RS PM Bukejlovic hopes reason will prevail after police talks failure	SRNA – RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic has said that he does not expect new accusations against the RS following the decision by the RS National Assembly to reject the police reform proposal by BiH Council of Ministers Chairman Adnan Terzic. Bukejlovic said that the “RS had already been accused”. Asked whether certain sanctions could be expected now, Bukejlovic said that the RS had already been accused of not cooperating and failing to produce police reform solutions which would be acceptable to the European Commission, Council of Ministers and Federation of BiH. Bukejlovic said he believed “reason will prevail” and that police reform talks would begin again. RS Radio also carried the statement.

EC Delegation to BiH disappointed with RSNA decision to reject proposed police reform solutions	RS Radio, SRNA – The European Commission delegation to BiH is disappointed with the decision of the RS Parliament to refuse the police reform proposal by the BiH Council of Ministers, which is in accord with the principles of the EU, SRNA was told this morning by delegation spokesman Frane Maroevic. “Until now, the European Commission was very flexible, and searched for ways BiH could reach an agreement most quickly, following which – in the course of the year – it could commence talks on stabilisation and association,” said Maroevic. He warned that very little time is left to reach an agreement on police reform, though he didn’t exclude the possibility. Asked if the Commission may take steps in reaction to the new situation, Maroevic said that Delegation to BiH, which is headed by Michael Humphries, has no such intention since BiH institutions are expected to find a solution. He confirmed that the Commission will issue a wider and more concrete statement later in the day.

RS acceptance of proposed police reform solution just a matter of time – Serb military analyst	SRNA – Military analyst Aleksandar Radic told SRNA that the abolition of military and police forces in RS “is the way to reduce RS to mere cultural and partially political autonomy.” He believes that the issue of police reform is a crucial moment for the determination of the fate of the Dayton Accords. “It is hard to believe that it is possible to avoid police reform and it is hard to defend the existence of a separate police force when the centralisation of defence forces has previously been agreed. Now, it is just a matter of time,” said Radic. He added that regardless of the fact that the RS authorities opposed the proposals from Sarajevo , it is certain that the IC has mechanisms to pressure RS to achieve the goal of the formation of a firmer/stronger, and more centralised BiH.
Del Ponte confirms Lukic’s surrender	BH Radio 1 Brana Markovic, RS Radio – ICTY Chief Prosecutor, Carla Del Ponte, confirmed that the indictee Sredoje Lukic has surrender to the RS Interior Ministry on Tuesday evening. RS authorities have also confirmed this information, but so far have not revealed any details as to under which circumstances the surrender took place. Lukic’s surrender, reported Serbian media, was the result of the cooperation between the RS and SCG security services. Media also reported Lukic will depart for the ICTY today, however the Tribunal has not yet confirmed this.

RS National Assembly rejects 'Adnan Terzic's proposal' on police reform	Oslobodjenje cover page, pgs 4-5 'Talks on police reform failed', FENA – The RS National Assembly adopted a conclusion in which it supports the RS Government's stand to reject the agreement on police restructuring in BiH, "which was proposed by BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic". The conclusions adopted after midnight state the RSNA believes that the RS Government in negotiations on police reform acted in line with the previous conclusions of the Entity Parliament. According to another adopted conclusion, the RSNA has tasked the RS Government to resume talks on police reform on basis of the conclusions dating from May 30, which among other things stated that any model of police organization in BiH, whose local areas would cross the inter-entity boundary line, was unacceptable. The conclusion on rejecting the agreement on police restructuring, "which was proposed by BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic", was supported by 56 representatives, 10 voted against, and 1 representative abstained. Before the vote, representative of SDA Tarik Sadovic opposed the conclusion stating that the "agreement of Adnan Terzic is rejected", stressing that the RSNA should tell the citizens that it is not rejecting Terzic's agreement, but the launch of BiH's negotiations with the EU. Chief of SNSD Caucus Krstan Simic said that SNSD supports the conclusion that rejects the agreement on police reform, "which was proposed by BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic". These conclusions were adopted after debating the Report on status of negotiations on police reform, which was prepared by the Entity Government. Representative of the RS Serb Radical Party (SRS) Milanko Mihajlica said that this party categorically rejects the transfer of police authorities from Entity to the State level. DNS' Drago Kalabic proposed that RS citizens are allowed to declare themselves on police reform at a referendum. Additionally, SDS representatives supported the RS Government in negotiations on police reform, while representatives of SDA and SDP called on accepting the agreement on police reform, which was prepared by the Council of Ministers' taskforce, because this would open the BiH's path to Europe . Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'RS rejects EC offer?' reports that, according to unofficial information, RSNA was not prepared to accept the agreement on police reform as proposed by CoM. According to the daily, at a special session on Tuesday, deputies to the RS National Assembly were discussing RS Government's report on police reform talks, as well as the proposal of the agreement on the police restructuring in accordance with the three basic European principles, which has been prepared by the BiH Council of Ministers' negotiating team. RS Minister of Interior Darko Matijasevic presented the RS Government's report; according to this report, RS Government proposed an agreement, which foresees that the segment of public safety must remain under entity jurisdiction. RS Government decided to send to the parliamentary procedure the agreement on the police reform proposed by the Council of Ministers (CoM) on mountBjelasnica, because European Commission announced that – if that agreement is adopted, and verified by all three parliaments – BiH could immediately start the negotiations on the Stabilisation and Association Agreement. RS Government's report stressed that BiH CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic made a "scandalous" proposal: he suggested that negotiators should delude BiH public by signing one agreement, and publishing another one. Representatives of international organizations did not react to this proposal, but they were extremely ready to react on objections about their role in police reform negotiations, is said in the RS Government's report. This, and some other things – such as the fact that European Commission representatives refused to discuss RS Government's proposal – clearly show that this process was not conceived as a process of negotiations, but as a means of persuading RS representatives to adopt three fabricated and reinterpreted European Commission principles, stated RS Government's report. RHB, Pink, BHT, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Slobodna Dalmacija cover pg splash and pg 18 'Serb threats to RS representatives' by A. Oslobodjenje: Politicians have time until end of Sept to agree on police reform in order to launch SAA negotiations	Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 'Brussels waits for Agreement by end of September' by Az. Kalamujic – Daily reads that while Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, has stated that BiH must agree on police reform by 15 September if it is to start with negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement, EC delegation explained that EU Enlargement Commissioner Olli Rehn has never mentioned this date as final deadline. EC's spokesperson, Frane Maroevic, says this was a deadline set by the OHR, adding that EC and Rehn have always underlined that the agreement on police must be reached by the end of September. Daily concludes that this means the negotiators obviously have more time to reach an agreement which would respect the three basic EC principles on police.

RS NGOs threaten to block institutions if EU police reform principles are accepted	Pink, BHT, RTRS, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Terzic opened cards' by G.K. – Representatives of the Coordination Centre of 11 non-governmental organizations attended Tuesday's special session of the RS National Assembly dedicated to the police reform in BiH, but they said they would walk out if the situation becomes negative for the RS interests. In that case, members of the Headquarters for the Protection of the RS Constitutional Position will gather in front of the Assembly building. They will block all RS institutions and paralyse the political system in RS, said Spokesperson for the Headquarters for the Protection of the RS Constitutional Position Slavko Jovicic .
Official Belgrade : RS must reach consensus on police reform	Dnevni List cover pg splash and pg 5 'Belgrade ready to sacrifice RS police' by N. Bise carries that the official Belgrade has decided to exert pressure on the RS authority since Aleksandar Simic , who is an advisor to the Serbian President Boris Tadic , sent a message on Tuesday that the RS political top must reach a consensus on the police reform and he stressed that this is a state and legal issue which refers on the status of Serbs as a BiH constituent people. DL says that such reaction arrived after non-government organizations from the RS demanded Tadic's assistance with regard to the police reform issue.

Commenting on decision of RS officials to delay once again talks on police reform and to leave that decision to the RS National Assembly, Brkic said that it is clear that beginning of SAA negotiations are depending on very well known conditions that are not negotiable.
British Amb Rycroft: No more concessions in police reform to be made for RS	Oslobodjenje pg 7 'BiH risks international support for dividing schools', mentioned on cover, by Antonio Prlendja – In an interview to daily, the UK Ambassador to BiH Matthew Rycroft said that there no chance for new concessions for RS to be allowed in the course of police reform. "Main concessions for RS Government were already made – for instance by postponing the deadline for implementing reform or accepting that the final map of police regions doesn't have to be agreed right now. In turn, we did not see RS make any concessions. The three EC principles will not be changed. They have to be met. If they don't, there will be no police reform and there will be no progress on the way to Europe," says Rycroft.
SDA Presidency supports police reform based on the three EC principles	Oslobodjenje pg 4 'To determine those responsible for obstructions of police reform', Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'To present social programs to the public before introducing VAT', FENA – The Party of Democratic Action (SDA) Presidency supported at a session in Gorazde on Tuesday police reform strictly based on the three principles of the European Commission. SDA opposes solutions that are not in accordance with these principles and has urged the international community to show decisiveness in insisting on the implementation of reforms and establishing the responsibility of those obstructing it, SDA stated. SDA also supported the measures of the FBiH Government and Sarajevo Canton aimed at helping Bosansko-Podrinjski Canton. It has urged all government institutions and international organisations to support sustainable return to Southeast Bosnia. SDA described the existing model of privatisation as inadequately effective. The Federal and Cantonal Prime Ministers are expected to propose measures for successfully implementing the privatisation process. SDA is concerned with the blockade in the appointment of ministers in the FBiH Government and has requested FBiH President Niko Lozancic and Vice President Sahbaz Dzihanovic to resolve their dispute and complete the appointments.
Tihic on police reform: Terzic has never intended to deceive the public	BHT late news – Commenting the special session of RS National Assembly on police reform, Tihic stated that certain political powers in RS Government wanting to keep the status quo are opposing the reforms and BiH's admittance to the EU. He claimed that Chair of BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic has never tried to deceive the public, adding that Terzic has always openly said that the principles set by European Commission must be respected. Tihic emphasized that, during the negotiations on police reform in Vlasica mountain, it had seemed that an agreement can be reached. However, some politicians in RS want to keep the political control over police and status of RS entity as state. Tihic repeated his stance that the international community is responsible for the problems regarding the reform processes in BiH because it was not united, and it didn't show the determination to insist on reforms.

Ivanic says BiH COM has never discussed Agreement on BiH police reform	EuroBlic cover pg splash 'Ivanic: We have never discussed Terzic' agreement', RSpg 2 'Ivanic: Terzic outside Council' by SRNA, Glas Srpske pg 2 'An agreement of one man' – Mladen Ivanic , BiH Foreign Minister, Tuesday told SRNA that the proposed Agreement of the BiH CoM on police reform in BiH has never been included in agenda of BiH CoM, adding: "The BiH COM has never adopted any such document. Therefore, such an agreement cannot be regarded as Councils' agreement, but exclusively the agreement proposed by Adnan Terzic."
VL comment on importance of police reform for Croats	Vecernji List pg 22' RS refuses to hand over police authorities' by Z. Dzihanovic announces resolving FBIH Government crisis	Oslobodjenje pg 2 'FBIH Government is not a property of SDA and HDZ' by A.O. – The FBIH Vice President, Sahbaz Dzihanovic , said on Tuesday that he has intended to find a solution for the crisis in the FBIH Government, however he did not want to disclose in which way. He did say he would not resign, or approve appointments of Zahid Crnkic and Vjekoslav Mandic to two vacant ministerial positions. While the media speculated that the reason for this is dispute with FBIH President Niko Lozancic and his former party colleagues [from SBiH], Dzihanovic claims that this is only a matter of principle: "I deem that Parliament and Government are not a property in hands of HDZ and SDA... I don't understand why it is a problem [to satisfy the procedure]. I guess SDA and HDZ think it is enough for them to make decisions, and Constitution and laws are not important." FBIH Vice President concludes Government can still work.
BiH Presidency member Paravac says ultimate aim of BiH constitutional changes initiative is unitary state	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Paravac accusing Bosniaks of aiming to establish unitary state', Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Changes to the Constitution only with Dayton reality', EuroBlic RSpg 3 'Undermining of Constitution', announced on cover 'Destruction of Constitution creates unitary state of BiH' by M.S. , Glas Srpske pg 3 'Constitution as battle field' by N.Zelenovic , SRNA – BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravac believes that the real problem in connection with initiatives to amend the BiH Constitution is not the political or legal incompleteness of the current Constitution, but the political and national aspirations of the elites from the ranks of the Bosniak people to carry out a complete constitutional and legal recomposition of BiH, the ultimate aim being the formation of a unitary state. "Lately, the institution of the BiH Presidency has been an increasing target, but not in connection with its constitutional and legal authority, but solely in connection with its composition and manner of election," Paravac maintains in a written reaction to the "ever multiplying reports, as well as the orchestrated media campaign with regard to the initiatives and authorized concepts for amending the BiH Constitution." He emphasizes that "it is not a coincidence that instead of a three-member BiH Presidency the solution being offered is a single president for the republic, who would be chosen by the entire electorate of BiH or by the BiH parliament, which means in practice having a Bosniak citizen". "Such an elected president would represent BiH internationally, he would be the civilian commander of the armed forces of BiH or, even better, the Army of BiH, and BiH would be a republic," Paravac said in the statement. The Serb member of the BiH Presidency warned that this principle could be applied to other state institutions, such as the BiH Council of Ministers and the BiH Parliamentary Assembly. He reiterated his standpoint that initiatives on amendments and addenda to the BiH Constitution and the Dayton framework agreement for peace in BiH "are not and must not be taboo subjects", but are completely legal and legitimate, both from the legal and political viewpoint." The BiH Presidency member reminded that "all initiatives, concepts and new constitutional solutions must start from the premise of the new Dayton reality in BiH, which must guarantee the fundamental principles that BiH is a state with two equal entities and three constituent peoples" .
Venetian Commission rep. met with Ljubic, Raguz and Merdzo	Dnevni List pg 4 'International officials aware of HDZ division' by Z. Jukic says that representatives of the Venetian Commission have talked in Mostar recently with a leader of the HDZ fraction, Bozo Ljubic , about constitutional changes. According to DL, Martin Raguz and Josip Merdzo also attended this meeting and Merdzo confirmed that this meeting took place and that the meeting was of informative nature. Merdzo added that during this meeting he expressed his opposition, which was supported by Raguz and Ljubic, to the attempts to shut down Cantons. Merdzo explained that through Cantons, unlike some other authority bodies, Croats implement their national rights. DL says that watching this meeting in context of current relations within HDZ it can be concluded that international representatives are very much aware of the HDZ divisions since they separately meet with the current HDZ leadership and HDZ fraction led by Ljubic. DL inset 'Pasalic is pulling down Sanader through HDZ' says that sources within HDZ reveal that the main mentor of HDZ President Dragan Covic in Croatia is Ivic Pasalic , who, allegedly, through assistance of his British intelligence associates, placed Covic in his team and through Covic he strikes at HDZ Croatia President Ivo Sanader .

Bise carries that former candidate for the position of the SIPA Director Dragan Lukac was appointed an assistant to the SIPA Director. DL says that this seems as a sort of a compromise in order to ease tensions, which heightened after a Serb and not a Croat, as it was agreed, was appointed the SIPA Director. SIPA's spokesperson Admir Katica stated that he cannot comment whether this case is about the compromise or not and added that he can only confirm that assistants to Director and Deputy Director were appointed.
