Police Reform/Upcoming EC Delegation visit to BiH

Ashdown: Negotiations on police reform failed
due to RS

Oslobodjenje cover page, pgs 4-5 'Talks on police reform failed' Azhar Kalamujic, FENA –

The negotiations between the 11 political parties on police reform in BiH in line with the recommendations of the European Commission have failed because of the RS, said the High Representative, Paddy Ashdown, in Sarajevo late on Monday. "The negotiations failed because the RS delegates were unable to conform to the three principles laid out by the European Union. What that means is that the European Commission is very unlikely to say that the conditions for moving forward towards the negotiations on Stabilization and Association have been fulfilled", said Ashdown. He added that a great opportunity has been lost and that the citizens of this country would pay a heavy price for that, including the citizens in the RS. "The ball now lies in the court of the RSNA. The conditions will not change. It is up to them to decide whether they can conform to them or not", concluded the High Representative.

After interruption of talks, a few participants told Oslobodjenje that Ashdown and EC Head of the Delegation to BiH Michael Humphries had been very angry due to RS politicians behavior and particularly Dragan Cavic and Mladen Ivanic. Cavic and Ivanic requested for seven additional days to try to convince RS National Assembly to change its position on police organization in BiH. However, when they were offered to sign a joint statement obliging them to successfully lobby for acceptance of EU-proposed solutions by RSNA, they rejected to do so and the talks were interrupted.

Dnevni Avaz pg 2, mentioned on cover 'Negotiations on police reform failed' carried a very similar report on the issue.

Cubro – Daily reports that HR Ashdown last night discontinued police reform talks at "Konak". Dobrica Jonjic, HNI representative, confirmed talks failed because RS politicians could not accept police regions' maps, that would cross entity boundaries. He noted RS officials asked talks be postponed for seven days, during which they would get a mandate from RS NA to negotiate on this approach. Zlatko Lagumdzija stated: "The talks are still standing still, police reform failed and therefore it is illusionary to expect that EC would on Thursday recommend launch of talks with BiH." Although Bojan Zec Filipovic justified Adnan Terzic's departure from the meeting with other duties, other participants confirmed Terzic left talks in anger over impossibility to reach agreement. Nikola Spiric stated: "No agreement has been reached, but I believe that after RS NA votes on results achieved so far, space can be found to resume police reform talks."

On police reform, he reiterates if there is no agreement on this issue, BiH will not be able to move on the path towards EU. He notes: “Conditions are clearly set: state level, professionally structured regions and no political interference in police work. Agreement at Vlasic is very important, which now needs to be upheld at the same principles it was agreed, i.e. implemented before Parliaments.” He hopes SDS would recognize Vlasic agreement as the sole solution moving BiH ahead. He notes EC finds PBS Law currently before BiH Parliament as acceptable. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 Inset ‘Humphreys: First police reform, then a positive response of EU’, Glas srpske pg 2 ‘No postponement’ by N. Z. also carry a statement of Head of EC Delegation to BiH Michael Humphreys.

HDZ-organized discussion on constitutional changes in BiH ends in Mostar without concrete conclusions	RHB, BHT, Hayat, FTV, Oslobođenje pg 5 'BiH with three or more federal units', Dnevni Avaz pg 9 'BiH with two entities has no future', FENA – A starting point of Monday's discussion on the "Constitutional Organization of BiH" , which was held in Mostar in organization of the BiH Croatian Democratic Union (HDZ), is a decentralized BiH, composed of three authority levels: state, municipal and regional/central, and the central would be composed of three or more federal units, said Chairman of HDZ , Barisa Colak. HDZ has not defined as to how the federal units will be called: cantons, regions of entities. It has also not been defined if there would be exactly three units, but rather at least three. As Colak said, all parties with Croatian prefix are invited to the discussion, as well as representatives of political, cultural and scientific life of BiH. "The aim of this meeting is to hear views of other parties with Croatian prefix on constitutional organization of BiH so that we would incorporate a part of their views in the platform and finally come to a joint platform with the basic guideline of equality for all three constituent peoples in BiH and to a solution which would lead to stability of the state", Colak pointed out. According to Colak, HDZ does not see BiH in future as the state with two entities. Colak earlier said that, when a complete HDZ platform for constitutional changes is drafted, it will be offered to the partners in power without whom, as he said, solution for BiH cannot be achieved. Oslobođenje pg 2 'To strengthen local self-governance', FENA – Although invited, the representatives of the New Croatian Initiative (NHI), the Croatian Peasant Party (HSS) and the Croatian Party of Right (HSP) Djapic – dr. It was also proposed, when it comes to the most important offices, that there should be one president, not a rotating presidency. Also, when it comes to distribution of the most important offices, in case a Croat is the President (of BiH), the Speaker of the BiH Parliament and BiH Prime Minister should be a Serb and a Bosniak in order to have proper national balance. Vecernji List, pg 2, mentioned on front 'Croat NO to unitarianism and centralism', by Miso Relota – Notes that participants of the meeting agreed that the Dayton Peace Accord ended the war, however the unjust building of peace deprived the Croats of their constituent status, therefore the future constitutional arrangements should provide equality to the Croats. Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 12, mentioned on front 'Discussion without participants', by and back pg 'Croat parties must bring closer their positions', Z. Zekic – Notes that representatives of most important Croat opposition parties, NHI, HSS and HSP (Djapic-Jurisic) did not attend the meeting.

SD goes on to say that it is no secret that HR Ashdown and his people from the OHR are constantly pressuring party leaders and members of the BiH Council of Ministers, asking them to support Novic's candidacy. In that context, SD says it is Mladen Ivanic who is Ashdown's "man for obstructions", and the daily concludes that with appointment of Novic, British secret services would have at their disposal all the information the Serbs have, and on top of this, SD claims Novic has already transferred to Belgrade many documents that speak about crimes committed against non-Serbs in BiH.

DL: Tihic to step down as SDA president?	Dnevni List , pg 2 'Izetbegovic's testament', by Nermin Bise – The author analyses the situation within the SDA prior to the forthcoming SDA congress, saying that the current SDA president, Sulejman Tihic , became the president because it was the last wish of the late Alija Izetbegovic . The author also notes that it would appear, as the time goes on, that Tihic's faction is weakening, whilst another faction, which includes Adnan Terzic , Bakir Izetbegovic , Ahmet Hadzipasic , Hasan Cengic and Elmir Jahic is currently stronger than Tihic's camp, which could result in Tihic not getting re-elected.
