HR Ashdown requests BiH Presidency member Paravac to explain illegal payments	Pink, BHT, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz cover page, pg 2 'Ashdown takes aim at Paravac?' S.N., Dnevni List pg 4 'Paravac made secret payment at account of SDS Doboje' by D. Jazvic, Slobodna Dalmacija pg 11 'SDS does not respect HR's decisions' by B. Kristo, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Ashdown demands explanation for financial transactions of SDS' by P.K., Glas Srpske pg 2 'Illegal payments' by N.Z., EuroBlic RSp 2 'OHR: Paravac' secret payments on SDS account', announced on cover 'Paravac secretly paid BAM 2.100 on SDS account' by M.S.— On September 5, the High Representative Paddy Ashdown asked BiH Presidency member Borislav Paravac to explain illegal financial transactions made by SDS in Doboje. Ashdown explained that such illegal activities violated HR's decision brought on June 30, 2004, which foresaw blocking of all SDS' bank accounts. The High Representative asked Serb Member of the BiH Presidency to submit the explanation by the end of the working day on Thursday on his decision to secretly make a payment in the amount of 2100 KM to Doboje SDS. Ashdown considers that the payment is illegal since OHR issued the decision that the payments exceeding 150 KM must go through the joint account approved by OHR.

DNS' Kalabic: OHR has already started punishing us	Dnevni Avaz, pg 2 'Kalabic: They have already started punishing us', by E. S. – Reports that the Principal Deputy High Representative, Larry Butler, did not arrive to Banja Luka day before yesterday to meet with the Speaker of the RSNA and heads of caucuses, the meeting that he had initiated last week. OHR spokeswoman, Sanela Tunovic, says the visit was cancelled because of procedural reasons and a new one will be organized very soon. However, the head of DNS caucus in the RSNA, Drago Kalabic, claims that he was informed by the RSNA that "Butler demonstratively cancelled the meeting, without stating a reason". "They have already started punishing us because of the decision we voted on in the parliament. Cancellation of the meeting with Butler is a first measure of those that are to follow", says Kalabic.
Oslobodjenje interview with EC's Daviddi on BiH joining Euro-Atlantic integration	Oslobodjenje, front pg splash and pg 2 'BiH lost chance to start talks with EU', by Az. Kalamujic – In an interview with Oslobodjenje, the Deputy Chief of EC delegation to BiH, Renzo Daviddi, refused to comment on the claim by the Chairman of BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, that Serbia and Montenegro is holding BiH hostage via the RS because of which the EU should not be starting the SAA talks with SCG on October 5. Daviddi reminds that the Feasibility Study clearly shows the 16 tasks BiH has to improve at, including the police reform. Daviddi goes on to say that it is clear that BiH will not be able to sign the SAA agreement this year, underlining that the 3 EU principles regarding the police reform are not negotiable. Daviddi was also asked to comment on various information regarding the start of the SAA talks, since one could hear at the last RSNA session that BiH would not get a chance before 2007, whilst Terzic stated that the EC would approve the start of negotiations as soon as the police reform is agreed upon, however Daviddi did not give an exact answer, since he said it was hard to predict when BiH will make a considerable progress good enough for start of the SAA talks.

EU Solana's spokesperson: EU prepared to resume police reform talks but only on basis of three main principles	Pink, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'RSNA decision is disappointing', Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Gallach: EU is ready to re-new talks', Glas Srpske pg 5 'Decision for concern' – EU is always ready to resume talks on police reform in BiH if it is in line with three EU principles, stated Cristina Gallach, spokesperson of the EU High Representative for the Common Foreign and Security Policy Javier Solana. Terzic blames official Belgrade for failure of police reform talks, SRS Mihajlica says Terzic should resign

BHT Damir Simic – Following the RS National Assembly's decision to reject the police reform proposal, BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic claims that the BIH is Belgrade's hostage. Terzic also calls EC to reconsider their relation to Serbia and not to allow the start of the negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement on 5th October. "I am convinced that Belgrade politics holds BIH through RS on the point for BIH not to sign any agreement with EU until the issue of Kosovo is resolved. Therefore, EU must understand this and end supporting the special relation between Belgrade and RS" said Terzic. On the other hand RS political parties harshly condemn Terzic's accusations. Head of SRS RS Milenko Mihajlica stated that due to Terzic's "deceptive and unfair attitude toward RS citizens during the police reform negotiations, he deserves for RS political representatives to instigate the demand for his resignation". RS Government firmly denies all claims that SiCG Government in any way influenced RS NA's decision on police reform proposal. On the other hand experts claim that Kosovo is the source of the instability of the region. Reporter noted that many Serbian politicians tied the future of Kosovo to the future of BIH, namely RS. Sociologist Ivan Siljakovic stated that the Kosovo has been administratively separated adding that only political and emotional side regarding Kosovo issue is left although even this situation is rather clear. Reporter concluded that experts find rather difficult to predict the resolution of Kosovo issue especially its possible consequences on BiH.

RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Radicals demand removals' by V.P., Glas Srpske pg 5 'Pressure never seen before' by D.Mo., EuroBlic RSpg 2 'Radicals ask removal of Terzic' also carried Mihajlica's statement.

They denied accusation that Serbian politicians tie the future of Kosovo to the future of BIH, namely RS. From the Office of Serbian Prime Minister Vojislav Kostunica was stated that police reform was BIH's internal issue. They added that the accusations on their influence were the futile attempts of Sarajevo politicians to transfer their responsibility for a blockade in BIH. DSS Leader Dusan Prorokovic stated that politically Kosovo and BiH should not be connected but technically they should be connected since the solutions applied on RS Serbia would like to apply on Kosovo. From the Office of President of Serbia Boris Tadic was stated that Serbia supported the reforms in BiH adding that no one has explained them yet why it is so important for BiH to have one police. Nezavisne Novine pgs 4-5, announced on cover 'Solution to crisis is in Sarajevo' by V.Popovic also carries denials by Serbian officials, politicians that they influenced on RSNA police reform-related decision.

TV Hayat: Reactions by some BiH politicians to failure of police reform talks	TV Hayat – Report broadcasts opinion and reactions of BiH politicians on failed police reform talks. “The International Community has to define who decides on BiH’s future and whether BiH is still going to be hostage of certain political structures and games. We are absolutely disappointed with the RS National Assembly’s decision and this is an extremely dangerous step, which leads one step back instead of forward”, said SDA representative in BiH House of Peoples Hasan Cengic. “I will reject accusations directed towards PDP, being its member, especially due to the fact that PDP did not take part in recent police reform talks...PDP did not support so called ‘Bjelasnica’ agreement, proposed by the Chair of BiH Council of Ministers Adnan Terzic”, said PDP representative in BiH HoP Goran Milojevic. “Thanks to certain persons, who do not understand integration processes, we are still standing at one place”, said BiH Deputy Minister of Human Rights Ivica Marinovic. “We will join Europe as new authorities, ready to adopt reforms and accept European principles, take over. In a phone-statement to daily from London, Ashdown said that rejection of EU principles by the RS NA is a bad fact for BiH and with catastrophic consequences for the RS. He adds that solution to reform rests with SDS, noting that nothing will happen until RS, i.e. SDS acknowledges Europe will not change its principles. He also adds that Pero Bukejlovic, RS Premier, also shares the responsibility for the failure. He does not want to comment on ICG recommendation that the work of SDS should be banned.

RS PM Bukejlovic rejects CoM Chair Terzic's accusations: All participants in police reform talks should be held responsible	RHB, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'All participants in talks should be held responsible', Oslobodjenje pg 2 'All three parties responsible for failure', Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Bukejlovic: Terzic is responsible too', Glas Srpske pg 4 'No innocent' by M.D. – RS Prime Minister Pero Bukejlovic denied accusations from the BiH Council of Ministers (CoM) Chair, Adnan Terzic, alleging that the RS authorities are responsible for the failure of the police reform talks. Bukejlovic believes that responsibility lies with all the parties and that the CoM's Chair cannot be released from responsibility. He said that conclusions from the special session of the RS National Assembly on police reform have shown "consistency in the approach that will create conditions for the RS Government to come up with a proposal that it will be able to support". Commenting on the possibility of sanctions against the Serb Democratic Party (SDS) because of the rejection of the BiH Council of Ministers' proposal on police reform before the RSNA, Stojicic said that there is no reason why the strongest political party in the RS and the key factor of institutional stability of that entity should come under sanctions.

PDP blames Ashdown and Terzic for failure of police reform talks	Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Ashdown and Terzic culprits for failure of talks', Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Ashdown and Terzic are responsible', Glas Srpske pg 5 'We are not responsible', EuroBlic RSpG 2 'SDS: It is possible without principles as well' – The PDP released a press statement Thursday, claiming that Paddy Ashdown, HR to BiH, and Adnan Terzic, BiH COM Chair, are the main culprits for the failure of police reform talks. The statement reads: "Ashdown and Terzic were strongest advocates of the failed model of police reform. On the other side, they had offered nothing new during talks, which might have led to consensus." This party also rejects accusations PDP is also responsible for failure of police talks, noting that not a single official of PDP police reform talks after Vlasic.
SDU: SDS is blocking reforms	Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'SDS is blockading reforms' – The leadership of the SDU of BiH warns that apart from incompetent and incapable political top, the BiH is also faced with orchestrated and hypocritical policy of one part of the European political circles and Serb nationalistic circles in Serbia and RS."

He notes that the argument the police reforms is aimed at further disassembling of RS is irrelevant and hence unacceptable in comparison with the above purpose. Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'New New cubes on the board of continuity' by Slavo Kukic – Writing about rejection of police agreement, the author is critical of the RS NA, but also of the BiH CoM, but IC, including HR as well, adding that it was almost impossible to believe that EC offer would be rejected. He adds that rejection of EU ticket/pass speaks of the level of deformity of the existing political gang with mortgages of the past (ideas on big states, myth-mania, etc). He concludes by saying that the latest developments represent new cubes on the board of ethnic continuity. Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Media lynch of SDS' by Nedeljko Zugic – The author is extremely critical of SDS, referring to its as gravedigger of the Serb people in BiH (and wider region), which fulfilled one prophecy: "Time will come when the living would envy the dead.", because the living people hardly put up with unbearable circumstances.

The problem is that they want to blame BiH Constitution and DA for all their failures.), Momcilo Novakovic from SDS (saying that Ashdown and Terzic share views, which differ from the views of Venice Commission), Vinko Radovanovic from PDP (saying that Dayton Agreement is a framework, within which all processes need to be run).

BiH Presidency
Chairman Jovic
addresses UN
General Assembly

Oslobodjenje pg 3, mentioned on cover 'BiH path to Europe has no alternative', Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'BiH should become a factor of stability in the Balkans', Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover 'Dayton should be changed' by A.Sekulic, ONASA – BiH Presidency Chairman Ivo Miro Jovic said Thursday evening at the 60th session of the UN General Assembly in New York that BiH backs United Nations and that the country is set to take duties and tasks in order to strengthen the Organization in this key moment of its existence, the BiH Presidency said. "I'm coming from a small, but brave and proud country. We are a country which is further considered a post-conflict society, we are still searching for war criminals and healing wounds from the tragic war and are still searching a way to create conditions for reconciliation and building a better future," Jovic said. He added that BiH is in a year when marking the 10th anniversary since signing the Dayton Accords, which ended the war but a rightful peace was not born. "Rightful peace means equality of all nations and citizens, which is not the case now. One country, two entities and three nations is Dayton's non-functional structure which we opted to change and adjust to our conditions, by an agreement of all three nations, in order to create a self-sustainable political system," said Jovic. "Despite complex political and constitutional structure, BiH nations are decisive to improve the Dayton constitution by an agreement and take over the power of the Office of the High Representative, as well as enable highest standards of human and civil rights on the principles of European practice, including the right of Croats, Bosniaks and Serbs, as three constitutive nations, on media and education system in their own languages," he added. "Our assignment and intention is to take all duties from the Millennium Development Goals – stability, development, good governing, including fulfilment of all taken international legal duties. We fully believe that we belong to the European family and we are putting efforts to be engaged in Euroatlantic integrations," Jovic concluded.

Lovrenovic negatively comments on segregation in BiH schools and the author reminds of the things he said on the same issue two years ago: 'When international representatives demand and expect from local officials to give up the evil called segregation over night they are doing a good thing, however, in order to succeed in this they have to meet 2 pre-requisites. The first one is to take over their part of responsibility for creating a monstrous political system, which produces segregation. The second prerequisite is that implementation of reforms finally starts from the very foundations of the political system since only they can make this crucial step. Until this happens there is a fear that the real effect of the reforms would not be anything more but giving a facelift to a monster.'
