She added Ashdown has made it clear that there is still a path forward for BiH out of the present political impasse – and if it follows this path the prospect of this country's European future being lost as a result of the stalled police reform negotiations can be avoided. She concluded added that there was a clear and resolute agreement that BiH can and must catch up with the rest of the Balkans and cross the threshold into the European process by the tenth anniversary of Dayton .

HR, BiH CoM Chairman express satisfaction with outcome of Brussels talks	RHB, Pink, BHT, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5, mentioned on cover 'BiH loses six years if it does not start negotiations in November', Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'EU did not lose interest in BiH', Nezavisne Novine cover pg splash 'Still without sanctions' and pg 3 'BiH without EU assistance unless conditions met by autumn' by M.Cubro, EuroBlic RSpg 3 'EU did not close its door' by Dusanka Stanisic, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Door still open' by N.Zelenovic – Paddy Ashdown, High Representative of the international community in BiH, and Adnan Terzic, Chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers, have expressed satisfaction with the meetings held in Brussels with the officials of the European Union and the European Commission. Instead of bringing back the expected penalties for the RS, they have returned from Brussels optimistic that BiH will meet the requirements for the beginning of the talks on stabilization and accession by November. Ashdown and Terzic held a news conference on the occasion. In Brussels, we discussed ways of achieving success, the High Representative said, adding that he did not want to discuss the measures he would take if, as he pointed out, the RS chose isolation over integration. "In line with my normal policy, I do not intend to discuss any measures I will take if this turns out to be the choice of the RS. However, since normally I do not talk about the measures that I intend to take, I will not do so now either," emphasized Ashdown. The Chairman of the BiH CoM reiterated that BiH was a single economic territory and that the economic isolation of the RS would reflect on the rest of the country as well. "In anticipation of what could happen, we should start an affirmative process of rewards. Consequently, in the Federation of BiH, we could issue some 10,000 or 20,000 visas for students, professors, representatives of the media, and ensure that those structures in the RS exert additional pressure on the government in order to make it more cooperative and meet its obligations," said Terzic. Both Ashdown and Terzic, as well as Michael Humphreys, head of the delegation of the European Commission in BiH, who joined them at Sarajevo airport, said that the doors to Europe were still open for BiH but warned that time was running out and that no one would wait for BiH. Fourteen out of 16 feasibility study requirements have been met and the goal is that the remaining two, the police reform and the establishment of the public broadcasting service, are completed by the tenth anniversary of the signing of the Dayton peace agreement that is to be marked this November. Vecernji List pg 2 'For the time being nothing about sanctions against RS' not signed carried just HR's statement. Dnevni List pg 5 'Europe has not lost interest for BiH' by M. Zorlak, Vecernji List pg 2 'Beginning of negotiations with EU possible as early as in November' by D. Ivanic requests BiH Presidency to assess legality of foreign minister's dismissal	Hayat, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Terzic violates Law on CoM in the most direct way', Dnevni List pg 7 'Ivanic demands official stand on Terzic's moves' by A. Beus, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Mladen Ivanic demands opinion regarding his removal from BiH Presidency' by D.R.-V.P., Glas Srpske pg 5 'Resignation does not exist', SRNA – Dismissed BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic has asked the BiH Presidency to take a position, as soon as possible, on the legality of the decision by BiH Council of Ministers chairman Adnan Terzic to accept Ivanic's resignation from December 2004. Ivanic points out in a letter submitted to the Presidency that the present situation is damaging the reputation of BiH and calls on the Presidency, in line with its authorization, to find a way of resolving the problem. "Terzic's decisions are unlawful and he is attempting to prevent the foreign minister from carrying out duties, thereby directly violating the Law on the Council of Ministers, and there would be no Council of Ministers deputy chairman from the ranks of the Serb people, which would have serious legal and political repercussions," Ivanic's letter says. In the letter to the Presidency, Ivanic says that his resignation, tendered in December 2004 in protest at the events going on at the time, was withdrawn after the meeting of parties which form a majority in the BiH Parliamentary Assembly in Neum in February this year. "The law does not envisage the obligation to withdraw the resignation in writing and with regard to the withdrawn resignation the statements of HDZ BiH Chairman Dragan Covic and SDS Chairman Dragan Covic confirm this, as does the one resignation regarding my capacity as chairman of the Party of Democratic Progress. He recalled that Terzic personally put forward the same stance at a news conference and his statement was reported by the media on 9 March this year.
Ana Trisic Babic does not want to be acting Foreign Minister	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Ana Trisic Babic does not want to be acting Foreign Minister', Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Ana Trisic Babic rejected the appointment' – Ana Trisic-Babic, Assistant to BiH Foreign minister for bilateral relations, on Wednesday informed Adnan Terzic, BiH COM Chair, that she cannot accept the position of Acting Foreign Minister of BiH, since civil servant cannot undertake ministers' duties. According to the daily, Adnan Terzic Wednesday denied that Trisic-Babic rejected his appointment, noting: "I have received and seen that letter after I returned from Brussels and it reads she will resolve her status with the BiH Civil Service Agency. Comments on Terzic' removal of Ivanic: PDP Djurkovic/Antonic, SDS' Novakovic, HDZ's Raguz, Party for BiH's Belkic, SDP's Krizanovic	EuroBlic pg RS2 'Crisis is brewing' by Rajna Radosavljevic and Nedeljka Breberina – BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic Wednesday demanded from BiH Presidency to present its stance as soon as possible on legality of the decision of Adnan Terzic to accept his resignation. SDS's Momcilo Novakovic says they still do not know whom Terzic would nominate to be Ivanic's successor since he still had not held any consultations with parties. SDA's Seada Palavric claims she still had not read Terzic's explanation on Ivanic's dismissal, but she says she does not find it logical to 'accept someone's resignation half a year after it was submitted'. HDZ's Martin Raguz thinks BiH Parliament is facing a great challenge: "Should Terzic's proposal on new chief of diplomacy fails to get the majority, it will become obvious that the crisis is much deeper and serious, which would lead to a question on whether this Assembly majority can survive until the next elections." Beriz Belkic, Party for BiH delegate, is of the view that Terzic did not act in line with conclusions of the BiH Parliament and failed to hold consultations at the top level. Jozo Krizanovic, SDP of BiH delegate, claims that "it would be good that Parliament conclusion is respected and Terzic offered solution and tested parliament majority/. We do not want to deepen the crisis, because it is a problem demanding urgent resolvment and major authority responsibility...I believe agreement will be reached, as it was the case many times before." Glas Srpske pg 5 'Fear from Sarajevo' by M.C. – Jelina Djurkovic, PDP delegate at the BIH Parliamentary Assembly, Wednesday in Bijeljina stated that Adnan Terzic has removed Mladen Ivanic from the position of BiH Foreign Minister, because Ivanic was supporting the establishment of Commission to be in charge of investigating crimes committed against Serbs in Sarajevo during the war. I have no doubt that the actual commemoration and paying of respects to the victims and their families has a great significance and value. The attention of the international public must constantly be directed to this horrible crime and the inability of the same international community to protect the civilian population of the UN safe haven", the letter of the Chief ICTY Prosecutor said. "However, as a prosecutor of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia, I have a responsibility to bring those who are most responsible for this crime – Karadzic and Mladic to justice. As long as they are not in the custody of this court, it is impossible for me to attend this sad anniversary. This is my personal protest against the non-apprehension and lack of decisive action on locating and bringing them to justice. Namely, this is also the stand of ICTY President Justice Theodore Meron. I have explained my stand in public appearances and in talks with some of the victim groups. I am convinced, actually I am certain, that my stand was properly accepted by many, if not by all", said the letter. However, Del Ponte wrote that she would change her decision and attend the commemoration if at least one of the two main suspects – Karadzic or Mladic – is transferred to The Hague before July 11.
