Ashdown also asked Djerić how come that the boxes had not been discovered before now, what the boxes contained and why the boxes had not been handed over to the Srebrenica commission before. As of Wednesday, the documents will be looked after by the Hague tribunal's office in Banja Luka. "Nothing can ease the evil we reveal nor can this country have a future until it solves its past by arresting persons guilty for these crimes. I am worried as this key information came too late. I am worried due to the fact that, during the work of Srebrenica Commission, RS Interior Ministry was not amongst those that fully cooperated with this Commission" –said Paddy Ashdown adding: "At the second stage of Commission's work all information have to be revealed and I will impose measures to those obstructing the work of the Commission". RTRS – Spokesman for the RS MoI Zoran Glusac could not confirm this information, referring to the commission for Srebrenica, in which, according to him, members of the MUP are also included.

Kalinic on Karadzic, Srebrenica crimes against Bosniaks and Srebrenica Commission	Dnevni Avaz cover page 'Kalinic message to Karadzic to surrender', pg 5 'Karadzic, surrender or RS will be exposed to the harshest sanctions and isolation!' by Edina Sarac – In an interview to DA, SDS President and Speaker of the RS National Assembly, Dragan Kalinic says: "I have to say that there is a feeling of progress in RS when it comes to the cooperation with ICTY. There is a readiness of the institutions to meet that obligation in every aspect and therefore I believe that rejection from Istanbul would cause negative consequences." Kalinic adds that the last time he saw Radovan Karadzic was in "1996 or 97", when he was still "available to all those who wanted to see him." Asked what message he has to Karadzic, Kalinic says: "Nothing to add to the things presented to RS leadership in the past few months by the representatives of the US administration and representatives of the EU: without his voluntary surrender or failure to arrest him, RS and SDS will be exposed to the most difficult sanctions and situation ever." On Srebrenica Commission, Kalinic says: "I think that the Commission did what the decision of the Human Rights Chamber [asked them to do] and that everybody – both those who knew about it and those that did not – will have to face the truth that the worst crimes were committed against Srebrenica Bosnians for which those responsible must be held accountable. I read different comments these days in regard to the work of the Commission and I have to say that they are very worrying because there were partial and tendentious. There is no true reconciliation and justice until everybody in this country faces crimes committed in all sides."

Labus, – RS Police Head Radomir Njegus confirmed to journalists in Banja Luka that the Interpol of BiH had activated 400 arrest warrants against Serbs from Croatia, which the Croatian authority had issued for alleged war crimes in that country. Njegus said that in line with that, the RS police arrested one person in Banja Luka yesterday, who was then transferred to the Court of BiH, as he is a citizen of BiH. Asked why is the RS police acting upon Interpol arrest warrants, considering the fact that a RS government conclusion of 2001 is still in force which states that the RS Police would not act in accordance with arrest warrants of the Croatian Interpol, Njegus said that "the time had come for that matter to be activated." Zoran Glusac, the RS Interior Ministry Spokesperson, however later denied that police arrested anyone from the list. He said Njegus has presented the information on alleged arrest by a mistake. 'The statement of the Police Chief should have been in relation to the fact that RS Ministry of Interior had information that a number of persons from the warrant lists were residing on the territory of RS', Glusac stated.

VL: HR Ashdown to decrease RS Police competence	Vecernji List, pg 2 'Ashdown abolishes Republika Srpska Police', mentioned on cover by Ivica Pjanic – Noting that the High Representative for BiH, Paddy Ashdown, has already announced sanctions in case Radovan Karadzic is not behind the bars by June 28 and in case BiH is not admitted to the Partnership for Peace programme, VL claims to have exclusive information as to what the sanctions against the RS might be. VL's source close to "senior western diplomatic circles" explains that HR Ashdown has already received a general consent from leading countries of the Steering Board of Peace Implementation Council for the measures he plans to undertake. Apparently, the target is the Republika Srpska Ministry of Interior, which is labelled as the institution most responsible for failure to arrest war criminals. VL learns that a negative outcome of the NATO Istanbul Summit will lead to pressures aimed at decreasing of competence of the RS MoI and creation of some sort of Police at State level. "We must draw a parallel with sanctions that followed the 'Orao' affair. Back then, the most responsible ones were senior officials of the Defence Ministry and RS Army, and everything resulted in, apart from removals of individuals, in big defence reforms in whole of BiH. Now, it is about Police", says VL's source.

Meeting of solving issue of internal debts	BHTV1, FTV, Oslobođenje pg 5 'Money will be given to the most vulnerable', mentioned on cover' by A. Omeragic, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Hays: Government's proposal is the only option for internal debt' by E.D., Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Agreement on pay out of BAM 3 billion of debt to citizens', Slobodna Dalmacija, pg 10 'Pensioners in most favourable situation', by D. Pasic, Dnevni List, pg 5 'Entity Governments acknowledge only 1,3 billion KMs of internal debts', by Renata Radic – following a meeting between representatives of FBiH Government and Parliament and representatives of international finance agencies, which discussed the issue of internal debt, Principal Deputy High Representative, Donald Hays, stated that "solution to the internal debts is acknowledging and understanding how rewarding it is going to be if handled in proper way. The Government has the responsibility to fulfill its obligation within its capabilities. They cannot print enough money and solve the problem by doing that, they cannot raise tax rates and get the money like that, and they do not have big investors that are ready to bring such big amounts of money into the country, and create incomes that way". According to DL, the strategy of the RS and FBiH Governments acknowledges only 1,2 billion KMs of internal debt, although the nominal value is 4,7 billion. Apparently the amount of 3,5 billion will be written off, whilst the rest will be paid in either cash or bonds. FBiH Prime Minister, Ahmet Hadzipasic, justifies the writing off with lack of money. "The law that we presented here for sure requires improvements in the parliamentary procedure and I am sure we will reach better solutions, but what we did was the maximum that the FBiH Government can do economically", said PH Hadzipasic.

World Bank approves credit lines to BiH; BiH delegation meets WB	RHB, BHTV1, RTRS, Blic, pg. RS3 'Another 97 million dollars for reforms' by J. The projects mostly rely on findings and recommendations of the first middle-term development strategy of BiH, i.e. on the Strategy on reducing poverty. WB on BiH status	Dnevni List pg 11 'BiH ceases to be post-conflict country as of July 1' by Pincom.biz – Head of the World Bank (WB) in BiH Dirk Reinermann stated for the last issue of 'Banka' magazine that the WB will stop treating BiH as a post-conflict country as of July 1. Reinermann explained that this means that the number of projects financed by the World Bank will be considerably reduced and conditioned by certain reforms.

Reaction of Paravac's Office on spending of money	Blic, pg. RS1 'There is no squandering of money' by J. D. mentioned on cover 'There is no squandering of money, yet 2,115 KM was spent on fountain-pens' – Upon an audit report on expenditures of the Office of Serb member of BiH Presidency, Head of the Office Simo Bozalo stated: 'This is not about an irresponsible spending of budgetary funds nor this is about squandering of money. Mistakes and omissions, which had been done and which had been pointed out during an audit, were of a procedural nature'. According to Bozalo, the issue raised regarding the vehicle of the Presidency member was brought without a reason. 'Is there any chief in the world that does not have such a class of a vehicle at disposal', Bozalo says and adds that 'state employees were implementing the procedure of purchasing of vehicles and other equipment and they had made omissions in purchase procedures'.
Audit at RS President's Service	Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Law on Procurement was not respected' – One of conclusions in the report of the RS Chief Audit Office regarding audit carried out at RS President Service is that procurement services during the course of 2003 were mainly performed in violation of the Law on Procurement. Namely, procurement was performed through direct bargain and settlement on the basis of approval issued by the RS Finance Ministry, although the total worth of the procurement service exceeded BAM 50 thousand.

BiH Parliament Commission for Budget and Finances to discuss audit reports	Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'Budget Commission will discuss all audit reports' – Martin Raguz, Chairperson of the BiH House of Representatives, yesterday proposed to Commission for Budget and Finances to take into consideration all seven audit reports, which have been handed to them by the Audit Office for BiH joint institutions. State auditors handed audit reports on BiH Presidency, BiH Statistics Agency, BiH State Border Service, BiH Institute for Standards, CRA and Service for BiH joint institutions. Nikola Spiric, Co-chairperson of the BiH House of Representatives, stated he would support the initiative that these reports are discussed at the next session of the BiH Parliament on Friday.
Op-ed on audit reports	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Get a thief!' by Natasa Krsman – The author is criticising the overspending of the BiH Presidency members. On this she says: "Sporadic excuses from BiH Presidency, following publication of the audit report, show that a collective head of state stepped back before public condemnation. However, the fact that comments were made on an individual basis from all three Cabinets show they do not feel much responsibility, as well as they are simply trying to save their skin. It should not be doubted that the ruling triplet would find excuse for itself and uncontrolled overspending."

CoM postpones deadline for 3rd GSM licence	BHTV 1 – The BiH Council of Ministers will prolong the deadline to issue a third GSM licence. The Communications Regulatory Agency asked CoM to postpone the deadline to 12 July, and Eronet company [one of two companies competing for the licence] said it would tolerate it under condition that this would not take more than one month. HT Mostar also did not object to this. Dnevni List, pg 5 ‘Draft platform for negotiations prepared’, by J. P. – DL reports that a Proposal of platform for negotiations with HT Zagreb, regarding the transfer of HT Zagreb’s share in Eronet onto HT Mostar, was completed yesterday in Sarajevo. According to DL’s information acquired from sources close to the FBiH Government, the Commission in charge of issues pertaining to the transfer of shares assessed the proposal of HT Zagreb as acceptable, legally feasible and economically justified. The Commission also assessed that, should the transfer go ahead, it would considerably increase the market value of HT Mostar, thus increasing the value of State capital in the company. As for the 3rd GSM licence, the Commission assessed that a possible deal would enable an easier issuance of the 3rd GSM licence to HT Mostar. For these and other reasons, the Commission recommends the start of negotiations (with HT Zagreb), stressing that a possibility of invoking of the right to pre-emption by co-owners of Eronet is groundless, because a transfer of shares does not represent a sales contract, therefore a right to pre-emption does not apply.

Robinson

Vecernji List, front pg 'HT thwarts sale of bank' and pg 16 'HT Zagreb endangers sale of Hercegovacka bank to Todoric', by Zoran Kresic – VL carries an interview with the Provisional Administrator for Hercegovacka bank, Toby Robinson, in which she explains the background of decision of Eronet not to give access to the Provisional Administrator of HB to Eronet's documentation. Ms. Robinson says that she asked the OHR to interpret the authorities of the Provisional Administrator. "According to the High Representative's decision, I am allowed access to all documentation related to the Hercegovacka bank, including in Eronet. OHR and I are observing all the laws in this country. The law in this country is clear, owners must be granted access to any documentation without delays", says Robinson adding: "Eronet's Steering Board is acting illegally and we wonder why. We are asking for documents in order to establish the value of share that Hercegovina osiguranje has in Eronet and to sell it. In order to complete the sale of Hercegovacka bank, I must complete the job related to Eronet stocks. HT Zagreb is trying to block the sale of the share because it wants to buy them very cheap, for free even". According to Ms. Robinson, the difference between HT Zagreb's offer and her evaluation regarding Hercegovina osiguranje share in Eronet is around 45 million KMs. In this context, Ms. Robinson says that recent events have slowed down the sale of Hercegovacka bank for about one month. Commenting on possible outcome of situation as to who gets the 3rd GSM licence in BiH, Ms. Robinson says: "Their (HT Zagreb) intentions are clear that the licence gets awarded to HT Mostar. In fact, all the problems regarding the Eronet documentation are just attempts that HT Mostar gets the licence". Ms. Robinson also notes that she has a statement of HT Zagreb, which renounced the right to pre-emption during the process of transfer of Eronet shares onto Municipality of Grude.

On FBiH Bankruptcy procedure	Oslobodjenje cover page, pgs 4-5 ‘Creditors to the courts, workers to the streets’ by Hajdar Arifagic – Oslobodjenje’s cover page story deals with the upcoming session of stakeholders of Modna konfekcija Sarajevo company. At that occasion, stakeholders are expected to make decision whether this company will file bankruptcy. Journalists writes that this case comes at the same time of coming into force of the new FBiH Bankruptcy Law, for which he believes it would facilitate these such as this.
Oslobodjenje on FBiH money frozen in HB	Oslobodjenje pg 3 ‘Contract on sale of the bank de-blocks 22 million KM’, mentioned on cover, by Az. Kalamujic – Oslobodjenje carries that the money held on the accounts of FBiH budgetary users in Hercegovacka bank, frozen in march 2002, will be de-blocked following the contract on purchase of the Banka and halt of the Provisional Administration. In total, about 22 million KM of FBiH money has been on these accounts.
Oslobodjenje says authorities continue to overspend	Oslobodjenje pgs 4-5 ‘Ministers continue to overspent’ by Darko Omeragic – Oslobodjenje reads that if BiH House of Peoples on 29 June adopts the decision on three institutions for standards, measuring and intellectual property with seats in Sarajevo, Banja Luka and Mostar, this would threaten BiH integration to Europe. This was told to newspapers by a high official of this institute. Oslobodjenje and its source argue that this has been caused by the wrong decision of the Council of Ministers who would further overspend money, and disregarded already spent budget for training, purchase of equipment, etc. Civil Affairs Minister Safet Halilovic highly criticised such decision of the CoM adding that it was pure political decision and absolutely wrong.

Political issues

Tihic, Colak, Ivanic meet Fischer	BHTV 1, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Fischer: BiH cannot be in EU without full cooperation with ICTY' by F. M. – On the third day of visit to Germany, BiH Foreign Minister Mladen Ivanic, BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak and member of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic met with the German Foreign Minister Joschka Fischer. In a statement for DA, Tihic said that Fischer stressed, as a friend of the country that BiH must fully cooperate with ICTY if it want to further proceed in Euro-Atlantic integrations. Fischer also stressed that if BiH wants to be admitted to EU in 2009, it has to speed up reforms, strengthen state institutions, adopt laws to ensure investments security, and arrest war crimes suspects.
Kalinic on PfP, SDS financial report, initiatives to change BiH constitution	Dnevni Avaz cover page 'Kalinic message to Karadzic to surrender', pg 5 'Karadzic, surrender or RS will be exposed to the harshest sanctions and isolation!' by Edina Sarac – In an interview to DA, SDS President and Speaker of the RS National Assembly, Dragan Kalinic, states that if BiH fails to be admitted to PfP in June the price will be paid by all BiH citizens, as this program has made us closer to the Stabilisation and Accession Agreement with EU. "I say all BiH citizens because leaders of some political parties, especially Sulejman Tihic, almost applaud that BiH will not be admitted to PfP , making that a ground to create strategy to abolish RS. That is bad politics." Asked about the OHR's inspection of SDS financial report, Kalinic says that, as the time passes, "it is clear that the story on financial report on party's dealings served as political and financial tool to weaken SDS prior to the elections. International auditors, who are visiting municipal boards of our party these days, as if they have forgotten what they have been looking for, so they extended their audit to workings of the party since it was established to today." Also asked to comment to his statement that RS abolishment could destabilise BiH, Kalinic denied he ever mentioned the war, but said he was certain in that case "things would not be well".

OHR: No changes to Mostar Statute	Dnevni List, front and pg 12 'Politicians are again playing the national card', by D. Kozina, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'No changes to the Mostar Statute' – Asked to comment on an announcement from the HDZ that their election strategy would be based on changes to the Statute of City of Mostar, an OHR spokesperson, Sanela Tunovic, stated that irrespective of outcome of the elections, the Statute of City of Mostar ensures instruments for protection of vital interests of any people, including mechanisms that enable changes of Statute at initiative of one person only. Tunovic stressed that individuals wanted to stir up national feelings before the forthcoming elections, hoping that the citizens would not succumb to the manipulation. "Herzegovina-Neretva Canton Prime Minister Miroslav Coric should be focusing on solving of numerous problems of citizens of HNC. Unfortunately, it has become a custom that parties in BiH, before elections, divert the focus of voters from their work in the Government by playing the national card". Commenting on the failure to adopt the Mostar city budget for 2004, which should have been adopted by May 31, Tunovic stated the budget should be adopted as soon as possible. "You should ask the councillors in the City Council why the budget has not been adopted", commented Tunovic.

Comments on public debate on changes to BiH Constitution

RTRS by Marko Radoja – RTRS comments that political parties in RS are united in the attitude that international community must stop “destroying BiH”. They condemned public debate on possible changes of BiH Constitution held in Sarajevo on Wednesday. Parties see this as the culmination of attacks against RS. “I think that the representatives of the international community will say, finally, that change of BiH Constitution cannot occur without consent of all three peoples. And atmosphere like this is an atmosphere of euphoria and attacks on RS presenting a big danger for stability in BiH”, said Mladen Ivanic, BiH Foreign Minister. Parties in power consider “threats” to changes to Constitutions as serious, while opposition believes these stories are just a part of pre-election activities.

Nezavisne Novine pg 5 ‘Conclusions of the Constitutional and Legal Commission represents culmination of assaults against RS’ – Stating that debates conclusions represent culmination of assaults against RS, Ivanic called on the international community officials to make sure these processes stop. He said: “Tendencies, which remind of pre-war period when representatives of other two peoples keep denying RS, are dangerous.” Ivanic said that international officials in BiH have an obligation to stop those tendencies, because anything else might represent extremely dangerous political situation in BiH and put in jeopardy everything that has been accomplished by now.

Glas Srpske pg 5 ‘Fire and straw’ – GS writes about Tuesday session dedicated to discussion on change of BiH Constitution, which was held without Serb representatives. According to GS, Nijaz Durakovic, member of Constitutional and Legal Commission of BiH Parliamentary Assembly, is in favour of abolishment of RS and FBiH and cantonisation of the entire of BiH. Martin Raguz, Chairperson of BiH House of Representatives, is of the view that BiH Constitution obstructs development of BiH. Safet Halilovic, BiH Minister of Civil Affairs, proposes cantonisation of RS and reduction of authorities of RS and F BiH. Professors with Mostar Law Faculty, Ljubomir Zovko and Bozo Zepic, claim that the existing constitutional and legal solutions of the political system in BiH are superseded, owing to which reason they need to be amended.
