NTV Hayat – On 22nd and 23rd of February, meeting between representatives of 5 leading BiH parties on constitutional changes in BiH, appointed by member of BiH Presidency Dragan Covic, will be held. HDZ, SDA, SDS, Stranka za BiH and PDP confirmed their attendance. Covic said “The aim of the meeting is to recognize all problems present in functioning of BiH authority. This time we are only going to talk about the state level, for several reasons, and what is of extreme importance is that all representatives are going to propose concrete materials and suggestions on what they see as problem in BiH authority.” PDP informed that it was not going to participate in talks if their aim was to discuss on constitution, in sense of abolishment of the RS. SDS believes that it should be started with the FBiH first. SDS representative Momcilo Novakovic said “First of all I think that it should be better to discuss on BiH Council of Ministers and on BiH authority in general. Of course, when discussing on such issues we have different opinion. My opinion is that Cantons should be abolished, since I think that administration would be reduced in such way and thus way we would contribute BiH the most.” Some believe that HDZ wants to turn the whole BiH into Cantons, in which Cantons would have legislative authorities. On the other hand, SDA and Stranka za BiH have similar proposals on how to improve the functionality of BiH, transfer the authorities at state level, and strengthen position of municipalities and to divide the state in regions only for economic purposes. Stranka za BiH representative Safet Halilovic said “Most of BiH political parties in FBiH share the same solutions; but RS political parties have wrong ideas on entity, they see entity as the one having state attributes, which entity is not.” Member of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic said that the greatest change would be to elect BiH President instead of BiH Presidency. FTV carries PDP release.

Covic: constitutional changes will not be discussed in Neum	Nezavisne novine pg 5 'Talks on crisis of the authority at BiH level in Neum' by A. Sisic – BiH Presidency member Dragan Covic denied talks on constitutional changes would be held in Neum February 22 and 23. 'As the initiator of the meeting in Neum, I can confirm we will discuss problems we are facing at the state level. We have agreed this should be the only item of the agenda', Covic has stated.

Dnevni List, pg 2 'All solution in Stolac should be implemented in peaceful and dignified way', by NINA – Senior Deputy High Representative, Werner Wnendt, visited Stolac on Wednesday where he met the Head of Municipality, Stjepan Boskovic, to talk about the topical issues. Boskovic also noted that the rule of law must be upheld, however he also noted that failures in cases where law was not observed in decision-making processes must be looked into.

FTV – "Local authorities have to decide on this, it is not the international community's decision. But, as I said, that shouldn't be used as an excuse for delays," said Wnendt. Reporter reminded that the Peace Implementation Council called on BiH authorities at the beginning of February to support rule of law. Wnendt underlined that this is the pre-condition for all further happening in this country, including European integrations. Still, during his visit to Stolac, the SDHR didn't show any worries in relation to this, commented reporter.

Zivak – Oslobodjenje learns that apart from the Law on rights and duties of MPs and delegates in the BiH Parliamentary Assembly, the Administrative Commission of the BiH House of Representatives also drafted another law which would refer on the BiH Presidency members. SNSD representative and member of the aforementioned Commission Nikola Spiric says that incomes of MPs and delegates should be legally regulated, but should be in accordance with the economic situation in BiH. Another member of this Commission Momcilo Novakovic (SDS) agrees that the incomes should be legally regulated, adding he would like to know the amount of salaries of the OHR employees. Ivo Miro Jovic (HDZ), who is also a member of the Commission believes that there is nothing disputable in the fact that his salary is 5 times bigger from the average salary in the Federation of BiH since in the Parliament he stands for better living conditions of BiH citizens.

Danas says that animosities among the HDZ members came to the fore, many of them being not happy with the party leadership. Covic allegedly also stated that Principal Deputy High Representative, Donald Hays , would show a proposal of constitutional changes in BiH in two months time, and wondered how it was possible that he (Hays) suddenly became a legal expert.

SD also carries Secretary of the HDZ Sarajevo Vencel Lasic as saying: 'Sarajevo should be organized as soon as possible as it was done with Mostar. This would mean passing of a new Election Law on the ground of which each people would be able to elect its representatives in the City Council. It is not logical that Councilors from the Municipal Council are also City Councilors and such is the current situation.'
