Constitutional/police reforms/ SAA talks

EU Council of Foreign Affairs Ministers urges BiH authorities to adopt constitutional amendments; Solana doesn't expect new talks before elections, but does expect debate to continue	BHT1 – EU Council of Foreign Affairs' Ministers on Monday urged BiH authorities to adopt the amendments to BiH Constitution in order to create functional state structures for BiH citizens. EU High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Javier Solana stated that BiH politicians have failed to adopt the constitutional changes with only few lacking votes. He said that he doesn't expect any new talks on constitutional changes to be held before the elections, but he expects the debate on this issue to continue after the elections. He stressed that the constitutional changes should bring more effective and flexible government institutions to BiH, and would improve the relations between the EU and BiH. Solana and EU Council of Foreign Affairs will launch an initiative to start the process of closure of OHR and strengthen the position of EUSR. This process will start with consultations with Peace Implementation Council, HR and BiH authorities. PINK- EU Council of Foreign Affairs Ministers expressed disappointment regarding failure to pass the constitutional amendments in BiH House of Representatives. EU Council of Foreign Affairs Ministers stated that EU is prepared to strengthen its engagement in BiH due to expected closure of the OHR but under condition that sufficient improvement is achieved. RTRS – EU Council of Foreign Affairs Ministers also urged Belgrade to extradite war crimes indictee Ratko Mladic and other war crimes indictees in order to continue negotiations on SAA with SiCG. EU Council of Foreign Affairs Ministers sent message to Podgorica that upcoming referendum on future status of Montenegro has to be open, free and recognized by everyone. RS officials: negotiations on constitutional changes cannot continue before elections	EuroBlic pgRS2 'Cavic: Nothing before elections' by N. Breberina and R. Radosavljevic – RS President Dragan Cavic says he holds no information on new meeting, adding: "I will listen to message SDA President Sulejman Tihic brought from the USA, but only those who had already taken part in those can decide on continuation of talks. The talks failed over absence of two votes from F BiH and we stop on this. Everything else has no logic, and I do not believe it is possible to organise new round of talks on constitutional changes before elections." PDP President Mladen Ivanic is of the view it is senseless to resume talks at this moment since elections were scheduled. HDZ Spokesperson Miso Relota has stated that leaders of political parties that signed the agreement will meet in the upcoming days and discuss this issue, adding: "Although elections were scheduled, there is still space to implement this procedure, since it is of extreme importance for BiH." Jozo Krizanovic from SDP says his party holds no information on continuation of talks and adds chances for that are "minor". Glas Srpske pg 5 'Book still open?' by Z.Markovic [Relota, Cavic, Ivanic] PINK, EuroBlic RSpg 2 'Cavic: Nothing before elections' by Nedeljka Breberina – Rajna Radosavljevic – RS Minister of Administration and Local Self-governance Nebojsa Radmanovic said that it is not possible to work on the constitutional changes in BiH before the October elections. Hayat – RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik deems that the negotiations cannot be continued before October elections.
Tihic: constitutional amendments should be returned to BiH Parliament by end of May	Hayat – BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic is 95% sure that the next round of the negotiations on amendments to the Constitution will be continued within next few weeks. PINK – Tihic said on Sunday that the constitutional amendments should be returned to BiH Parliament by the end of May adding that political will of all actors in this historic process is necessary.

If constitutional changes are agreed, new Election Law has to be passed for elections to be conducted in accordance with the changes; Helsinki Board warns that this is not best solution so short before elections	BHT1 – If BiH authorities adopt the constitutional changes by the end of May, as SDA leader Sulejman Tihic announced, October elections would probably be conducted in accordance with these changes. BiH Central Election Commission (BiH CEC) already officially scheduled the elections in accordance with the existing Election Law. Vehid Sehic from BiH CEC says it will be possible to change the BiH Election Law in accordance with constitutional changes. Chair of Constitutional and Legal Affairs Commission of BiH Parliament Mirsad Ceman said the Constitution is the highest law and, in case of any constitutional changes, the Election Law will also have to be changed. SNSD's Milorad Dodik stated that the October elections couldn't be carried out in accordance with new constitutional solutions. SDA and SDP leaders stated they would not discuss any new solutions for constitutional changes. SBiH's Beriz Belkic stated that those who opposed the proposed solutions wouldn't change their opinion even in a new round of negotiations. Head of Helsinki Board Srdjan Dizdarevic warned that changing of Election law so short before the elections wouldn't be the best solution. He stressed that the talks on constitutional changes should continue, but the short-term change of Election law would only confuse the politicians and BiH citizens. FTV, Oslobođenje pg 2 'Democratic principles of change of the Constitution have expired' by A.Terzic, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'We would follow BiH Parliament's directions' by L.S.– Head of BiH CEC Branko Petric stated that any changes of Election law are under authority of Parliament, stressing that the Commission must respect all valid laws, adding that the Venice Commission doesn't recommend the change of election laws in the year of election.

Reactions to possible continuation of const. changes; SDA Ceman: It is not very likely, but with great political will it would be possible; HDZ 1990 Raguz: Informal talks should be continued, and radical changes should be done after elections	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Constitutional changes are possible before elections, but not likely to be implemented' by Alda Omeragic – Commenting announcement of SDA leader Sulejman Tihic that if constitutional changes are adopted by end of May, the October elections will probably be conducted in accordance with these changes, SDA deputy in BiH HoR Mirsad Ceman said: "It is not very likely, but with great political will it would be possible." Ceman explained there are no obstacles for anyone to submit amendments to the BiH Constitution into parliamentary procedure, adding that it would take one or two months, even less, because part of the Parliamentary Commissions and public debate are already done. SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdžija commented that there are two possibilities – either to wait for the elections or to put amendments to the procedure now. PDP's Goran Milojevic: "Elections are scheduled, I am afraid that confusion could take place if we change it now." Opponents of the constitutional changes announced presentation of common platform for "getting out of this situation". BiH HoR Chair Martin Raguz [HDZ 1990] said: "We already met with SBiH, SDU and some independent deputies and we will soon present common initiative." He added although that he is not convinced that amendments would be adopted now "informal talks should be continued and radical changes should be done after elections."
SBiH, Zilic and Avdic would vote against the same package again	Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'SBiH, Zilic and Avdic would vote against the same package again' – Independent deputy to BiH HoR Mehmed Zilic, who earlier voted against amendments to the BiH Constitution, said: "Whenever they are in the Parliament, by end of this month or in five years, I will not change mind on these amendments that were already rejected." Independent MP Sead Avdic has similar stance: "Of course that I would be against such amendments. But I am not against finding new model, acceptable for all. We can do it in additional talks." Croat Caucus Member in BiH HoR Filip Andric confirmed that his caucus would once again reject the amendments, explaining that he is not sure why would anyone push the package of the amendments that was already rejected. SBiH's Beriz Belkic stated the party would again oppose the same package of the constitutional changes. Inset 'No pressures' – Both Avdic and Zilic confirmed that there were no pressures to accept constitutional changes.

Still uncertain whether talks on constitutional changes will resume	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'HDZ 1990 and S BiH play the old way' by M.Cubro – The Party for BiH (Beriz Belkic) and HDZ 1990 (Martin Raguz) Monday confirmed to daily these two parties will not alter their stances regarding continuation of talks on constitutional changes, i.e. they would not support new initiative for acceptance of the same amendments. Chair of Constitutional and Legal Affairs Commission of BiH Parliament Mirsad Ceman explained that one of possible solutions is to forward the identical amendments to parliament procedure. Daily reports referring to unofficial information that the upcoming few days would see intensive consultations of parliamentary parties' leaders and international community in order to ensure 28 votes of MP's to make two thirds majority for adoption of amendments.
IRI poll: BiH citizens support constitutional changes	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Citizens support constitutional changes' by S.Gojkovic – The latest research carried out in April by IRI (International Republican Institute) on the sample of 1550 citizens of BiH shows that the majority of BiH citizens (53.5%) supports changes of BiH Constitution, while 26% are of the view no changes to BH Constitutional should be made. Poll also showed that 60.6% of Bosniaks support constitutional changes, while 50.3% of Croats and 44.9% of Serbs support changes.
EC's Maroevic: It is important BiH knows what resources it has at its disposal	Dnevni List, pg 6 'Statistics data important for negotiations', by Danka Polovina-Mandic – According to the EC spokesman in BiH, Frane Maroevic, the EU is a trade zone and BiH, when it enters the phase of membership negotiations, will have to know what resources it has at its disposal, therefore statistics data on resources are of great importance since they represent the base for negotiations with the EU. According to the Director of BiH Statistics Agency, Zdenko Milinovic, the Agency is trying to establish itself as a professional and impartial organization, however the problem is that the Agency works with 50% of minimum staff requirements, and on top of that, the Agency lacks financial and logistics support.

EC officials for DA: possibility for SAA negotiations to be ceased exists if there is no progress in police reform by next round	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Police cannot remain at the entity level' by Sead Numanovic, Brussels– During the talks with BiH reporters, EC officials in Brussels emphasized that police in BiH cannot remain at entity level and it must be in accordance with the EC principles. It was explained that statement of Head Department for BiH and Albania EU Enlargement Directorate Dirk Lange [when he said that RS Interior Ministry doesn't have to be abolished] was wrongly interpreted. Anonymous EC officials stated that there are some concerns regarding stoppage in reforms, not just police but also PBS and ICTY cooperation and if there is no progress there is chance for SAA negotiations to be suspended. "Next month new round of negotiations would be held in Sarajevo in which, on behalf of Directorate would be Reinhardt Priebe, in charge of Western Balkans. Progress in reforms would be analyzed at that meeting. If there is no progress, when it comes to the police, which has to be agreed by end of September, cease in negotiations with the EU wouldn't be a surprise" underlined DA source. Talking about ICTY cooperation, DA source said that BiH is not in the same situation as SCG. "It is unclear where Radovan Karadzic is. Neither EUFOR, nor NATO nor Carla Del Ponte [ICTY Chief Prosecutor] is sure whether he is in BiH or not. Because of that the situation is different than with the SCG. But BiH's cooperation with ICTY can be better. Documents that the Tribunal asks for have to be submitted" said DA source, adding that state agencies, such as SIPA have to be more active in revealing of supporting net for ICTY indictees.
CoM Chair Terzic: NO to police reform is NO to SAA negotiations	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'NO to police reform means postponing of the European path' by E.Sarac– BiH CoM Chair Adnan Terzic says that there was nothing disputable in decision to establish the Police Reform Directorate, since it was done based on the Agreement on police reform, supported by Parliaments of both entities and of state. Terzic underlined that if BiH chose to say "no" to police reform at this moment, it would mean that there is nothing of SAA. "With decision on PRD establishment we provided representation of the state, entities, cantons and Brcko District, as well as national balance. This decision was unanimously supported by the CoM and at this moment I truly do not see anything disputable." said Terzic. Once again, Terzic warned all officials in BiH that three EC principles are clear and non-negotiable. "At this moment we can either accept that or say that we are not prepared to follow the European path" said Terzic.

FBiH MoI: joint statement supports single police and is signed by five Cantonal Interior Ministers and me	Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Support to single police' by E.S.– FBiH and five Cantonal Interior Ministers issued a joint statement support ing the establishment of single police, in accordance with three EC's principles. "Joint statement on support to the model, according to which the police in BiH would be united, de-politicized and established at the state level, along with budget and legislation and functional police regions would be sent to the OHR, EUPM and Police Reform Directorate Steering Board" said for DA, FBiH MoI Mevludin Halilovic.
EU would ask BiH to shorten the list of protected products	Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'EU would ask BiH to shorten list of protected products' by T.Lazovic– According to source in BiH negotiating team on SAA, EC has already warned that BiH list of concessions is too wide and that BiH needs to shorten the list of products it wants to protect in transitional period.

Intensified security activities in Banja Luka ; suspicions that Magda's Group stands behind the planned assassination on RS PM Dodik	RTRS – RS Interior Ministry is intensifying security measures due to alleged preparation of assassination of RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik. It was confirmed that Serbian Interior Ministry informed Dodik about activities of a group, which had been hired to murder him. Serbian MoI reported that two polices work on this issue. Dodik said that information of Serbian MoI should not be underestimated adding that these are not the only information in this regard. "It is true that information come from the relevant sources. Several weeks ago, we also got written warning from OSA, SIPA, etc. No one confirms this 100% but they warn", said Dodik. RS MoI works on the field but there have been no arrests yet. Stanislav Cadjo, RS Minister of Interior couldn't give any information due to operative work. Serbian Security and Information Agency [BIA] traced phone calls that indicated that assassination of RS PM is being prepared. Unofficially, Magda's Group was preparing assassination. This group committed many murders in North of Vojvodina and Hungary ten years ago. RS police arrested Jovan Sredanovic, a member of this group, in March this year after RS police got information on attempt of assassination of Dodik. RS President Dragan Cavic talked to Dodik on Monday. Cavic said no information should be disregarded. Cavic also said the information on preparation of assassination of RS Prime Minister demands competent response of the competent institutions of RS and BiH. SIPA spokesperson Admir Katika said SIPA was not involved in this regard but that police cooperation on state and international level is natural. "I do not know whether SIPA had this information but we are trying to establish cooperation although I can say that we are not completely satisfied with this cooperation", said Cadj^o. BiH Ministry of Security did not want to comment threats to RS PM. "We were aware that everybody bringing new ideas and prosperity to these people will be condemned by retrograde and criminal forces", RS Minister of Administration and Local Self-governance Nebojsa Radmanovicsaid. Dusko Vejnovic from NGO "RS Defendologist Association" said that politics is behind this threat, politics that does not agree with Dodik's political orientation. Dodik said that risks would always exist but threats would not stop planned activities. Dodik announced settling accounts with criminal groups. "I regret I can not wrestle with those", said Dodik. RTRS commented that new RS laws are real reason of such threats. Daily carries that Dodik confirmed for Radio Free Europe that both OSA and SIPA warned him of possible threat couple weeks ago. DA learns that OSA directly warned RS PM, avoiding RS Interior Ministry, providing him with names of people that are preparing his assassination, adding that all of them are very well known in RS underground. Schwarz-Schilling: sustainable peace and stability demand engagement of all factors of civil society and religious communities	BHT1, PINK – High Representative Christian Schwarz-Schilling attended on Monday the session of BiH Inter-Religious Council. He called all religious leaders to try to build mutual trust and to consider their own mistakes rather than blame other religious groups for their own mistakes. “We should all work together in order to bring citizens of this country and its different communities towards the EU. If there are any disputes among them, religious leaders should discuss them personally and not through media”, said HR CSS. Head of the Inter-Religious Council Metropolitan Dobrobosanski Nikolaj believes that the existing disputes in BiH can be solved, especially among politicians. This way, stresses editorial, state and entity officials were forced to make agreement on their own.

The author objects partiality of the participants of the discussion and ironically concludes that it is interesting that none of these experts is interested in construction of the highway Banja Luka – Okucani, which is important for Banja Luka and a part of the RS only while all BiH citizens pay back a loan for this highway.
SDS Presidency proposed it should take part at elections at F BiH level for the first time	RTRS, Oslobođenje pg 5 'SDS on elections in RS and FBiH at all levels' by O.V., Nezavisne Novine pg 9, announced on cover 'SDS at elections in F BiH for the first time' by V.Popovic – Dragan Cavic, SDS President, Monday stated that SDS Presidency at its session on Monday in Banja Luka proposed this party should present its candidates for upcoming elections at all election levels in BiH, and for the first time it should propose candidates for elections in F BiH. GS op-ed commending RS leading officials for being united at political scene	Glas Srpske op-ed pg 2 'A Bosnian mix' by Nenad Kecmanovic – The author notes that the prior problem in this part of the Balkans is to identify the way how to bring BiH to the surface and make it survive, while the main trouble of IC is that it keeps going in circles using proven bad solutions. In this context, OHR is undertaking measures in continuity regarding reforms, aimed at saving the state of BiH. On separate issue of political scene in RS, he expresses his view that the personnel solution with Dragan Cavcic as RS President Milorad Dodik as RS PM and Mladen Ivanic as Serb representative at joint institutions is a good solution, since these three officials are, without any doubt, enjoying biggest authority in RS. According to him, the most important thing is that their silent agreement is evading pre-election crisis, i.e. election vacuum in functioning of power, stressing that the pressures aimed against RS regarding reforms have actually united them in defending RS.

Dodig comments on the October elections and the author believes that nothing would change since SDA, HDZ and SDS would win again. The author also says that all former High Representatives used to involve in the election processes a lot, however it seems that current HR Christian Schwarz-Schilling would not interfere but he will just go over BiH warning people to elect right candidates and in this way he would 'fit in a monotonous image of BiH elections'. The author concludes: 'Mature democratic winds have not started to blow over BiH yet. The question arises why to vote when we shall get the same politicians again. This is also democracy but immature and fruitless one.'
