	has relieved RS National Assembly Speaker Dragan Kalinic and Interior Minister Dragan Djeric of their duties, and added another 13 names to "the black list" of those suspected of helping war crime indictees, dismissed yet 57 persons in the RS/SDS and frozen the bank accounts of three persons and 60 municipal committees of the Serb Democratic Party (SDS). "Kalinic was dismissed on the basis of the findings of the revision into the SDS financial dealings and over the lack of cooperation with the Hague tribunal, which is why BiH has missed an opportunity to join the NATO-led Partnership for Peace program," Ashdown told journalists in Sarajevo. He believes that Kalinic had to prevent embezzlements and frauds involving SDS public funds in order to make the financing of the network of people assisting war crime suspects impossible. According to Ashdown, Kalinic was dismissed on the basis of ministerial, not personal responsibility, for not detaining war crime suspects. Ashdown said that the most important of these 10 measures would be the formation of a commission for restructuring police forces in BiH, which would be capable, he said, of finding and detaining war crime suspects. Zeljko Bagic, Ljubo Cesic, Dragomir Keserovic, Zeljko Dilber, Dragan Kijac, Ante Maksan, Milan Ninkovic, Velibor Ostojic, Hrvoje Petrac, Branislav Puhalo, Mirko Sarovic, Ratomir Spajic and Milan Zogovic were added to "the black list". The director of "Srpske sume" (Serb Forests), Savo Krunic, as well as Zoran Petric and Mile Pejcic of the Public Security Centre Bijeljina, were dismissed, their bank accounts frozen and they were banned from entering the USA. Ashdown also ordered an urgent revision of the financial dealings of "Srpske Sume" due to some indications that the network of people assisting war crime suspects was financed through this company. The means from the bank accounts of the 60 SDS municipal committees in the RS will be returned to the party after conditions have been met for that to happen, and 1m KM intended for the SDS will till then be transferred to the BiH institutions in charge of finding and detaining war crime suspects, i.e, the SIPA (State Information and Protection Agency), the BiH Court crime department and the Election Commission.

Kalinic, Djeric on HR's decisions

Macanovic, Vecernji List, pg 5 'Dragan Kalinic: Karadzic guarded by God and angels', by B. S. -RS NA Speaker, Dragan Kalinic, yesterday stated he was removed since he "did not accept to see SDS commit a political suicide and because this party did not ensure Radovan Karadzic is arrested". " In his address to RS MP's, he estimated "this is the most brutal cleansing of the political scene in the RS so far. Many are impotent before the fact that Radovan Karadzic is, probably, protected by God and angels, and that is the only truth." Kalinic said he was removed as the Party President, which has been suspected of "having failed to forget dark past". He also announced that the deliberation of HiRep will be the subject before European Human Rights Court in Strasbourg, "after I have exhausted all other legal possibilities, which are, unfortunately - owing to semicolonial authority system here in BiH - restricted and destined to fail." He assessed his removal as "draconian measure, which also means that as of tomorrow, I am banned from assuming any public and political affairs, from entering the Office... As a result of this, my pension, health and social contributions have been cancelled." "I am leaving, and it is not the first time I do that — if God decides, I will be back, because I have only spent five out of nine political lives I have". Said Kalinic. He added it is a paradox, but it seems good under these unfortunate circumstances, that nobody will now be able to make him politically responsible for what is about to happen at SDS and the RS as well. He also said that he was removed "over a controversial financial report of the international auditor, according to scenario launched with affairs Orao and Elektroprivreda." He also addressed a message to Ashdown, Bond and other, saying: "I forgive you for this removal, although you have done this beyond Constitution and laws in the colonial style as cowboys and colonialists." Kalinic addressed a message to people saying that "it is not the end of the world and this will again be our state", stressing that RS and its institutions must fulfil their obligations. "God bless you and your families and colleagues", concluded Kalinic his address. This article contains inset "Djeric: Removal offered me satisfaction" (Glas Srpske pg 5 'My conscious is clear'), which carries reaction of Zoran Djeric, RS Interior Minister. He said he was removed from the position upon decision of High Representative to BiH, Paddy Ashdown. Decision, which has been forwarded to Djeric from OHR, reads, inter alia, that "decision has not been made upon any issue, that concerns you personally, but instead of your responsibility by function." After the parliament session, Djeric stressed this decision has offered him grounds for the professional approach during time he assumed position over the past 18 months. The statement reads: "I was extremely devoted, together with my associates, in fulfilling all legal duties, including protection to RS citizens and their property." Herceg Bosna Radio, BHTV, Dnevni List, pg 6 'Zoran Djeric is guilty because of official responsibility', not signed, Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 19 'I am satisfied', by A. Macanovic, Oslobodjenje pg 5 'I was committed to my work' also carried Djeric's reaction.

Cavic calls on all Bosnian Serbs to unite in face of worst crisis ever BHTV, FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Cavic believes it is about draconian punishments', Slobodna Dalmacija last pg 'Ashdown's decision is draconic, scandalous and unprecedented' by A. Macanovic, Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Dragan Cavic: OHR introduced crisis in RS'; Glas Srpske pg 4 'Unseen and un-heard of'; EuroBlic RSpg 1 'This is a breakdown of democracy''; Vecernje Novosti pg 5 'Breakdown of democracy', SRNA - RS President Dragan Cavic said on Wednesday that the OHR has been assaulting the RS ever so more aggressively and that it has been, whether consciously or not, assuming the role of an "institution making true the wishes of Bosniak and Croat politicians who would rather that the RS did not exist". "The international community must count on our human and national dignity as a threshold which it will not be able to step over as the Serb people have paid a too high price for the creation and existence of the RS," Cavic said in a public statement. President Cavic called on the Serb people to offer unified support to the RS' Dayton status. "I call on the RS political parties to get unified in overcoming the created political and institutional crisis. If this has not been possible so far, it has to be possible now as there is no alternatives," he said. President Cavic said that the sackings by High Representative Paddy Ashdown have directly jeopardized the institutions of the RS and brought about the worst institutional crisis so far. He asked whether such moves by Ashdown were part of making true the wishes of some Bosniak parties and leaders and especially the leaders of Sulejman Tihic's Party of Democratic Action (SDA). "Are these punishments part of disciplining the Serbs in the RS and BiH in answer to ever so louder demands of numerous politicians of the Bosniak and Croat nationalities for a constitutional restructuring of BiH with no RS in it?", Cavic asked. He said that Tihic and such like officials – but also the High Representative and all other "foreign rulers" in BiH – must know that they can sack or suspend all Serb officials, politicians, directors and labourers but they cannot sack or suspend the Serb people or the RS. The RS president reminded that the Council of Europe's Parliamentary Assembly adopted on 23 June a resolution in which it stipulated that the framework of work and competencies of the OHR were of such nature that it made it the supreme institution with the most supreme competencies in BiH and that this was in breach of democratic principles. "The Council of Europe has at the same time asked the Venetian Commission to determine to what extent such moves are in line with the Council of Europe's basic principles and especially with the European Convention on Human Rights and Basic Freedoms," Cavic said. He said that, only eight days since this happened, Ashdown "carried out a pogrom on the civic and human rights of around 60 people in the RS" and ushered the RS into the biggest political crisis since the Dayton. President Cavic said that the decision of the High Representative to remove around 60 people from political and public posts in the RS was "draconian, unprecedented and unheard of in modern democracies" and that it amounts to the "break-up of democracy in BiH". He condemned, as he called it, Ashdown's "colonial pedagogy". "Real and genuine rulers of BiH, who think that they scored a victory today, should know that they also failed in universal principles of freedoms and human values," Cavic said. Cavic said that he was aware that at this moment his responsibility as the RS president was his biggest responsibility and that he was going in the forthcoming days to make a decision on necessary measures in order to find the best answer to the created crisis which will be of the long-term interest for the RS.

BiH Foreign	FTV, Glas Srpske pg 5 'According to tact of Bosniaks', SRNA - Foreign Minister Mladen Minister Ivanic	Ivanic has said that the leading purpose of the High Representative Paddy Ashdown's says sackings	measures passed on Wednesday was to "completely destabilize" the RS because such a aimed at	"pogrom of top officials" showed a desire to bring the RS institutions to a complete "destabilizing"	crisis. "This is clearly an example of arrogance and high-handedness and an attempt RS	to create environment under the pretext of the European and Euro-Atlantic integration. In reality, the manner in which these integration processes are being promoted with such punitive measures is only distancing citizens of the RS from the European path," Ivanic told SRNA. He remarked that dealing with politics under such circumstances was next to pointless. "It is clear that Ashdown's measures have nothing to do with the failure to join the Partnership for Peace (PfP) and to cooperate with the Hague Tribunal as much as they are used as the reasons," said Ivanic who is on his first official visit to Malta. He announced that the Party of Democratic Progress (PDP) would make its stand about the latest situation on Friday.
	"This has nothing to do with any coalition in the government or with any political party. I believe it is a case of inappropriate, and at least in the more recent history, to me an unknown way of meting out punishments. If this continues it will be clear that the whole procedure is aimed at undermining the RS, which would be an attempt to apportion all problems in BiH to one side, and this is unacceptable," Ivanic said. He stressed that the RS would also find an answer to this challenge. "In the next day or two, RS key politicians who are still in their posts, will have to find these answers," Ivanic said and urged the citizens to continue to respect the RS institutions. "We will certainly find solutions for the current situation, and these will have to be very specific because it is certain that the political scene in the RS will not be the same after this," Ivanic said. The foreign minister went on to say that "certain people" in Sarajevo will be "pleased" with the newly-created situation.
	"Here I particularly refer to Chairman of the BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic who has clearly received strong ammunition in certain representatives of the international institutions in his attempt to realize his political objective," Ivanic said. He said that the only way to overcome the crisis was with self-respect and self-confidence.

He said: "Individuals do not make RS, individuals are not those, because of whom RS should be brought in question. I am fully convinced in a good future of institutions, if political smartness of people, who make decisions on RS future, find the best solutions." He further said that if people entrusted SNSD with mandate, this party would accept this responsibility. He expressed hope RS institutions would resume their normal duties today, noting that RS can overcome this situation and move on. Slobodna Dalmacija pg 19 'Delicate position' by A. Macanovic also carried Dodik's statement.
Paravac on HR's decisions	Glas Srpske cover page report 'Bad for democracy' – Borislav Paravac, Serb member to BiH Presidency, assessed that removals of 59 officials represents a bad sign for democracy and reforms' processes in BiH. Paravac told SRNA news agency that it is not a way how to encourage people engaged in public positions and how should take the destiny of the entire people into their hands.
Tihic: HR's decision entirely expected	Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Tihic: I hope BiH will from now on fulfil obligations toward The Hague', FENA – The decision of High Representative Paddy Ashdown to dismiss 59 RS officials is entirely expected, BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic said and expressed confidence that it would ensure the establishment of efficient law enforcement structures, the respect of the Dayton Agreement and international agreements. Tihic stated that this would also include the prosecution of war criminals, their arrest and transfer to the Hague, acceleration of reforms needed for BiH admission to the Partnership for Peace and other Euro-Atlantic structures. Tihic expressed hope that BiH and its citizens would no longer be held hostage by obstruction of individuals. "Unfortunately, this decision also had to be made by the High Representative. This is another reason for opening dialogue on changing the political system which will allow the functioning of the state in accordance with international commitments", Tihic said. Dnevni List pg 2 carries in its 'Statement of Day', the Chairman of the BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic as saying: "There will be no blockade of the authority because of Ashdown's sanctions."
SDP, SDA, Party for BiH, NHI on HR's decisions	FTV - Opposition political parties in FBiH believe that HR's decisions are nothing but lies, and that SDS will use this to present itself as a victim ahed of the municipal elections, and that this would only make the Serb people vote for SDS. "I am afraid that International Community officials still do not understand that reformers, to whom they gave authority, are noting else but their worst failed investment in BiH. What is the most tragic is the fact that they stopped on half way, and it would have been better if they had done neither this, because in period of elections we have the same script every year. That is why SDS gets stronger every time", said Zlatko Lagundzija, SDP President. According to Sulejman Tihic, SDA leader, this should ensure establishment of efficient structure of security service, arrest of war criminals and acceleration of process of reforms. Haris Silajdzic, founder of the Party for BiH thinks that Wednesday's decisions do not cope with the root of the problem (Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Ashdown did not touch the essence of the problem' also carried Silajdzic's statement). NHI also believes that this will not ensure better future for BiH citizens; they believe that corruption leads BiH, as well as poverty, unemployment and that this cannot be changed only by replacement of officials.
EC's Patten supports HR's decisions	BHTV, FTV, Herceg Bosna Radio, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Karadzic and the others must face justice in The Hague', Dnevni List pg 7 'EU supports measures taken by Paddy Ashdown' by NINA – With regard to the removal of 59 RS/SDS officials, Chris Patten, EU Commissioner for Foreign Affairs, stated that he supports the measures taken by the High Representative. It is scandalous that RS government did not arrest anyone accused of war crimes almost ten years after the war had finished, said Patten. Radovan Karadzic and other indictees must face the justice in the ICTY and in order for BiH to be able to leave behind the tragic past and turn to the future, according to Patten.

US welcomes Ashdown's measures	BHTV, FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'They were preventing BiH from fulfilling Dayton obligations', Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 8 'Washington resolutely support Paddy Ashdown's move in BiH', by H , Dnevni List, pg 7 'American Government supports removals', not signed – a press release from the US Embassy to BiH says that the US are strongly supporting measures that the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, undertook against officials of the RS and SDS. The PR says that the officials in question and the SDS prevented the fulfilling of obligations BiH has towards the ICTY, especially the arrest of Radovan Karadzic and Ratko Mladic. As a support to measures of the High Representative, the US Government is freezing funds of companies owned by the RS, as well as funds of three RS officials, who provided financial and logistic support and protection to Radovan Karadzic. Furthermore, the US have added three persons and a company to the list of persons and organizations identified by the US President's Executive order number 13304. The persons in question are Savo Krunic, Zoran Petric, Mile Pejcic and 'Srpske Sume' Company. Nezavisne Novine pg 2 quotes Adem Ereli, Deputy Spokesperson of the US Department of State, as expressing support to HiRep's decisions.
British Foreign Minister supports HR	FTV, Dnevni List pg 6 'British Minister Straw supported Ashdown's measures' not signed, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Measures not directed against Bosnian Serbs' – British Foreign Minister Jack Straw stated that he fully supported the measures taken by the HR. Straw added: "As the HR stated clearly, these measures are not directed against Bosnian Serbs and they are not a threat to the existence of the RS. The measures refer to those who actively undermine an effort to find and arrest Karadzic and the others that the ICTY charged with war crimes."
SCG politicians on HR's decisions	FTV, Nezavisne Novine pg 7 'SPS, DSS and SRS reacted'; Vecernje Novosti pg 5 'Ashdown electing instead of Serbs' – Ivica Dacic, senior officials of Serbian Socialist Party, is of the view that the decision of High Representative to BiH, Paddy Ashdown, might have a negative impact upon political future of Serbs from RS. He said this decisions "is another proof that the international community in BiH is heading towards revision of Dayton Peace Agreement". Zoran Stojkovic, DSS and Serbian Justice Minister, said decision shows RS is under a complete control of the international community and that it is de facto a protectorate. Tomislav Nikolic, SRS Vice President, assessed that decision of High Representative, ascertained previous assessment of radicals that "RS is under occupation".
VL: British diplomacy extends life to RS	Vecernji List, pg 4 'British diplomacy extends life to RS', by Zoran Kresic – The daily got a confirmation from an anonymous source close to western diplomatic sources that the British diplomacy extended the life to RS at the last session of the Peace Implementation Council, whilst in return, the PIC member countries gave their support to 'drastic' decision of the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, by which he removed almost 60 Serb officials. The source stresses that the Americans were in favour of 'more radical measures', however the source did not want to say what the measures might be. Questioned whether one of measures was the abolishment of the RS, the anonymous officials said that nothing had been ruled out. According to his words, the British sided with Russians and French, who were opposite the US. The source also noted that HR Ashdown's latest removals of Serb officials could be the last in the history of four HRs in BiH, saying "it is likely that the Council of Europe's recommendations, which call for termination of such practice, will be observed". The same source says that one cannot rule out a possibility that HR Ashdown leaves the post prematurely because of an almost certain decrease of powers. "I expect the PIC to take such decision by end of year", stated the source, adding that the new High Representative would most probably be a French national.
DL: Black lists and human rights	Dnevni List pg 2 'Black lists and human rights' by Ivica Glibusic – Commenting on the yesterday's decision passed by the HR and the EU black list, the author wonders as to what kind of democracy we have in BiH when one person is passing decrees, appoints and removes some officials. According to the author, this means that monarchy like dictatorship has been introduced in BiH. The author also says that there are announcements that economic sanctions will be imposed against the RS and wonders what kind of sanctions they are since they will be imposed in one part of the country while the other part of the country will not suffer their consequences at all. The author believes that in this way the International Community and some officials from Sarajevo openly admitted that the RS is a state within a state.

Oslobodjenje's Beric on Kalinic's removal, need for further measures	Oslobodjenje pg 2 'Assembly of dead people' op-ed by Gojko Beric – "Dragan Kalinic deserved to be removed from politics, but as long as the political-criminal structure of RS is not destroyed the individual replacement of officials will have no effect," wrote Beric.
Interview with Radovanovic	 Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'I do not believe one should leave (resign from) the government because of anyone's removal' – Interview with BiH Defence Minister Nikola Radovanovic. "I do not think that the resignation from government in sign of protest would be a rational move," said Radovanovic adding that any irrational reaction (to HR measures) would jeopardise/stop reforms in the country.
Del Ponte addresses UN Security Council	BHTV – Chief ICTY Prosecutor Carla Del Ponte announced filing the 6 new indictments against 11 persons from all of the countries in the former Yugoslavia. The ChiefProsecutor said that the large number of indictees was still hiding in Serbia and Montenegro and RS. Unless we don't see any concrete results in their apprehension soon, the SCG may expect sanctions by the UN Security Council. According to information possessed by ICTY, 5 former officers of RS army as well as Milan and Sredoje Lukic accused of war crimes in Visegrad are hiding in Serbia . Government of SCG promise to improve cooperation with ICTY.
On del Ponte's announcement that Karadzic was supposed to be arrested yesterday	Dnevni List pg 22 'Action for arrest of Karadzic day after BiH was not admitted to Partnership for Peace!?', mentioned on cover, by NINA and Vecernji List pg 4 'Search was carried out secretly' by f – Chief ICTY Prosecutor Carla del Ponte stated that Radovan Karadzic was supposed to be arrested yesterday. According to the dailies, neither the RS Ministry of Interior nor SFOR's spokesperson Mark Hope had a comment to del Ponte's statement. Hope also stated that SFOR was only carrying out its routine operations yesterday. DL says that nevertheless it is indicative that a day after BiH was not admitted to Partnership for Peace, SFOR activities on the border with Serbia and Montenegro have been intensified. On the same issue, VL carries President of the RS Government Dragan Mikerevic as saying that there were no official announcements with regard to the aforementioned statement of del Ponte.
DA: Are secret negotiations on Karadzic's surrender being held?	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Is Karadzic's surrender being negotiated?' – The daily's source close to the international community says that intensified talks on surrender of Radovan Karadzic were taking place for several days now. According to the source the Del Ponte's statement on Karadzic's soon transfer to The Hague was based on this information and therefore had credibility.

Police reforms

Police	BHTV – "Reforms of police forces in BiH will reform in	be finished till the end of this year" said BiH	Adnan Terzic, Chairman of the BiH Council of Ministers. He didn't want to deny or to confirm would the entities' MoIs be abolished. Terzic and High Representative Paddy Ashdown will announce on Friday forming of a commission for police reform. Commission will have 12 members including 3 international and 9 domestic experts.
	"Commission will have a task to make stronger forces at the state level ensuring that the war crime indictees could be caught in a more effective way. Forming of such the police is one of EU conditions for liberalising visa regime for BH citizens", -said Paddy Ashdown.
	The inaugural meeting of the police reform commission is to take place at the end of July.

Police	Wilfred Martens, and Deputy Head of EC reforms	delegation to BiH, Renzo Daviddi , which was dedicated to the issue of reforms to Police structures in BiH, FBiH PM Hadzipasic stated that BiH needed a highly professional and well trained Police that will serve citizens, not political parties. Chairman Martens noted three phases in reconstruction of Police, first the analysis of the current situation, followed by reaching of an agreement on vision about organization of Police forces, and finally the implementation of solutions on the ground.

NN op-ed on	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Police is police	threatening us' by Dragan Jerinic — T he author says that the RS MoI has threatened the journalists to be careful "about what they write about the work, I beg your pardon, lack of work of this institution, or otherwise, they will be facing "measures and actions" that this institution intends to undertake". The RS MoI allegedly noticed that certain media and journalists are endangering this institution and that such activities especially increased after the RS police stepped up its measures and actions and the good results achieved in preventing and discovering criminal activities, including its activities to arrest war crime suspects.
	The columnist claims that the report submitted by the RS Police Director some two months ago spoke best about the work of the police – increased crime rates, a small number of successfully resolved criminal acts Instead of addressing threats to journalists, the MoI should answer the question of what has been done by it to resolve assassinations, arrest bank robbers, break criminal groups, resolve car thefts.
	Jerinic concludes the article by saying the following: "And finally, has not the HiRep sanctioned their lack of work by removing Interior Minister Djeric and high ranking officials of the RS MoI. Don't the sanctions prove that the RS MoI is led by politicians installed there to hush up crime? All citizens of the RS are aware of this, just like journalists and representatives of the international community. All of them are aware of this with the exception of Kevin Carty, the Head of the EUPM".

Political developments
DL: SBiH and	Dnevni List, pg 8 'Party for BiH and SDA SDA cut deal	together in Mostar after all', by N. Bise for Mostar	 According to DL's knowledge, the SBiH and SDA have cut a (local) deal in Mostar, following a deal that was cut between the SDA Vice President, Bakir Izetbegovic, and President of SBiH, Safet Halilovic .
	Apparently, the aim is to have as many pro-Bosnian councillors in the future composition of the City Council of Mostar.
	The agreement that the two parties reached means that SDA will register its election list for the city area South, and the SBiH will not, whilst in the same time, the SBiH will register its list for city area Southwest, and the SDA will not. On top of this, DL carries a member of SDA Presidency, Zijad Hadziomerovic , as confirming that Suad Hasandedic will be topping the SDA's list in local elections for Mostar. DL also notes that the HDZ's topper will be Goran Bilic , whilst the current Deputy Mayor, Ljubo Beslic , is placed only 6^{th} on the HDZ's list.

Economic/social issues

FBiH HoR on	Dnevni List pg 4 'Officers of former flats of	Yugoslav Army (JNA) to lose flats', former JNA	mentioned on cover, by E. Mackic and officers	Vecernji List pg 2 '1500 flats of former JNA officers remain to FBiH' by f — The House of Representatives of the Federation of BiH Parliament adopted yesterday a proposal of the law on changes and amendments to the Law on sale of flats with a tenancy right. The purpose of the proposed changes and amendments is to keep 1500 flats in the FBiH so that they would not be repossessed by former JNA officers.
	Sarajevo dailies also reported on the issues.

World Bank's	Dnevni List, pg 10 'Status of Bosnia and Reinermann	Herzegovina in World bank changes as of on BiH	today', by Dirk Reinermann – Carries an status in WB	article signed by the Director of World Bank's Office in BiH, Dirk Reinermann , in which he highlights the importance of July 1, the day when BiH is getting promoted to a new ranking, because BiH's status within the WB changes from a post-conflict into a transition country. Explaining the difference between the two statuses, Reinermann writes: "It, in essence, means that the implementation of key reforms has to speed up, so BiH catches other transitional countries in the region. In other words, the future support of the World Bank will be strictly measured by results of authorities achieved in starting and implementation of agreed reforms. In comparison to other transitional countries, BiH had lost almost a decade because of the war and post-war period. It is high time to make the time up".
	Oslobodjenje pg 9'BiH is not post-conflict country any more' also carried the article.

	auditing standards. Vrankic notes that there has to be a political consensus when setting up single economic space, after

Consortium	Jutarnji List , pg 11 'Consortium of Bank	Claims that the consortium of Croatian collapsing?	companies, which is interested in purchasing the 'Hercegovacka bank' is starting to fall apart. Apparently, the 'Atlantic Grupa', owned by the Tedeschi family, has already left the consortium, whilst unofficial information say that other companies too are thinking about withdrawing from the project. JL goes on to say that the business people involved are withdrawing because they get a feeling that the story is becoming more and more political, whilst the main parameter, the profitability, is getting lost. On top of that, some members of the consortium fear that Ivica Todoric , one of members of the consortium, is becoming too dominant within the project.
