Scandal in the BiH HoR: Vote on illegal property forged	Oslobodjenje cover page, pg 9 'Vote on illegal property forged', Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Krizanovic's law did not get support' – SDP BiH deputies to the BiH House of Representatives lodged a complaint over forgery of vote on the SDP-proposed draft law on confiscation of the illegally obtained property. Before it was put on the agenda of the yesterday's HoR session, the draft had been considered by the Constitutional-Legal Commission of the House, which informed the deputies it could not accept SDP principles for the establishment of a state-level agency to be tasked with the issue. A total of 17 members of the parliament supported such the commission's position while 16 were in favour of the SDP proposal. SDP claims that a vote of Selim Beslagic, who also was for the SDP proposal, was not counted which makes the voting procedure irregular.

Cubro, FENA – BiH House of Representatives on Wednesday considered the BiH Auditor's Office report on financial operations of BiH Presidency in 2003. After a long discussion, it was decided that the proposed conclusions stated during the discussion would be forwarded to the House's Commission for Finance and Budget, which should consider them and make a report that will be forwarded to the House for consideration. The relevant commission will consider all the remarks made by the deputies, after which the House of Representative should vote on the Audit Office's reports on financial operations of BiH Presidency and other BiH institutions. The session should resume on July 27, when the House of Representatives should consider the Report on security situation in BiH in 2003, which is to be prepared by BiH Council of Ministers.

Medunjanin carries that the House of Representatives of the BiH Parliament discussed yesterday the Auditors' Office reports on the financial operations of BiH institutions. VL says that according to the auditors' reports apart from the BiH Presidency, shortcomings were noticed in the financial operations of the BiH Parliament, state agencies and judicial bodies. As an example, the auditors' report stated the MPs in the BiH Parliament were taking children allowances, which are envisaged for social cases only.

Dnevni List front pg and pg 5 'Collective resignation of BiH Presidency members requested', by D. Polovina-Mandic carries on the same issue that due to wastefulness of the BiH Presidency members, the MPs in the HoR of the BiH Parliament requested yesterday a collective resignation of the BiH Presidency members as an example of responsibility towards citizens and BiH institutions.

The Presidency had been spending all the funds within the framework of the approved budget. Thus – there is no exceeding of approved funds, whether by budget, or the budget rebalance. It was ascertained that the Secretariat in certain cases did not fully obey the funds spending procedure", stressed Tihic. At the Presidency session, it was also stated that "the cabinets had spent funds unequally". Tihic added that as of now each cabinet would have the equal amount of funds.

It was emphasized that it is necessary to provide for full capacity functioning of the Indirect Taxation Authority and speedy introduction of Value Added Tax (VAT) in BiH. One of topics of the meeting was a proposal of provisional solution according to which the State would be buying its shares/bonds earlier, in case it can afford to, however the savers are not happy with this solution because it does not offer firm guarantees. DL notes that the Association of old foreign currency savers will try to have the old savings regulated by a special law and find more effective mechanisms for the return of old savings. The savers will try to do this through MPs. In case they fail, they will be seeking justice in Strasbourg (European Human Rights Court).

SD also carries an MP in the FBiH Parliament, Ante Colak (HSS), as saying it is the most direct aid to the existence of the RS, pointing the finger at "most probably the OHR, World Bank and International Monetary Fund".

Cengic – The Chief Audit of the Federation of BiH, Ibrahim Okanovic, gave an interview to Nezavisne Novine, in which he commented results of the audit for 2003. According to Okanovic, the worst situation is always at the Ministries that spend the most of the funds – Defence Ministry, Ministry of Interior, Ministry for Veterans and Invalid Persons, as well as at the Ministry for Refugees and DP, in which lots of funds are spent on procurements for refugees. 'They spend the most of funds and there could be the most of irregularities but these mostly reflect on non-publishing of tenders, violation of the provisions on procurement of goods and services and failure to correct mistakes from previous years, because these must be corrected', Okanovic stated.
GS on imports of meat from SCG	Glas Srpske cover page story 'The hardest on Drina' – Serbia exports meat and meat products to European Union states, but this did not help its meat industry to cross the border on Drina river according to GS. BiH CoM has previously decided to enact the ban on import of meat and meat products from Serbia, owing to foot-and-mouth diseases. However, these diseases have been wiped out a long time ago, but meat from Serbia is not imported into BiH, although meat is imported to BiH from many other states, according to Drago Nedic, assistant to RS Minister of Agriculture for veterinary. Mladen Micic, President of RS Chamber of Commerce, does not exclude the possibility that the ban is still on because the BiH Ministry for foreign trade and economic relations is avenging RS, that opposed to introduction of customs-free quote on meat import to BiH.

Sisic, Glas Srpske, pg. 3 'Against crime in full speed' by Srna, EuroBlic, pg. RS2 'SIPA moved in 'Zrak'' by J. D., Dnevni List pg 2 'SIPA is becoming most efficient police institution in BiH' by E. Mackic, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 12 'Hunt after criminals all over the country' by B. Magas, ONASA – Today we proved to BiH citizens and the international community that the Council of Ministers does not only adopt reform laws but also implements them, CoM Chairman Adnan Terzic said on Wednesday at the ceremony marking the beginning of work of the BiH State Information and Protection Agency (SIPA) in new premises in the building of Sarajevo's Zrak factory. Terzic stressed the speed of implementation also depends on persons leading the institutions and called on the SIPA leadership to fulfil the goals and operative plans of the agency. "We must precisely say that we have lost 21 months setting up a legal and technical framework for SIPA's functioning. We have no more days for waiting," he said. SIPA Director Sredoje Novic said that BiH citizens and the international community expect SIPA to be an efficient police institution in processing and especially arresting suspected war criminals. He added he supports the police reform in BiH, in which SIPA will actively take part. "We want an efficient and reconstructed police, efficient SIPA, which is a key condition of the European Commission for fulfilling conditions of the Feasibility Study for joining the EU and the Partnership for Peace. Only a reconstructed security system will enable BiH citizens to travel to the EU without visas," Novic said. EU Police Mission (EUPM) Commissioner Kevin Carty said that this is a very important day in history of law implementation in BiH. "For the first time BiH has a roof agency with full police authorizations and a mandate which will enable it to investigate hard crime," Carty said. He added the parliament and the Council of Ministers have made a great job in short notice by adopting a new package of laws on SIPA. "The EUPM was pleased to have an opportunity to provide assistance and consultations during the set up of SIPA. Now, SIPA will need support of all police services in BiH as well as the international community assistance so that SIPA could become a credible and effective agency," said Carty. High Representative Paddy Ashdown said the official start of SIPA's work and opening of the newly-constructed Old Bridge in Mostar next week present a significant moment by which, in some way, BiH citizens will leave the past behind. "By putting in force the key laws on the set up of SIPA, the present agency will transfer in a strong police force at the state level which is capable to fight against organized crime, illegal immigration, international terrorism, money laundering," Ashdown said. The ceremony was also attended by BiH Presidency members, entity prime ministers, entity police directors and international community officials.

FBiH Ombudspersons say wire-tapping of Alibabic illegal	FTV, Oslobođenje pg 6, mentioned on cover 'FBiH Supreme Court allowed illegal wire-tapping of Alibabic and the others', Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'FOSS violated European Convention by wire-tapping Alibabic', Nezavisne Novine, pg. 2 'Human rights were violated by wiretapping' by A. S., ONASA – BiH Federation Ombudspersons Vera Jovanovic, Esad Muhibic and Branka Raguz issued a report on Wednesday, in which they stated that the rights of Munir Munja Alibabic and others were violated by the FBiH Supreme Court and Intelligence-Security Service. The report states that the wire-tapping of Alibabic and presentation of transcripts of his phone conversation to the media afterwards is a violation of Alibabic's right to privacy by the Intelligence Service. Following a detailed research, the Ombudsmen said that the Intelligence Service based its request for wire-tapping, accepted by the Supreme Court, on the law on intelligence, which does not foresee procedures based on Article 8 of the European Convention on Human Rights, leaving possibilities open for public abuse. The Supreme Court's approval of the wire-tapping request was issued without consulting the prosecution, as defined in the Criminal Proceedings Code, does not contain the Court seal, date or reasons. Furthermore, the approval was written on the same form used by the Intelligence Service, meaning that the judge did not actually pass a decision, but merely ratified the approval prepared by the Service. The Ombudsmen said that the Intelligence Service and Supreme Court had thus violated Article 8 of the Convention and Criminal Proceedings Code.

Allegedly, Prosecutor McNair resolutely responded to the BiH Court President, Martin Raguz, requesting not to obstruct his work. President Raguz told VL that he had told Prosecutor McNair that he could not meet the conjoint request. "We expect him to explain every single case individually, because the Law on Criminal Proceedings stipulates so", said Raguz.

NN op-ed on Karadzic	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Indigestible media appearances' by Josip Blazevic – The author is writing about the latest information that in February this year, SFOR was informed of whereabouts of Radovan Karadzic but failed to arrest him. According to the author, there are three conclusions we could work out from this. First is that international community is engaged in negotiations with Radovan Karadzic on his surrender as some media are reporting. However, there are still no good arguments to support these media claims. Second is that if SFOR is aware of Karadzic's whereabouts but is still failing to carry out the arrest, it raises the question whether IC wants to use Karadzic's freedom for some political purposes, like to ban the work of SDS or abolish RS. According to the author, it is hard to believe that at this moment, international community would decide to make such a drastic move. Third possible conclusion, also most probable, is that SFOR is incapable of arresting Karadzic. He also says that latest and most frequent media statements by Virgil Packett, justifying inefficiency of SFOR units, have become "simply put, indigestible".

Tihic dismisses petition on secession referendum in RS	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘One should not give importance to collection of signatures’, Nezavisne Novine, pg. 4 ‘Tihic: insignificant petition on separation of RS’ not signed, Glas Srpske, pg. 3 ‘Unconstitutional petition’ by Srna, SRNA – The chairman of the BiH Presidency and SDA leader, Sulejman Tihic, believes that a petition which RS citizens are signing in support of a referendum on secession of the RS from BiH is not in accordance with the state Constitution. According to him, “this is obviously a reaction to the latest decision of the High Representative in BiH and is without any significance”. “Possible singings by, for instance, Sarajevo citizens of a petition in favour of the abolition of the RS, would be equally without any importance,” Tihic said.
OHR: Referendum on RS secession will not have legal effect	Herceg Bosna Radio, Oslobođenje pg 7 ‘Referendum has no legal effect’, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘Mono-ethnic referendum will have no legal effect’, Vecernji List, pg 2 ‘Referendum on separation of RS has no legal force’, by F., Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 13 ‘Referendum on separation of RS in impossible’, by F., FENA – The mono-ethnic referendum that was announced in the past several days by organizing signing of the petition in Banja Luka and other towns for secession of RS from BiH is not a good basis for issuing decisions and will not have legal effect, OHR Spokesman Kevin Sullivan told FENA. Commenting on the OHR position on collecting citizens’ signatures for organizing the referendum on secession of RS, Sullivan noted that BiH was an internationally recognized and sovereign state. Collecting of citizens’ signatures for holding the referendum on secession of RS from BiH began Monday, July 12, in Banja Luka in organization of Citizens’ Association “Together to Truth”.

DL on referendum on separation of RS from BiH	Dnevni List, pg 2 'Where is RS going?', by Vedran Vujovic – commenting on the collecting of signatures by 'Together to Truth' Association of Citizens, whose aim is to organize a referendum on separation of the RS from BiH, the author says the initiative reminds him of permanent existence of forces who cannot get over the fact that the RS is within BiH, so they use every opportunity to achieve their goal – separate the RS from BiH. Vujovic continues: "Where can the RS go? Nowhere – trust me! If you do not trust me, ask the NATO Secretary General, Jaap de Hoop Scheffer, and EU High Representative for Common Foreign and Security Policy, Javier Solana, who are visiting Sarajevo today (...) Those who do not love BiH, they can try the permanent emigration, but they cannot take a single piece of our land along, no matter what it's called today!"

RS President
Cavic on RS
secession initiative

Reporter pgs 14-17 'This is a society of informers'
– Responding to press question regarding his view on the initiative of some NGO's for scheduling of referendum, Dragan Cavic says: "The scheduling of elections is stipulated by the Constitution. However, referendum is a consequence, I would prefer talking about the cause. I would say increasingly loud demands for referendum is a direct consequence of an impression that RS is not accepted and welcomed in BiH, not even by some part of the international community or Bosniak and Croat politicians. There are increasingly more and more demands for abolishment of RS, through initiatives for the change of Constitution and through threats and qualification that the RS is to be blamed for everything, which is not true from the realistic point of view. Naturally, this has caused a consequence amongst common people that they can no longer hear and watch it. One day, the pressures that are becoming unreasonable, and are destroying dignity, will have an impact upon general state of consciousness of the nation and it would not take much to find some new leaders, who would turn the path in a completely radical method, with unforeseeable consequences for the region and the status of the states in the region. It corresponds with events in the region and the world, from the global point of view. People watch on TV every day in what manner people, where international presence exists, approach international presence. It is extremely colourful, varying from Iraq, Afghanistan, Kosovo and BiH. They must acknowledge that people – by watching everything what is going on nowadays – can "get unleashed" and then the problem can become grand. I am afraid of such situation and I think these demands represent a warning to those, who think that the principle "divide and rule" would be a principle, on basis of which a controlled crisis would be performed. However, this principle might escalate one day and disable control over such a crisis."

Oslobodjenje interview with Dodik	Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5, mentioned on cover ‘RS would relief if Karadzic would have been arrested’ – In an interview with the daily, SNSD leader Milorad Dodik said that RS Police Director Radomir Njegus had probably promised to the international community representatives he would arrest Radovan Karadzic and that was why he had not been on the list of the recently removed officials. Dodik reiterated that his party would not participate in any government composed of representatives of the three national political parties: SDS, SDA and HDZ.
Dnevni Avaz interview with RS Vice- president Osmanovic	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 ‘By removals Ashdown did a favour to Cavic’ – In an interview with the daily, RS Vice-president Adil Osmanovic said that, by recent removals of RS/SDS officials, High Representative Paddy Ashdown had actually done a big favour to RS President and SDS leader Dragan Cavic because the decisions represented an indirect assistance to SDS to genuinely reform.

majority in RS

Oslobodjenje pg 4 'RSNA Speaker to be elected next Tuesday', FENA – Chief of the SDP Caucus in the RS National Assembly Zekerijah Osmic told a press conference on Wednesday that the RS Assembly Collegium would meet on Thursday to set the date for holding the extraordinary session of the National Assembly for electing the new Entity Parliament Speaker. According to him, the extraordinary session of RS Assembly will most probably be held July 20. "I think that there will be no major events in sense of the political majority in the National Assembly. The Serb Democratic Party (SDS) together with the Party of Democratic Progress (PDP) will have the newly- verified representatives at the session in order to maintain the parliamentary majority, with or without the Party of Democratic Action (SDA). I believe that the so-called joint caucus (six parties with only one representative respectively) will participate in the process of electing the National Assembly speaker from the Serb people, and that with the representatives of SDS and PDP they will have the necessary majority to elect the speaker", said Osmic.

Dnevni List, pg 20, 'Election of Stojicic to Kalinic's vacated position is likely', by Vedran Vujovic – carries a report from SDP's press conference held in Sarajevo yesterday, during which the President of SDP Caucus in the RS NA, Zekerijah Osmic, was talking about the current political situation in the RS. Osmic noted that the new Speaker of the RS NA would most probably be elected next week, and Osmic reckons that the new Speaker will be Dusan Stojicic from the SDS. In that context, Osmic questions the appointment, noting the speculations about Stojicic's role in the Tesanj area during the war. Furthermore, Osmic believes that there will not be removals of the SDA's ministers from the RS Government and that there will not be early elections, arguing that the ruling political parties are again playing the national card before the elections in order to homogenize the electorate.
