Reactions to OHR's urge to
BiH
Parliamentarians
to adopt the legislation on war crimes
trials in BiH

RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Voting on war crimes processing upon urgent procedure' by N. Krsman – Nikola Spiric Deputy Chair of BiH House of Representatives on Sunday confirmed that that Collegium of BiH Parliament's HoR would decide at its next session that series of Laws, which are creating the possibilities for processing war crimes cases in BiH, should be discussed upon emergency procedure.

Momcilo Novakovic, Head of SDS Caucus at HoR, is of the view that demand of HR Paddy Ashdown (that this Law should be adopted by the end of September) mainly refers to Collegium of the House of Representatives, noting his party would remain faithful to its stance the Law has some deficiencies.

Glas Srpske pg 3 'Bill delivered to Srpska again' by N. Zelenovic – According to GS, Novakovic assessed that HR continues with his practise of accusing exclusively RS for the alleged non-cooperation with the ICTY. Tihomir Gligoric, Delegate of the RS Socialists Party at BiH Parliament, stated he does not actually understand the meaning of HR's warning, regarding the adoption of the laws. He noted: "There is enough time to adopt amendments by the end of this month. If Mr. Ashdown is of the view we did not respect procedure, applicable at all democratic states, then he has authority to impose them."

EuroBlic RSpg4 'Election games are not more important than reforms' by J.D. – The daily carries last week's warning to RS authorities by HR, Paddy Ashdown, on the need to improve the cooperation with ICTY.

Oslobodjenje on SDS' objection to adoption to legislation
related to war crimes trials in
BiH

Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 7 'SDS an obstacle to establishment of the BiH's Hague' by A.O. – SDS representative in BiH Parliament, Milos Jovanovic, stated for Oslobodjenje that his party opposes the adoption of the legislation related to the war crimes trial in BiH because "new legislation excludes counting in the time [war crimes suspects] detainees in the Hague whose cases would be transferred to BiH judiciary spent in the detention or during the Tribunal's procedure." Daily writes that for SDS delegates had asked for the resignation of BiH Justice Minister Slobodan Kovac for proposing the set of the Laws in urgent procedure, blaming him of 'working against Serb interests.' Article brings Nikola Spiric's statement that any SDS postponing are "pure stupidity" and that SNSD supports the adoption of the legislation in urgent procedure. As a Deputy Speaker of BiH HoR, Spiric said that his counterpart Sefik Dzaferovic, and Speaker Martin Raguz will agree to offering the legislation for new vote. Oslobodjenje brings that while objection of SDS against the concept of adopting the laws in urgent procedure has a ground, they believe that in this case the legislation should be endorsed. Jovanovic said that HDZ delegates also objected tot this procedure.

DL on refusal to adopt set of Laws pertaining to judiciary in BiH Parliament

Dnevni list, pg 7, 'SDS obstructs establishment of judicial system', by Danka Polovina-Mandic – Commenting on the fact that both Houses of BiH Parliament refused to consider a set of laws pertaining to judiciary under urgent procedure, Beriz Belkic (Party for BiH's deputy in the House of Representatives) says this represents a continuous resistance to establishment of judicial system on BiH level. Momcilo Novakovic, the President of SDS caucus in the BiH House of Representatives, says that this is the first time deadlines are being mentioned and wonders if it is feasible to do the transfer of all lawsuits onto BiH in some 10-15 days. He says he cares more about getting a quality text of laws. Nikola Spiric (SNSD), the Vice-Speaker of the House of Representatives, comments that SDS keeps on leading the policy of obstructionism.

Simic further noted that the ICTY has grounded the verdict on Celebici case on the fact that "nobody can be held responsible for anybody's detention, if that person is not in position to stop such detention".

I am deeply certain that the single rate of VAT is the best for BiH."* Causevic comments to the reject of single rate VAT by the BiH Parliamentarians: "I don't think that some delegates intentionally and with some special aim rejected our proposal. Simply, it is elections time and probably everybody fight for votes. Finally, both position and opposition voted for the same thing. Perhaps it is mistake of ITA of not educating delegates enough by explaining them what it means one and what more rates. Thus, we bear – perhaps the biggest – part of responsibility," Causevic said.

DL on import of oil by railway

Dnevni list, cover page & p 5, 'Hauliers left without jobs?!', by Arijana Beus – as the FBiH Government is preparing the proposal of Law on amendments to the Law on Terminals in FBiH, which is one of the conditions for import of oil by railway, oil distributors oppose passing of a decision on oil import by wagoncisterns exclusively as they are of the view that this way would slow down the purchase and will cause increase of prices. Muhidin Alic, the President of FBiH Section of oil distributors, says that the FBiH and RS railways must impose themselves on the trade market, though conditions for this have not been created yet. He finds terminals to be indispensable as a way to make stocks and prevent increase of oil prices. Marinko Boskovic, the President of Association of oil distributors of the Herzegovina-Neretva Canton, is of the view that railways in BiH are not properly equipped for import of oil and he does not see much advantage if oil is imported by railway except that one firm or the state would become monopolists. He adds that FBiH Government should first consider the issue of some 500 hauliers in Herzegovina who live on transportation and will now practically lose their jobs.

Batic denies Cavic's claims against SNSD

Nezavisne Novine cover and pg 2 'Batic: Cavic is lying' by N.N. – The former Serbian minister of justice, Vladan Batic, on Sunday stated that he had never shown a list to RS President and SDS Acting President, Dragan Cavic, with the names of persons whom SNSD President Milorad Dodik had allegedly accused of having participated in the murder of former Serbian Prime Minister, Zoran Djindjic. Cavic told this on Saturday, noting that he had seen a list with the names of SDS members and all members of his security, which Dodik had allegedly handed to Batic. Batic underlined: "Dragan Cavic is lying. I have never shown him a list of people suspected of this, because I have never received any list from anybody, including Dodik." Cavic further accused Dodik for having personally "denounced and slandered the members and officials of SDS to foreign intelligence agencies and embassies... SNSD President accuses me – and used to accuse Dragan Kalinic before me – of having made lists for removals of candidates in order to improve the rating of the party before elections. Therefore, I call on him to ask Mr. [Paddy] Ashdown to remove 50 members of his party, in order to improve election rating of his party." Glas Srpske pg 2 'It is time for Dodik to leave' by N.D., EuroBlic RSp4 'Cavic: Dodik is slandering and informing on SDS' by N.B. – report on Cavic's statement.

for lynch of opposition' by Fena, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Cavic wants to eliminate Dodik' by D.R.; Glas Srpske pg 2 'A forgetful President' by N.D. –

SNSD released a press statement stressing RS has lost the institution of the unbiased president following the most recent accusations voiced by RS President against SNSD. The release reads: "A public statement of [Dragan] Cavic when he called on removal of SNSD President from the political scene is just a resumption of years-long policy of SDS that SNSD and Dodik should be disabled in political and physical sense. Now the real motive of Cavic's statement is completely clear – it is an attempt to try to save whatever can be saved in Banja Luka, since it is clear that candidate of SDS and seven other political parties, Ljubisa Kragulj, is losing the race and would win less votes.""

VL: Forum of Vecernji List pg 10 'Forum of all BiH Croats is being created because of inequality', mentioned on cover, 'Forum of all Croats is being created', by M. Relota, S. Tomasevic – A non-party body which will gather Croat officials, intellectuals, representatives of parties with a Croat prefix and representatives of the Catholic Church in BiH will be formed in BiH soon. VL says that Cardinal Vinko Puljic spoke up about this problem in a letter sent to the Pope (see Weekend Media Brief for details). VL also says that HDZ President Barisa Colak shares Puljic's opinion and says: "The position of Croats in BiH will be much better in future since the processes which lead this country towards Euro-Atlantic integration are conditioned by equal constitutional and legal position of all 3 constituent peoples in BiH."

RTRS – At the session today, RS National Assembly should discuss the Law on Protection of National Minorities in RS, but RS Association of National Minorities has invited deputies to reject the Law saying they were not consulted on it. The Association stresses that the Law should protect minorities, but their representatives weren't consulted by the Government or invited to attend the session. Ombudsman
authorities
violate
human rights
the most'

Dnevni List pg 3 'FBiH authorities violate human rights the most', mentioned on cover, by D. Polovina-Mandic – In a short interview given to DL, BiH ombudsman Branka Raguz stated that the Federation of BiH authorities mostly do not respect recommendations of FBiH ombudsmen especially in the cases when these decisions affect politics. She added that the FBiH Government has never respected ombudsmen's recommendations, which refer on ministerial, Government's and other appointments in public companies. Raguz said that they informed the FBiH Parliament about all violations, however, the Parliament has not placed this issue on the agenda for a year and a half. According to Raguz, it is absolutely clear that positions in Steering and Supervisory Boards in the public companies are very profitable, everyone wants to get this position and this is exclusively a political issue. Raguz added that for this reason ombudsmen demanded the OHR's help since something has to be changed in the competent law.

VL on elections in Mostar

Vecernji List pg 6 'There are no direct election because Croats are larger in number' by M. Vasilj – VL says that Mostar is the only city in which the future Mayor or Head of the Municipality will not be elected directly and many non-government organizations, parties and citizens are dissatisfied with this fact and believe that this is about discrimination. VL reminds that member of the BiH Election Commission Lidija Korac has stated for a local Mostar TV recently that it is not good that there is one election system for the City of Mostar and the other for the rest of the Federation of BiH. VL also says that legal experts believe that this is about interfering of politics. According to the article, by imposing a new Mostar Statute High Representative Paddy Ashdown prevented direct election of the Mayor. VL says that it has been suspected that the HR did this because of the fact that the Croat electorate is slightly bigger in number than the Bosniak one in Mostar.

EuroBlic cover and RSpG 1 'I have never been a British spy' by Rajna Radosavljevic – Julian Braithwaite, Head of Communications at OHR, told EuroBlic that media speculation, which claim he worked as a British spy for years, actually confirm the reputation of this region as the centre of conspiracy theory. He denies those media speculations. In a brief interview to EuroBlic a month before his departure from BiH, he says that HR's decisions were not too radical, but were painful for BiH. He notes those decisions were necessary, since BiH must go through a transition in order to become a partner of EU and NATO.
