GS says crimes
mujahedeens committed in BiH will go unpunished

Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'They came, murdered and went' – In regard to ICTY verdicts pronounced against two former senior BiH Army commanders, Amir Kubura and Enver Hadzihasanovic (sentenced to 2,5 and 5 years respectively), daily raises the issue of whether the crimes mujahedeens, who were under command of Hadzihasanovic, committed in BiH would ever be punished, adding that judging by the verdict, those crimes against Serbs and Croats would go unpunished. Darko Trifunovic, MA holder in international law, reminds mujahedeens came to BiH before spring 1992, noting that "if HR Christian Schwarz Schilling says there was nothing disputable in arrival of mujahedeens in BiH, what can be expect then from anybody else." Slobodna Dalmacija, front pg splash and pgs 10-11 'They got 7,5 years for murder of 4000 Croats', by Zvonimir Cilic, Dnevni List, pg 3 'Hadzihasanovic and Kubura awarded for killing and persecution', by Ivica Glibusic, Vecernji List, pg 4 'He recommended medal for mujahiddin via Alija', by Zoran Kresic, Ana Drmac, Oslobodjenje pg 6 'Both Bosniaks and Croats disappointed by the verdict' not signed – also report on discontent over verdicts against the two.

Barac, Dukic, Zurovac: sentences to Hadzihasanovic and Kubura are too mild; Svrakic: the two defended their country, shouldn't have been sentenced at all	Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'Insult for Serb and Croat victims' by S.Karic – The article carries several reactions on ICTY verdict against Enver Hadzihasanovic and Amir Kubura (President of the Association of families of missing and killed persons from Central Bosnia region, Fabijan Barac, Branislav Dukic, President of the SPONA and Dusan Zurovac, President of East Sarajevo seated Association investigating crimes against Serbs) expressing disappointment over verdicts saying the verdicts are too mild. Glas Srpske pg 5 'Nobody trusts court' – also carries Barac's statement, as well as statement of Emin Svrakic, President of the Association of "Green Berets", who says that verdicts are ridiculous, since the two were defending their own country, i.e. they should not be sentenced at all.

NN op-ed: culprits for mild sentences against F BiH Army officers are ICTY Prosecution and B. Luka and Mostar judicial bodies; DL criticizes mild sentences to fmr BiH Army commanders passed by ICTY	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Slap for justice' by Dragan Risojevic – With regard to ICTY verdicts pronounced against Enver Hadzahasanovic and Amir Kubura, the author concludes ICTY concluded there was no crimes organised in the territory under control of Alija Izetbegovic. As main culprit for the fact that no responsibility of R BiH Army for crimes has been determined, the author refers to ICTY Chief Prosecutor's Office (that has devoted all its capacities to the crimes committed against Bosniaks), but also against judicial bodies in Banja Luka and Mostar, that have not engaged in transferring evidence to the ICTY in the past, but instead devoted to hiding of "their own" crime. Dnevni List, pg 2 'Crime without punishment', by Ivica Glibusic – the author slams the verdicts saying the sentences are showing the ICTY is not judging evidences, it is rather passing political verdicts the aim of which is to bend the real into false truth that would serve the international powers that be. In the other part of the op-ed, the author complains that war crimes against Bosniaks are much more widely covered by public media than crimes committed against the Croats.

NN op-ed supportive of RS Govt. announcements regarding fight against organised crime / appeal to citizens to aid in this	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Each side wins' by Goran Petrovic – In regard to the latest reports published in NN regarding investigation being launched against senior officials of SDS and RS MoI on aiding war crime suspects, the author expresses surprise this information was not carried in Serbian media, noting as if "brothers in arms, smuggling and false patriotism" on the other side of Drina river have pledged to silence and preservation of business secrets. He is supportive of announcements the new RS Government has given regarding fight against crime, appealing to citizens of RS and Serbia to unite in the fight against crime.
Weekly from Split spotted fugitive Ante Jelavic in a Split cafe	Feral Tribune, pgs 11-12 'Fugitive in café', mentioned on front 'Feral's reporters photographed Ante Jelavic in Split', by Vladimir Matijanic – reporters of the Split-based weekly unexpectedly came across a former member of BiH Presidency and HDZ BiH President, Ante Jelavic, at a café 'Corazon Espinada' in Split. Jelavic has been found guilty by the BiH Court and sentenced to 10 years of prison for embezzlement of money in the 'Hercegovacka bank' case. He fled BiH just prior to the sentencing. Jutarnji List, pg 2, mentioned on front 'Jelavic sought after in Bosnia, Feral 'caught' him in Split', by Ivica Profaca – retells Feral's article.

RS President says Mirko Sarovic should defend himself while free	Glas Srpske pg 2 inset 'Sarovic' – During his visit to Bijeljina Thursday, Dragan Cavic, RS President, stated that beyond all laws and regulations, Mirko Sarovic, former SDS President, is in prison instead of defending himself while free. (Sarovic is suspected for illegal activities related to operations of Privredna Bank East Sarajevo.) He referred to the cases of Dragan Covic, Mato Tadic, Hasan Cengic, saying Sarovic should also be allowed to defend himself while free.

Milosevic death/update

Milosevic to be buried on Saturday in Pozarevac

RHB, PINK, Hayat, FTV, RTRS, Oslobođenje cover splash and pgs 4-5 'Milosevic's body displayed in Museum of Revolution on force' by Branislav Boskov— daily carries two full pages dedicated to Milosevic's funeral. Dnevni Avaz pg 20 'Ultimate provocation of Milosevic's adversaries' not signed, EuroBlic cover pf splash, pgs 4-5 'Nobody wanted a dead man' by Ivana Cvetkovic — The Pozarevac Municipal Council approved on Thursday that the funeral service of former Serbian President Slobodan Milosevic would take place on Saturday in the courtyard of his family home in the very centre of the city. Municipal Council also decided that Saturday would be proclaimed an official day of mourning in the municipality. The coffin of Slobodan Milosevic has been transferred from the private morgue within the 'Sv.Sava' hospital to the Museum of Revolution in Belgrade. Less than 1,000 people gathered in front of the museum, to pay their last respects to Milosevic. Serbian media reported that, so far, only Byelorussian President Alexander Lukashenko announced that he would attend the funeral in Pozarevac. It was also announced that Milosevic's widow Mirjana Markovic would arrive in Belgrade on Friday. Vecernji List pg 12 'Police intervened because of Milosevic's coffin' by Z. Jurilj, Slobodna Dalmacija pgs 6 and 7 'Slobo's coffin met with stampede in Dedinje' by T. Klauski carry that police had to intervene because of crowding of Milosevic's supporters at the entrance of the museum where Milosevic's body was exhibited.

International press notes fewer people than expected paid tribute to Milosevic in Belgrade	Guardian, BBC, Financial Times, The Independent, Times, NYT, IHT and Wall Street Journal – all reported on preparations for Slobodan Milosevic's funeral. While Guardian, BBC, FT mainly focus on the relatively small number of people that gathered to pay tribute to Milosevic in Belgrade, The Independent carries a reaction of West-leaning Civil Alliance Party that was madden at authorities by the fact that Milosevic's body will be displayed in Belgrade. The Times notes 'he [Milosevic] will be buried as a martyr, in grand style, and his grave will become a place of Serbian nationalist pilgrimage, while the victims of the four wars he launched still lie, in their thousands, in unmarked graves.'
ICTY stripped confidentiality mark from documents on his illness and medical treatment	BHT1– The ICTY decided to have confidentiality mark stripped of several documents on Slobodan Milosevic's illness and medical treatment due to investigation, which has been conducted on his death. Media in Belgrade have been speculating a lot lately on reasons why Russia is interested in Milosevic's case as well as in supporting his family. Belgrade analysts agree that after having Milosevic removed from the position, relation between Serbia and Russia changed a lot.

BiH lawsuit vs. SiCG

SiCG team before ICJ claims that current regime can't be blamed because of Milosevic; among SCG witnesses BiH Ombudsman	BHT1, FTV, RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 6 'No genocide was proved' by Agencies, Glas Srpske pg 3 'Suit without a cover', Oslobodjenje cover splash, pg 7 'SCG claims that RAM did not exist' by Nagorka Idrizovicby Nagorka Idrizovic– The main hearing in the BiH's lawsuit against SCG before the International Court of Justice (ICJ) has been continued on Thursday. SCG team has ended its seven-day presentation. In its presentation, SCG team spoke about period of Slobodan Milosevic's reign. The team pointed out that current SCG authorities should not be punished for acts, which took place during Milosevic's regime. SCG team claims that it has proved that genocide was not committed in BiH and that difference between ethnical cleansing and genocide has to be made. While analyzing evidences BiH team had presented, SCG legal representative Ian Brownly called BiH's presentation incoherent and unclear. Hayat– SCG announced that would present testimonies of eight witnesses: former high-ranked SCG official Zoran Lilic, Vladimir Lukic, BiH Ombudsman Vitomir Popovic, General Michael Rose, court expert Jean Paul Sadron, Dragoljub Micunovic, former SCG Minister of Interior Dusan Mihajlovic and Vladimir Milicevic.

SDA denied speculations that their deputies will not support initiative for removal of FBiH President Lozancic; SDA's Tihic: I will not support the initiative if there are no strong reasons for removal

Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Initiative on removal of Lozancic to be discussed in extraordinary session' by Ad.H. – SDA Caucus President in FBiH House of Representatives Semsudin Mehmedovic denied speculations that SDA deputies will not support initiative for removal of FBiH President Niko Lozancic, adding that it is up to each deputy to decide. Mehmedovic said that there are reasonable reasons for President's removal, since he is responsible for crisis that hit FBiH. Mehmedovic noted that there could be one extraordinary session for discussion of the issue, in which Lozancic would also present his arguments on his work. Oslobodjenje pg 10 'SDA neither against nor in favour of Niko Lozancic' by S.Sehercehajic – Article carries that SDA leader Sulejman Tihic stated for daily that he does not support initiative for removal of FBiH President Niko Lozancic if there are not strong and necessary reasons for this. Inset 'Disobedient deputies' – HDZ spokesperson Miso Relota said this party supports Lozancic, adding that some HDZ deputies are being disobedient by breaching the Party Statute and not accepting decisions of party leaders.

DA op-ed: Initiative for removal of FBiH President is cheap political game	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Petitions and signatures for pre-elections points' op-ed by Admir Malagic – Commenting initiative for removal of FBiH President Niko Lozancic, editorial reads that it may be understood seriously if only elections are not just couple months away, stressing that these cheap political games would only further block work of FBiH institutions.

SB: Cavic uses all means to defeat Dodik, even showing him as paranoid politician

Slobodna Bosna pgs 14-15 'In Last days RS President Cavic with his police-intelligence machinery intimidates Dodik with threats that he would be liquidated' by S.S.— Weekly reads that RS President Dragan Cavic is preparing election campaign, intended for destruction of new RS Prime Minister Milorad Dodik.

Allegedly, Cavic hired intelligence officials 'once close to Radovan Karadzic' which along with 'his media' should be spreading 'false information'. According to weekly, they recruited SIPA Director Sredoje Novic, through whom they informed Dodik that 'berets from Serbia' are planning to murder him. As weekly reads, Dodik 'fell' for this and increased number of security, which was exactly Cavic's intention – to present Dodik as paranoid, ill and scary politician. Inset 'Cavic hired former Interior Minister Darko Matijasevic in his Cabinet'- commenting on fact that Cavic employed Darko Matijasevic, former RS Interior Minister as Advisor, weekly ironically comments that this is a man whom Cavic recently accused for wiretapping him, so he probably realized that it is better for Matijasevic "to spy for him than on him".

CRA Director Huseinovic accuses BiH Minister Dokic for creating political pressure	Dani pgs 44-45 'Dokic's fight for tens of million Euro' by Vildana Selimbegovic – Commenting recent SIPA raids on Communication Regulatory Agency [CRA], in an interview for Dani, CRA Director Kemal Huseinovic accuses BiH Minister of Transport and Communications Branko Dokic [PDP] for creating political pressure on issue of permissions for third mobile operator.

<h2>Constitutional changes</h2>

Constitutional talks to continue on Saturday; HDZ says it would not sign anything that strengthens entities	BHT1– According to announcements, talks on constitutional changes should continue on Saturday and it is expected that issue of BiH President and Vice-Presidents election would be solved until then. The US Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney made it clear – the meeting between BiH political leaders will last as long as it takes for the first phase to be ended. SDA believes that the Resolution presents support and that progress has been achieved so far. SNSD states that no one has the right to keep someone as hostage, not even those who call on suspending the talks. Party for BiH also disagrees with reached solutions; it says that they disunite the state. “We are not going to support such constitutional changes”, said Party for BiH representative Beriz Belkic. HDZ announced that it would not sign constitutional changes, stating that the proposed changes strengthened entities instead of state. Croat Caucus in BiH Parliaments called on HDZ officials to leave the talks since they damage Croats in BiH. “I can only say that nothing has been signed so far, I understand fears...but we are not going to sign something which would make position of Croats in BiH more complex”, said HDZ Spokesperson Miso Relota. Oslobodjenje pg 3 ‘American Senators did not scare HDZ’ by Az.Kalamujic – carries Relota’s statement, Hayat- carried announcement of continuation of talks. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 ‘Agreement on election manner of BH Presidency’ by M.C., Dnevni List, pg 7 ‘Continuation of constitutional changes scheduled for tomorrow’, not signed – SDA’ Almir Zukic, Thursday announced that agreement on election of BH Presidency members should be reached on Saturday when talks on constitutional changes should resume. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 ‘Agreement on election manner of BH Presidency’ by M.C., Vecernje Novosti pg 5 ‘Constitution asap’, Glas Srpske pg 2 ‘Constitution’, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 ‘Relota: Signature depends of depends of right of Croats to elect Presidency member’ – SDS President Dragan Cavic stated that in his opinion talks should continue as soon as possible. He also stated that talks might continue on Saturday depending on the obligations of participants.

VL: US Ambassador McElhaney wants to wrap up 1st phase of constitutional talks this weekend	Vecernji List, pg 2 'Order by USA: You must reach agreement', by Zoran Kresic – According to VL, the US administration is resolute to complete the first phase of constitutional changes talks during the forthcoming weekend. Namely, the US Ambassador to BiH, Douglas McElhaney, has sent leaders of 7 political parties (HNZ, HDZ, SDA, SDP, SNSD, PDP and SDS) an invitation that talks should start tomorrow (Saturday) at 1000 hrs, and the invitation allegedly says that they (party leaders), "stay for as long as necessary to complete the negotiations". In light of this, VL does not rule out possible pressures against party leaders. Inset 'Silajdzic's SBIH excluded' says the SBIH has not received the invitation. In also reports that it looks likely that the HNZ leader, Milenko Brkic, will reject the proposed constitutional changes if the entity vote in BiH Parliament remains in place.
HSS President Tadic against proposed constitutional changes	Slobodna Dalmacija, pgs 10-11, mentioned on front 'Constitution as rope around neck', by Miroslav Landeka – President of HSS (Croat Peasants Party), Marko Tadic, says the situation in which representatives of the IC and Bosniak and Serb parties are holding talks on constitutional changes without Croat representatives sends a strong message to the Croats that they are not perceived as an equal political partner any more i.e. that decision can be made without them. Regarding the proposed constitutional changes, Tadic notes they will deprive the Croats of way to defend their national interests.

SDA: Resolution is good guarantee for continuation of talks; HNZ supports const. changes but not at any cost; S BiH party will not support agreement made without Croats	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'American Senators did not scare HDZ' by Az.Kalamujic – Commenting on UN Congress' Resolution on constitutional changes, which reads US supports Euro-Atlantic aspirations of BiH, SDA leader Sulejman Tihic expresses conviction Resolution is a good guarantee that talks would continue. Tihic claims that resolution can be differently interpreted, saying it supports parties in search for consensus. SDS Vice President Mladen Bosic claims that Resolution is an act that upholds current US policy toward BiH. Leader of HNZ Milenko Brkic doesn't consider the Resolution as the law, stressing that he supports constitutional changes, but not if they are to be made at any cost. SBiH official Safet Halilovic stated that Resolution confirms stances of their party, since it speaks about single BiH. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'SBiH is against agreement that damages Croats' by Husein Orahovac – Halilovic said that his party would not support "an attempt to finish the process of constitutional changes by establishing some kind of Serb-Bosniak agreement." Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'No functional state with ethnic and entity voting' by E.Sarac – SBiH founder Haris Silajdzic said that Resolution supports consolidation of state structure and erase of entity and political division from Dayton Peace Agreement.
DL: Russia undermines constitutional changes in BiH via Croatian PM Sanader	Dnevni List, pg 6 'Changes to BiH Constitution conditioned with constitutional status of Serbs in Croatia', by M. Batarello – DL learns from sources close to 'ruling institutions' in Croatia that the Russian diplomacy has been in past months pressuring the Croatian PM, Ivo Sanader, with an aim to undermine constitutional negotiations in BiH in order to save the RS and maintain its influence in the Balkans. Namely, Russia has threatened PM Sanader it would ask from the Contact Group that the Serbs in Croatia be given the status of a constitutional people, unless Sanader undermines the constitutional negotiations in BiH via people loyal to him within the HDZ. DL also comments that a 'pro-Serb mood' in Russia is growing, which is evident from latest resolution of the Russian Duma that condemned the work of the ICTY.

RS Budget for 2006 in amount of KM1, 098 billion budget foresees increase of salaries for budget users	RTRS, Nezavisne Novine pg 2 'Dodik: Budget will be adopted' by V.Popovic, Glas Srpske pg 2 'Bag full of amendments' by Z.Markovic – RS National Assembly discussed RS budget proposal for 2006. Budget in the amount of KM 1,098 billion is for 16% higher than in 2005 and the biggest income is expected from indirect taxes. RS Finance Minister Aleksandar Dzombic announced increase of salaries for budget users. He added that the increases would go towards RS Ministry of Interior, RS Education Ministry, elementary education, high school education, culture institutions, RS secretariat for sport and youth, court police, RS public attorney and other users. Chair of RS Trade Union Ranka Misic stated that the Unions are pleased with proposed budget. Rade Rakulj from RS Pensioners Association didn't have many objections as well since budget provides increase of resources for Pension Disability and Invalid Fund. RS NA deputies adopted a report on audit of consolidated reports of budget and budget users for 2004. RS Chief auditor Bosko Ceko stated that members of international community support the independence of RS audit service. RTRS late news– RS National Assembly deputies still haven't adopted 2006 budget proposal. Reporter comments that RS Prime minister Milorad Dodik and RS Ministers are discussing amendments submitted by RS NA deputies so voting on the budget could take place on Thursday night.

VL: SIPA Director Novic wants that years in service in fmr Yugoslav intelligence be one of criteria for awarding of police ranks

Vecernji List, front pg splash and pg 3 'Security system is being taken over by UDBA people', by Dejan Jazvic – VL unofficially learns that the Director of SIPA, Sredoje Novic, has made the issue of awarding of ranks to police officials at state and entity level even more complicated when he recently recommended that years of service in UDBA (former infamous Yugoslav security agency) be acknowledged i.e. taken into consideration during the process of awarding of ranks. Allegedly, Novic made the proposal at a recent meeting of principals of BiH police and other security agencies that was also attended by representatives of the IC. VL notes it is disgraceful that Novic's proposal will be taken into consideration, adding that he (Novic) spent many years in UDBA.

BiH Parliament's
Constitutionally-legal commission finished draft of Law on High Education

PINK– Representatives of constitution-legal commissions of both House of BiH Parliament stressed that law on high education is a priority for reform in this area. They announced conclusions of public discussions held on this issue in 8 University centres in BiH. Chair of constitutional-legal commission Mirsad Ceman stated that it was stressed that BiH needs a law on science-research work, law on student standard and law on student organisations. Member of the commission from BiH House of Representatives Beriz Belkic stated that the working group for making of text of law on high education has nearly completed its work. Belkic stressed that this law foresees establishment of 2 agencies at the state level – one to deal with development of high education and second to serve as state information centre. Belkic also stressed that according to law proposal financing of Universities would not be changed. Hayat– Belkic claims the Draft Law on High Education in BiH could enter the parliamentary procedure in a few-days time. Glas Srpske pg 2 'Law asap' by Z.D., Dnevni List pg 7 'Politics blocks high education reform' by D.P.Mandic– also reported.

Chairman of BiH Commission for Return Marinovic insists Croat and Bosniak unreconstructed houses in Derventa must stay	Vecernji List, pg 5 'Only Schilling can prevent destruction of houses', by Eldina Medunjanin – According to VL, municipal authorities of Derventa are planning to go ahead with the destruction of unreconstructed housing facilities owned by expelled Bosniaks and Croats despite the letter by the Chairman of BiH Commission for Return, Ivica Marinovic, who insisted that the decision be annulled. Marinovic told VL that he would not give up his position, therefore he will ask in writing from the Head of Municipality, Milorad Simic, to annul the decision, otherwise he (Marinovic) will ask for an intervention from the High Representative.
