ICTY Chair,
Chief Prosecutor
present report to UN Security Council

Pink, BHT, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pg 5, mentioned on cover 'Apprehension of war criminals – a condition for SCG and BiH', Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash 'Del Ponte: Mladic and Karadzic will not be in The Hague by 11 July' and pg 3 'All Hague indictees must be extradited' by A.Sekulic, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Job is not completed', Vecernje Novosti pg 14, announced on cover 'Ratko Mladic to close The Hague' by E.R. – The report, which ICTY Chair Teodor Meron and Chief ICTY Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte presented to UN Security Council on Monday states that the ICTY is not going to close its doors until three most wanted ICTY indictees, Radovan Karadzic, Ratko Mladic and Ante Gotovina do not be arrested. Meron said that SCG had achieved a progress regarding cooperation with the ICTY, but he pointed out that the fact that Mladic was still free presented the main obstacle in establishing full cooperation. Radovan Karadzic, Ratko Mladic and Zdravko Tolimir are three indicted persons who are most responsible for the genocide in Srebrenica. Serbian Prime Minister Vojislav Kostunica promised that his government will extradite them to the Hague Tribunal, and "I expect that he will keep his promise", stated Chief ICTY Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte while addressing the United Nations Security Council members in New York. Del Ponte added that, since no one was extradited after April 25, it seems that Kostunica is not willing to capture indicted war criminals. According to the Chief ICTY Prosecutor, those fugitives will be captured more easily if Podgorica and Banja Luka try to cooperate closely with Belgrade, and NATO and EUFOR forces in BiH. Another two indicted war criminals, Vlastimir Djordjevic and Dragan Zelenovic are hiding in Russia; Del Ponte said that Russian authorities promised her that they will do all they can to arrest them. Chief ICTY Prosecutor also expressed concern with the fact that Croatian government has still not located, arrested and extradited fugitive general Ante Gotovina.

Dnevni List, pg 5 'The Hague overcrowded because of arrivals of new indictees', not mentioned also reported on Meron address to UNSC.

Now, this duty has to be completed and I think that it can be done very soon”, said Principal Deputy to High Representative Larry Butler. RS Ministry of Interior informs that it will not be satisfied until all war crime indictees do not be in prison, and that activities regarding the issue are being conducted. RS authorities have called war crime indictees on surrender, for several times. “Each voluntarily surrender is welcomed since it suits RS’ interests and its position, in comparison to strong pressures which come from the highest international circles”, said RS President Dragan Cavic.

That is frustrating for me, as it happened just in the moment when two other sides said yes to single structure."* Gregorian notes it is politically impossible for conscription to be abolished only after the entities defence ministries ceased with the work. "I think that Serb side has understood that after abolishment of conscription there is no need for ministries," says Gregorian announcing meetings with the top BiH leadership this week, however notes that the current situation in BiH Council of Ministers could be a problem.

"The concept foresees professionalisation of army, abolishment of recruits and reserve units," explains Sakan adding this is acceptable for PDP. CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic decided to accept Ivanic's resignation submitted in December after the failed attempt of CoM to appoint a SIPA Director. Terzic stated that it is normal that Ivanic appeared since he has to handover the duties/office. Ivanic on the other hand claims that he did not appear to do a handover and will only accept dismissal in three cases. "If a legal body confirms that his (Terzic's) decision is correct, if it the Parliamentary majority supports the decision or if leaders of 4 ruling parties apart from mine ask me to withdraw", says Ivanic. Ana Trisic Babic did not show up for work on Monday and, according to media speculations, her appointment will be challenged by OHR due to procedural rules. Terzic claims that Babic is only tasked to manage the Ministry as a state employee until a new Minister is appointed. OHR Spokesperson Ljiljana Radetic stated that OHR will receive legal interpretation of the current situation from CoM and until that happens there will be no comments.

However, RS Government thinks it is not its duty to propose new model. Boris Gaspar, RS Vice Premier, said: "Government is not the obstructionist of police reform talks. RS NA, i.e. political parties, should make their crystal clear and hand them to RS Government for consideration. Police reform is a burning issue which Parliament wants to transfer into RS Government and accordingly "free" themselves of responsibility."

The information has been confirmed by an HDZ MP in the BiH Parliament and a member of the Parliament’s Commission for Traffic, Ruza Sopta. However, she is not certain it will be enough to set up a Croat TV channel. VL also reports that the Croat side would invoke the vital national interest, should the amendments be rejected, and forward the law to the BiH Constitutional Court . Sopta explains that it is expected the Court will take a similar decision as was the case with the law on higher education when Croat vital national interests were endangered. Sopta notes that the last resort is the European Human Rights Court in Strasbourg .

Robinson feels that they are responsible for oversights in the dealings of this bank. After freezing SDS account Robinson asked for freezing of all SDS assets so they wouldn't be alienated as an attempt to avoid the obligation of returning the loan. "As a Provisional administrator I have the obligation to return the loans regardless of the loan user", stated Robinson at a press conference in Sarajevo on Monday. She announced that she would invite SDS Chairman Dragan Cavic to look through the bank documentation with her in order to convince him that SDS owes money to Privredna Banka depositors. Robinson revealed another suspicious financial transaction in the example of former TV Kanal 5 from Pale and Mandic. Robinson stated that the bank provided the TV station with a loan of 50 000 BAM and with the interest rate the debt is now amounting to 116 000 BAM. She adds that brothers Momcilo and Mladjen Mandic as well as Bjelica are responsible for these transactions. Robinson will meet with BIH Prosecutor John Mc Nair during the week, who would decide whether the mentioned individuals will be criminally prosecuted. Robinson stated that first payments to Privredna Banka depositors will start in 10 days and added that resources have been gathered so salaries to former PB employees will also be paid accordingly.

Mladjen Mandic believes that he is not the one who should pay the debt	FTV, RTRS – Former “Kanal S” television from Pale legal representative, and current RS Deputy Minister of Justice Mladjen Mandic, admitted that Privredna banka Srpsko Sarajevo (PBSS) Provisional Administrator Toby Robinson might have been right about the information that his signature is on the credit agreement. Nevertheless, Mandic stated that he is not the one who should return this money. “As far as I know the law, and I know it pretty well, only certain legal person is responsible for the obligations made in its name”, added Mandic. “Therefore, I have no idea why Mrs.Robinson thinks that I should return this money”, concluded Mandic.

RS/Serbian Press: Bjelica, Mandic, Sarovic, SDS on Robinson's claims	Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Bjelica and Mandic reject responsibility' – Milovan Cicko Bjelica says he has nothing against intention of Toby Robinson to launch civil suit against him, claiming he did not violate the law by signing the order for pay-out of BAM 130 thousand from budget of Serb Sarajevo City intended for financing of SDS pre-election campaign. He added: "Everything was in line with the Law, because at that time, all donations and financement of parties in the form of money or goods was allowed." Mladjen Mandic, currently RS Deputy Justice Minister and formerly Director of Kanal 5 – Pale, claims he had never taken any sort of loan, as Robinson claims, adding that there is no reason suit against should be filed. (Glas Srpske pg 5 'Loan was settled' by B.G. – reports on Cicko's statement_) Glas Srpske pg 5 'No authority' by N.Z., EuroBlic RSpG 2 'Robinson is making an affair'– Mirko Sarovic, formerly President of Serb Sarajevo City Council, Monday told daily that "Toby Robinson has no right to claim for the money, no longer in 2001 balance before the Bank was privatized...On behalf of share-holders and bank owners, she has a right to claim capital sold to bank with the date of its privatization, which includes her claims and debts." Vecernje Novosti pg 5 'Political purge – suit without evidence' by Sl.P. – Stanko Pivasevic, SDS Presidency member, told daily that all claims Robinson is making should be proved at Court and then the truth will be known, noting that one thing for certain is that none of these persons, linked with loan affairs, is any longer member of SDS leadership. According to Dragan Cavic, this is "an attempted political purge", noting: "Without any evidence, court verdict or summons of the prosecutor, the blockade of accounts of a party, which had no influx of resources since HR's measures bar membership fee, is ordered. This issue must be investigated before institutions in charge of law enforcement." According to Cavic, SDS Presidency has engaged lawyers, since "there are sufficient arguments to prove accusations against SDS are ungrounded".
