HDZ, SDA, SDP, HNZ welcomed the Resolution on BiH; SDS – Resolution contradictory to previous claims; SNSD will not change its stance regarding rotation in Presidency

Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Filipovic: We must accept the fact the Dayton constitution was overgrown' by A. Malagic – Following the adoption of the Resolution on BiH at European Parliament, HDZ's Ilija Filipovic says the European Parliament is the first valid European institution that had clearly presented the stance on the Dayton constitution and confirmed the necessity of the adoption of a modern constitution BiH must have if it wants to join EU. SDA's Sulejman Tihic reiterated his stance by saying the Resolution will both make an influence on BiH political parties to reach an agreement on the first phase of constitutional changes before the elections, as well as to exert a pressure on the European Commission to define more determined stance with regard to this issue. SDS's Mladen Bosic thinks the Resolution is contradictory to previous claims that the constitutional changes are not a pre-requisite for the integrations. SNSD's Krstan Simic reiterated SNSD will not change its stance with regard to the rotation at the Presidency and decision-making at the level of entities. SDP's Jozo Krizanovic welcomed the Resolution and said he thinks it would encourage continuation of the negotiations. Inset 'They ask from us to be more responsible' – HNZ's Milenko Brkic expressed a support to stances presented in the Resolution, adding it actually asks from politicians to be more responsible and serious.

Nezavisne Novine pg 4, announced on cover 'Political leaders must keep their promise' by M. Cubro and V. Popovic – carries statements of SNSD, SDA, SDS and SDP. It also carries statement of PDP's Vinko Radovanovic who said the continuation of negotiations on constitutional talks are possible, but the issue of functioning of BiH Presidency still remains disputable.

She stressed BiH is currently in a critical moment, since it had launched SAA negotiations. She repeated which stances were presented in the Resolution and added ethnic division in BiH must be overcome. According to Pack, it is up to BiH politicians to decide how they would achieve this. Pack especially emphasised BiH is not a functional state and its state apparatus must be strengthened.
Oslobodjenje op-ed: Europe wants results	Oslobodjenje op-ed pg 9 'Europe wants results' by Mirko Sagolj – the author refers to the Resolution on BiH, adopted in European Parliament, and emphasises the main point of the Resolution was the fact European Parliament sent out a message to BiH political parties BiH cannot join EU with the current constitutional structure and institutional frame developed on the base of the DPA.
BiH Presidency Chairman Jovic advocates for the third entity and tri-partite Presidency	Oslobodjenje pg 3 'Three entities and tri-partite Presidency' by Fena, Dnevni List pg 9 'The third entity in BiH as well' not signed – In a statement for BN TV, BiH Presidency Chairman Ivo Miro-Jovic has stated that the three constitutive peoples in BiH should have equal rights, therefore if two peoples already have their entities, the third people should have it as well. He noted talks on constitutional changes must be continued and advocated the idea on tri-partite Presidency.

OHR on Jovic's request on PBS continuity: SAA requirement on PBS will not change because of this initiative	RHB – OHR commented, for FENA agency, the recent BiH Presidency Chair Ivo Miro Jovic's request for the assessment of constitutionality of the PBS law saying that it was the matter for the Constitutional Court to discuss it. OHR stated that the Stabilisation and Association Agreement requirement on PBS is clear and will not change because of this initiative adding that the State level Parliamentary procedure on the PBS reform is complete and the law has been published in official gazette. OHR's statement read that the adoption of harmonised Entity level legislation and the overall implementation of PBS reform remains a SAA priority and that Jovic's initiative should not undermine the passage of this harmonised legislation currently being considered by Entity parliaments. FTV, RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 8 'Conditions for contract with EU will not be changed' by Fena – also reported.
Reform of Public Administration needed for SAA and EU integration	TV Hayat – As in accordance with the Feasibility study in the process of signing the Stabilisation and Association Agreement, 27 BIH Institutions that will be needed for the EU integration process are planned for improvement. Reporter noted that Reform of Public Administration is a key issue for BIH adding that reform doesn't include only adoption of the laws but also the efficiency of the institution. Director of BiH Directorate for EU Integrations Osman Topcagic stated that they have received the laws and institutional framework needed for the negotiations on SAA . Reporter added that the number of institutions needed for integration will vary. Topcagic added that at one point BIH will need approximately 100 institutions for a successful EU integration.

avian flu-like symptoms discovered on a lake near Jajce

BHT1 – Two swans with avian flu-like symptoms have been discovered on a lake near Jajce on Thursday. Preliminary tests showed that those swans are infected with the avian flu virus, however, according to Director of BiH Veterinary Office Jozo Bagaric, those preliminary tests are not entirely incontestable, so further analysis should be carried out. It is expected that final results of those additional tests would be announced early on Monday. Bagaric stressed that the local centre for supervision of the disease, as well as the experts' working group have been formed; all the necessary measures will be carried out, including quarantine or the slaughter of all birds or poultry, if it is proven that those two swans are infected with avian flu virus.
