes that the HDZ of BiH is of the view that there is a point in organising 2006 general elections in BiH only if the concept of constitutional changes is prepared in order to ensure the functioning of the state. The HDZ of BiH supports decentralised BiH composed of three levels of authority. It is not defined who federal units would be called.

SDHR in visit to District Brcko	TV PINK, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'VAT will reduce illicit work' by N.T., Glas Srpske pg 2 'Illicit work to end' by M.Dj. – Senior Deputy High Representative Larry Butler said on Friday in District Brcko, where he met with BiH businessmen, that businessmen in BiH expected BiH authorities to involve more in creation of better business environment. Butler said that BiH was the only European state with no VAT. After the meeting, Butler said that businessmen fear that VAT would have negative impact on small companies.
NN op-ed critical of Tihic	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Tihic's prosecutor' by Mirza Cubro – The author is critical of Sulejman Tihic, saying that he has an amazing urge to get involved in all sorts of appoint processes, stressing what matters to Tihic is that somebody is loyal to SDA, regardless of whether that person can do a job properly.
HKDU stressed that it is amazed with the fact that all sector services in BIH are in the hands of Bosniak people	Nezavisne Novine pg8 'All secrets in the hands of Bosniaks' by N.N., Oslobodjenje pg6 'All secret services in BiH in the hands of Bosniaks', RHB – HKDU stressed that it is amazed with the fact that all secret services in BIH are in the hands of Bosniak people. HKDU is therefore sending a fierce protest to OHR due to this fact. HKDU also feels that due to this fact Croat national security in BIH has been endangered. HKDU claims that OHR has stood by Bosniak people only and that has drawn the line in the political culmination of events.

War Crimes

provided all available information
to the Srebrenica
Task Force

FTV – RS Ministry of Interior (MoI) provided to the Task Force for Srebrenica all information it had available, including information on members of the 6th Unit of the Zvornik Public Security Centre, who are suspected of involvement in the crimes in Srebrenica in July 1995, RS MoI told Fena news agency. This also includes information on members of 12 police stations from the Zvornik Public Security Centre. At the same time, investigative Task Force sub-group needs to establish whether the RS Ministry of Defence, i.e. the General Staff and the RS Army, have provided all the necessary documents on their members that took part in the crimes in Srebrenica.

Directors of Srpske Poste departments stated that the attacks on their General Director are attacks on all employees of this company

RTRS, TV PINK – Directors of Srpske Poste departments stated that the attacks on their General Director Milutin Pejic are attacks on all employees of this company. Milenko Vuceta Deputy General Director stated that these attacks and claims that SP is working with a loss are trying to create a confused situation in the company. Representative of state capital in SP RS Minister of Labour and Veterans Miodrag Deretic claims that SP has a loss of 15 million KM. He adds that RS Government has decided to improve the situation in SP. Vuceta claims that in the internal distribution in RS Government, SP has been “assigned” to SRS and therefore SRS is trying to install their members in SP. Pejic has the same claims and adds that Deretic is a representative of political structures. Deretic says that connecting him to SRS is incorrect since he never publicly declared his membership although he is a proud member of it. Reporter concluded that both parties will speak to RS PM Pero Bukejlovic who is on holiday until Monday. Nezavisne Novine pg 6 ‘Deretic illegally wants to replace management’ by D.R., Glas Srpske pg 3 ‘Lawlessness will not be approved’ by M.Dzepina

RS Minister of Labour and veterans threats with resignation if RS Prime Minister do not remove Director of "Srpska poste"

BH TV 1 – RS Government led by Prime Minister Pero Bukeylovic is third one which tried and failed to remove "Srpske Poste" Director Milutin Pejic, reports BHT. RS Minister of Labour and Veterans and Invalid Protection, Miodrag Deretic threatens that he will resign on Monday. "Srpske poste" Supervisory Board set up meeting for Monday to try again to take over duty from previous whose mandate expired and to hear company's Director report on business moves which didn't resulted as planned. "If this State is in no condition to solve issue of "Srpske poste", than this is an example of weakness of this State. I can't see my place in such constellation," Deretic said. "We present 2200 employees and we will prevent all illegal activities in Srpske poste", said Deputy Director of "Srpske Poste" Milenko Vuceta. State capital representatives claim that they have arguments for removal of Milutin Pejic. Glas Srpske pg 3 'A lie next to lie' by M.Dz. – Deretic denies claims of SP officials, saying that: "I am not afraid of any one, and I do not have need to be armed. I left there as a legal representative of RS Government and state capital representative, to do my part of work." In last year, "Srpske Poste" has made 6.4 millions KM profit. Representatives of State capital claim that this profit is mainly made by Telecom and that this company would crash in two years with this kind of doing business.

Interview with Kathryne Bomberger	NTV Hayat – brings interview with Kathryne Bomberger, the Chief of the International Commission on Missing Persons (ICMP) mission. In terms of claims of member of FBiH Commission on Missing Persons Jasmin Odobasic on ICMP being responsible for mistakes which occur during identification process, or to be precise, while completing the body remains, Bomberger says that the allegations are complete nonsense. Bomberger says that DNA technology has been discovered recently and that it has pointed out some mistakes which happened earlier, in period when classic identification methods were used. Bombergers says that it would be the best for a revision board to be established which would deal with such cases. Bomberger further adds that there have been 20 cases of wrong identification, but that the way in which Odobasic said that was wrong and damaging and that such statements make great impact to families of the missing ones, and that Prosecution should deal with it. on August 30, Institute on Missing Persons at state level should officially start its work, and Bomberger calls it a historic event for BiH. The Institute will be in charge of searching for all the missing ones, regardless of their nationality. The Institute will publish a list of missing persons in order to see the exact number of missing ones. At the end, Bomberger said that the ICMP would continue supporting BiH in terms of identification process.
