BiH HoR to discuss confidence vote to CoM on Thursday/ PDP to support vote announcing all RS parties would do the same	BHT1- At the BiH House of Representatives' session scheduled for Thursday, the Deputies should cast a confidence vote to BiH Council of Ministers and its Chair Adnan Terzic. The initiative for the Terzic's removal was submitted by a Mixed Club within the BiH HoR composed of Tihomir Gligoric, Mirko Blagojevic and Petar Kunic. PDP stated on Wednesday that the Deputies of this party are going to join the initiative for the Terzic's removal and a confidence vote to BiH CoM. PDP believes that the lack of efficiency of the BiH CoM is Terzic's responsibility. PDP Deputy Jelina Djurkovic stressed that Terzic has left the position of "primus inter pares" two years ago, and started working on his own. BiH HoR Deputy Vinko Radovanovic stated that Terzic's independent acting, arrogant behaviour and office abuse provide sufficient ground for his removal. SDA deputy Sefik Dzaferovic stated that, according to SDA, there is no a single reason for dismissal of the BiH CoM and Terzic. SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdžija said that the parties, which started the initiative for dismissal of BiH CoM should immediately come with a proposal on a new CoM in order to avoid further crisis. Commenting on the PDP's announcement, Terzic stated that the BiH CoM is not worried about the next session of the BiH HoR. "If Deputies believe that we are not doing a good job, we will withdraw from our positions with pleasure", said Terzic. The Association of old foreign currency depositors in BiH and Diaspora, who believe that the present BiH CoM is a group of individuals who only represent their personal or party interests, also supports initiative for dismissal. RTRS – Djurkovic said that Terzic should have initiated dismissal of Joly Dixon, Indirect Taxation Administration Steering Board Chair, but he has failed to do so. SDP will also vote no-confidence to the CoM and Terzic. "After these results that we have behind us, I doubt that the BiH Parliament would vote non-confidence. But in BiH all is possible", said Terzic. Hayat – Radovanovic stresses that Terzic does not have majority in the BiH Parliament and reminded that Terzic still has not appointed a replacement for the BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic who is performing his duty in the technical mandate. "The CoM with Ivanic in the technical mandate has led BiH towards the EU doors", says Terzic. PDP stated that RS parties will vote no confidence to Terzic. Dnevni List, pg 3, mentioned on front 'Council of Ministers crumbling?!', by D. P. Mandić – Beriz Belkic (SBiH) says his party will not support the initiative, since there are no arguments for BiH to be left without the Government 5 months prior to the elections since the initiators do not offer any alternative. Martin Raguz (HDZ 1990) says his party has no official position yet, adding that the party will listen to arguments related to the work of the BiH CoM, its relations towards the Parliament and dedication to reforms. Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'With difficulties to majority for removal of Terzic' by M. Cubro – SDS's Momcilo Novakovic confirmed majority of FBiH delegates will not support the initiative for removal of Terzic, noting the CoM has no legitimacy because there are two outgoing Ministers while Serb Ministers do not have a support of RS parties. SPRS's Tihomir Gligoric stated RS parties would support the initiative while votes of FBiH parties are still uncertain. HDZ 1990's Martin Raguz said 5 months before the elections it would be more important to point on irregularities than to remove the Government. SDA and SBiH announced they would not support the initiative. EuroBlic pg RS3 'CoM on check-up today' by D. S. and N. B., Nezavisne Novine pg 5 'With difficulties to majority for removal of Terzic' by M. Cubro, Glas Srpske cover pg 'Again on removal of Terzic' – PDP Djurkovic and SDPLagumdžijaon removal of Terzic; Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'PDP would vote for replacement of Adnan Terzic' Insets 'Initiative would be rejected' and 'Belkic: we see no better solution'- carry statements of Dzaferovic and Belkic' respectively. Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'PDP would vote for replacement of Adnan Terzic' by H. Orahovac carries Djurkovic and Radovanovic's statements. DA inset 'Zoric: we would abstain'- Head of Croat caucus in BiH HoR Vinko Zoric said that this Caucus has no desire to compose some new CoM and announced that five Mps of this Caucus would abstain from voting or would vote against the initiative for casting of no-confidence vote. Oslobodjenje pg 7, mentioned on cover 'Adnan Terzic should go' by A.T. – Djurkovic and Radovanovic'
CoM Chair Terzic: Reasons for the initiative are clear, we stripped power from smaller entity	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Terzic: I do not expect that vote of no-confidence to the CoM would pass' by S.S. – Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic said that he does not expect that no-confidence vote would pass the BiH House of Representatives, stressing that motives for launching of this initiative are crystal clear. 'It is certain that one Government, which stripped the power of a smaller BiH entity in many segments...cannot gain sympathies of those that sit in the BiH Parliament and come from the RS' said Terzic. He added that anything can happen, but..."If deputies feel that we are not doing our job, we would gladly withdraw ourselves from the positions and allow arrival of those that would do it better than we did".

HR Schwarz-Schilling interview prior to visiting Zagreb : I will tell PM Sanader what he can do	Vecernji List , front pg splash and pg 6 'Sanader can help BiH', by Dejan Jazvic – carries an interview with the High Representative, Christian Schwarz-Schilling , prior to his departure for Zagreb that is to take place today (Thursday) where he is to meet, among others, with the Croatian PM, Ivo Sanader . Asked what he would tell the PM, the HR says “(…) I will tell PM Sanader what I think he should support or initiate, and in return I expect from him to tell me what he thinks I should do. We will talk about the role of the Catholic Church and bishops, constitutional changes and situation in Mostar. I believe there are issues related to situation in BiH in which PM Sanader can help and I will tell him that” .
Issues of borderlines with Croatia in Kostajnica and Kozarska Dubica prove that many people in Sarajevo see protection of BiH interests as denial of RS' interests – said RS President Cavic	PINK – RS President Dragan Cavic said that BiH institutions are competent to solve problems of the municipalities of Kostajnica, Novi Grad and Kozarska Dubica, resulting from the Agreement on border between BiH and Croatia . It was emphasised that 1600 km of border between BiH and Croatia is not disputable and that problem is reflected through lower current of Una river, where border passes from one to another side of the river on 20 locations. According to the Agreement that was signed in 1997, Croatia enters urban area of Kozarska Dubica and Kostajnica. If this Agreement were applied, both municipalities would collapse infrastructural and communal regard. “This problem includes the whole border, not only these municipalities, from Neum through Martinbrod, at many locations. This is why this Agreement has never been fully applied except here in Kostajnica... BiH got resources, BiH built bridge and after that Croatia registered bridge as its property [in Kostajnica]. This proves readiness of many people in Sarajevo to understand the politics of BiH interests' protection as denial of RS' interests. They believe that it is good to give something to Croatia and that way cause problems to Serb municipalities”, said Cavic. BiH Minister of Foreign Affairs Mladen Ivanic believes that this issue should be solved by the agreement. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Border on Una river is not logical' – Ivanic's statement. RTRS – “There is a possibility of incident here every day. It is not good for neighbouring relations. This is not the RS problem, this is the BiH problem”, said Cavic. Dnevni List pg 4 'Problems of borderlines with Croatia' not signed, Glas Srpske cover pg splash 'Agreement is unacceptable' by V. Babic, Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'The border is making citizens' lives more difficult' by D. Kondic – also report
BiH CoM Chair Terzic: Croatia is trying to close BiH at sea	Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Croatia is trying to close BiH at sea' by Azhar Kalamujic – BiH Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic told the daily that the demand for talks' re-launch on the interstate border in the Neum region, made by the Croatian Government, “is a try to close our country at sea, i.e. to be deprived of a status of maritime state.” Terzic confirms that the BiH Border Commission provided him a line of evidence proving that cape of Klek and two islands Veliki and Mali Skolj are within the BiH territory, adding that there would be no new negotiations with Croatia regarding this issue. Two states already signed interstate border agreement in 1999. Terzic noted: “It is peculiar that thr Croatian Government comes out with new proposals regarding Neum-border, only month after Croatian Prime Minister Ivo Sanader stated that 2 states have defined the border.” Terzic said that the Peljesac bridge will probably be built, but not without an approval from BiH. Asked to comment on the Port Ploce issue, Terzic said that he has no intention to reopen negotiations on that issue again, since Croatia has been postponing ratification of the agreement that had already been made. “It seems like international treaties signed by Croatia are valid only for one Government's composition. What would Brussels say if BiH would act in similar way and quit the Treaty on free trade with Croatia?, concluded Terzic.
RSNA rejects RS Government's report on effects of transferring authorities from RS to BiH level/MPs claim that administrative costs have increased proportionally to each transfer	BHT1 – At the session held on Wednesday, RS National Assembly rejected the information of the RS Government on effects of decisions on transfer of authorities from the RS to BiH level. SDA Deputy Tarik Sadovic believes that this transfer is effective, because it strengthens BiH. SDS Deputy Borislav Bojic stated that the EU is moving towards regionalisation. However, explained Bojic, SDS deputies voted against the information because it did not include a comparison of costs before and after transferring. According to this information, the RS has been increasing the administration costs proportionally with the transfer of authorities to the state level in period since 2001. PDP deputy Nevenka Trifkovic stated that the information is correct, and in accordance with a request of the RS NA. RS Minister for Economic Relations and Coordination Jasna Brkic stated that RS Government is going to continue with monitoring of efficiency of state institutions. SRS believes that all authorities should be returned from the state to the entity level. SBiH believes that the transfer of authorities should continue, stating the implementation of VAT as a positive example of centralisation.

HR Schwarz-Schilling interview prior to visiting Zagreb : I will not hesitate to point finger at failures in Mostar if necessary	Vecernji List , front pg splash and pg 6 'Sanader can help BiH', by Dejan Jazvic – carries an interview with the High Representative, Christian Schwarz-Schilling , prior to his departure for Zagreb. Responding to press question what he would do regarding situation in Mostar, the HR says “we will considerably focus on situation in Mostar”, however the HR underlines there is no other way but for the local authorities to assume responsibility for what they are doing. In that context, the HR says if someone wants Mostar to fail, to have a divided city, he will not hesitate to stress it, which will undermine the authorities’ credibility prior to the forthcoming elections.
DL: Mostar budget to be adopted at next session of City Council	Dnevni List , pg 10 ‘City budget to be adopted soon?’, not signed – DL learns from sources close to the OHR that the Mostar City Council MCC) could adopt the city budget for 2006 at its next session. Apparently, following a strong pressure exerted by the OHR and their party HQ, SDA Councillors in the MCC decided to give in and support the proposal of the budget. DL notes it was the Vice President of SDA, Bakir Izetbegovic , who was instrumental in ‘disciplining’ the SDA of Mostar related to the budget, unification of Mostar institutions and creating better climate in Mostar. DL also notes that Izetbegovic indirectly asked that the leader of SDA Mostar, Zijad Hadziomerovic , stood down. Inset ‘Mostar comes under supervision?’ – notes that should the blockade of Mostar institutions continue, the HR, Christian Schwarz-Schilling , will propose to the Peace Implementation Council 2 solutions, namely early elections for Mostar or introduction of international supervisor until the Mostar Statute is fully implemented. DL however comments the latter is highly unlikely given the reduction of the role of the OHR and IC in BiH.
HDZ 1990’s Ljubic: We advocate unification of Mostar	Danas , pgs 22-25 ‘B. Ljubic: HDZ 1990 will strongly advocate for unification of Mostar’, not signed – carries an interview with the leader of HDZ 1990, Bozo Ljubic , in which he mostly reiterates statements pertaining to establishment of HDZ 1990 and rejection of constitutional amendments. Questioned about the position of HDZ 1990 regarding situation in Mostar, Ljubic says he proposed back in 2000 a platform on unification of Mostar, which included the abolishment of 6 municipalities and national parallelisms and unification of Mostar as one functional unit, the platform he has supported until present days.
DL: HDZ’s Covic offering coalition to SNSD and SDP after failing to form grand Croat coalition	Dnevni List , pg 9 ‘Covic ‘offering’ himself to Lagumdzija and Dodik’, by Z. Jukic – According to DL’s sources, after failing to gather a grand Croat coalition that would foremost include the NHI, the leader of HDZ BiH, Dragan Covic , is these days offering coalition to leaders of SNSD and SDP, Milorad Dodik and Zlatko Lagumdzija respectively in which Covic is allegedly prepared to make all sorts of concessions. Apparently, SNSD does not mind such coalition, however SDP is having a second thought since SDP has been saying it would not form coalitions with national parties, since it could cause displeasure within SDP membership. DL also notes that in order to win Lagumdzija over, Covic has started lobbying with the IC officials using the argument that his party strongly supported the concept of constitutional changes. Inset ‘Cardinal distances himself from Covic’ notes that Covic’s HDZ has been particularly shaken after Cardinal Vinko Puljic withheld his support to HDZ BiH.
Danas speculates with names of candidates for Croat member of BiH Presidency: Jurisic, Tadic, Krizanovic, Lozancic and Ljubic in race for BiH Presidency	Danas , front pg splash and pgs 14-17 ‘Jurisic, Tadic, Krizanovic, Lozancic and Ljubic in race for BiH Presidency’, by Z. Jukic speculates with names of possible candidates for the office of Croat member of BiH Presidency, saying that HSP Djapic-Jurisic is planning to nominate its leader, Zvonko Jurisic , Croat Coalition for Changes (consisting of HSS, HKDU, HD and HDU) plans to nominate the HSS leader Marko Tadic , HDZ 1990 will most likely nominate its leader Bozo Ljubic although Martin Raguz is not completely out of picture, whilst the most interesting situation is in HDZ BiH since its leader Dragan Covic is burdened with several criminal reports, therefore there are several possible candidates including Ivo Miro Jovic , Niko Lozancic and Miroslav Coric . According to Danas’ sources in SDP, should the party decide to run for the office, its candidate will be Jozo Krizanovic . It would also appear that the SDP would not run for the office of a Bosniak member of the BiH Presidency.

N. – At the international conference on Western Balkans organized by Hungarian European Society in Budapest on Wednesday, British Ambassador Matthew Rycroft stressed that the European policy of enlargement is right and that it must continue. Rycroft said that the EU and NATO could use the influence they have in the region: "Brussels' magnet has attracting power to stimulate regional countries to implement reforms necessary for their membership. The EU enlargement towards Western Balkans countries will not be more complex nor will it last longer than the enlargement towards the Central European countries two years ago... We should not raise ramps to make progress of candidates harder., nor should we allow them to get under the ramps before they are ready."

Ceric , stated in an interview for 'TV Mostar' on Tuesday night that BiH had reasons to become a full member of the Organization of Islamic Conference because "more than half of citizens in it are Muslims" . SD notes that Ceric did not state under whose data Muslims make more than 50% of the citizens in BiH. (also reported in Vecernji List , pg 20 'BiH is alliance of Islamic countries', by H , Vjesnik , pg 12 'Ceric wants BiH to become part of OIC', by Alenko Zornija )

Constitutional changes/Police reform
BiH Presidency Chair Tihic: Path to Europe impossible without constitutional changes	Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Path to Europe is impossible without changes to Constitution' by Fena , Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Tihic: I hope that amendments will be practiced at elections' by L.S. , Dnevni List pg 9 'Way towards EU impossible without amendments to Constitution' not signed – Chairman of BiH Presidency Sulejman Tihic on Wednesday stated he believes it is in the interest of all citizens and peoples of BiH, as well as in the interest of the state, to adopt amendments to the BiH Constitution and to hold the October elections in accordance with these amendments. Tihic especially noted the current Constitution provides the state with "extremely reduced" competences and one cannot even imagine pre-requisites that would be set for BiH might be efficiently and quickly fulfilled with such competences.

BiH Presidency Chair Tihic answering speculations regarding his visit to USA : I demanded support in further reform, and I received it/ Leaders of parties that signed Agreement on const. changes will meet on May 23	Oslobodjenje pg 3, mentioned on cover 'I demanded from USA further support to constitutional changes' by A.Omeragic – BiH Presidency Chair Sulejman Tihic told that leaders of parties that signed the Agreement on constitutional changes will meet on May 23, when they will discuss possibilities of adopting constitutional amendments before the October elections. Tihic added that he has a concrete suggestion, refusing to come up with details before meeting political parties' leaders. Denying all speculations and political attacks regarding his visit to the USA, Tihic stressed: "I demanded USA to help constitutional changes. I said that 60% of representatives in the Parliament vote in favour of the amendments and that most of citizens support changes. I explained that it would be damaging for BiH if in 2006, the authorities would be formed following the old system... I demanded support from the USA in further reform, and I received it." Tihic also announced talks with the representatives of the parties that were against the proposed amendments to the BiH Constitution.

Inset ‘Constitutional changes after elections’ – the HR was asked whether it is realistic that the constitutional amendments would be supported in the BiH Parliament before the October elections, to which he replied that he did not believe in success of the whole package. However, the HR believes parts of the said package, such as human rights issues, harmonization of BiH Constitution to requests of the Council of Europe can be adopted before the elections. The constitutional reforms itself, notes the HR, will be on agenda after the elections.

SBiH leader Halilovic: Every compromise with RSNA's stance regarding police reform would mean quitting model that implies BiH as sovereign state

Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'RS is constantly imposing thesis that BiH is a confederation' by Edina Sarac – In an interview SBiH leader Safet Halilovic said that the police reform issue is a test to valuate real intentions of RS politicians and relevant international figures: "If the international factor allows the police reform model advocated by the RS to be imposed at the state level, than it is for sure that constitutional changes, they are in favor of, are heading the same direction, in line with strengthening model that imply sovereignty of RS and pre-conditions for its secession." Halilovic explained that the stance of Police Reform Directorate [PRD] is implying that sovereignty is to be found exclusively at the state level, which is directly opposed by the RS National Assembly and their stance regarding the PRD. Answering the question whether that means that RSNA implies that RS is sovereign state and not just an entity, Halilovic said: "That is right, and not only a sovereign but also an independent state that is in confederative relation with other entity and Brcko District... This is why every compromise with the RSNA stance that would the PRD eventually make, which is unfortunately to be found in statements of certain international officials, would mean quitting the model that implies BiH as a sovereign state, and allowing model that implies the RS as a sovereign state with opening perspective of its international recognition."

HJPC press
release:
Appointment of
special RS
Prosecutors is in contradiction
with Law on HJPC

BHT1 – The High Judicial and Prosecutorial Council [HJPC] issued a press release on Wednesday, which reads that the appointment of Prosecutors in the RS Special Prosecution is in contradiction with the Law on HJPC, adding that the appointed Prosecutors cannot perform this duty. HJPC also stated that some regulations of the set of laws, which enabled establishing of RS Special Prosecution, are in conflict with some regulations of the Law on HJPC. HJPC stressed that the RS authorities did not ask the opinion of the Council regarding this issue, although they were obliged to do so. FTV- HJPC recommended the RS Government to urgently start the procedure for change of this set of laws. HJPC is willing to provide full expert help in finding a solution for this case. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 ‘RS Special Prosecutors cannot perform duties’ by Onasa, Oslobodjenje pg 6 ‘Appointment of prosecutors is not in accordance with the law’ not signed, Nezavisne Novine pg 2, announced on cover ‘Appointments of special prosecutors disputed’ by D. RS PM Dodik:
HJPC' reaction
inappropriate;
criminals were
informed about this before I was- that shows
how hard it is to fight
organized crime

RTRS – Commenting on the press release of the HJPC, RS PM Milorad Dodik expressed his belief that the HJPC' reaction is inappropriate: "We want everything to be transparent in order to avoid problems with the Constitutional Court. The Constitutional Court but not the HJPC is the only one to decide whether something is in accordance or not. We will discuss how to solve some of these issues in the upcoming days... It is obvious that whatever comes from the RS is not welcomed in Sarajevo and not only in local institutions but also in the institutions of the International Community." Dodik said that by this decision the RS has lost its right to appoint Special Prosecutors. "The criminal community here was earlier informed about HJPC decision than I was, and I am a PM. This tells you how hard it is to fight the organized crime...I have no intention to give up", said Dodik. "If someone believes that this is not in accordance with the Constitution, then s/he should start the proceeding before the Constitutional Court", said Igor Radojicic, RS NA Speaker. SDS deems that this decision is not surprising since even before enactment of the Law on Special Prosecutions, the HJPC had its stance regarding this issue. "The RS will lose nothing with the fact that these gentlemen that were appointed to the positions of Special Prosecutors will not take over duties. This whole process was accompanied with many political pressures", said Dusan Stojicic, SDS Deputy Leader. PDP believes that there are problems regarding BiH and RS laws but that changes and amendments could correct that. RS Chief Special Prosecutor Milan Tegeltija did not want to comment on this decision. BHT1 late news: PDP member Veselin Poljasevic expressed hope that this problem is soon going to be solved by harmonization of the laws. The RS Government stated that the decision of HJPC does not oppose the essence of special prosecutions and courts, but only some procedures. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Dodik now challenges the authorities of HJPC as well' by N.Diklic – carries Dodik's comment

DA op-ed harshly criticizing RS PM Dodik for acting unlawful regarding issue of RS Special Prosecution	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Dodik's new disgrace' by Husein Orahovac – Commenting on HJPC' statement (saying appointment of prosecutors to the RS Special Prosecution is unlawful), the editorial reads that "[RS Premier] Milorad Dodik should leave politics, in disgrace..." The author notes that Dodik only wanted to fight his political enemies, not the crime, "in style of an official from a totalitarian regime. For it is known that only in such political frameworks one could act in spite of law and cynically play with judicial authorities." Editorial concludes that Dodik would hopefully finally stop to act like that no one could touch him.
NN op-ed: Mafia proved it has influence even in judicial institutions	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'Who is bothered with the Special Prosecutor's Office' by Aleksandar Sekulic – According to the author, the RS Government with RS PM Milorad Dodik at the head, had faced numerous obstructions in the fight against the organised crime but the latest obstruction, which came from the HJPC, is definitely without a precedent. The author notes: 'Remarks presented with regard to forming of the Special Prosecutor's Office and yesterday's decision on disputing the appointment of special prosecutors got the character of holding only one side – the side of Mafia' and he added Mafia once again proved it is powerful and it demonstrated it has an influence in numerous institutions, even in judicial ones.

Donors' Conference for BiH Judiciary; Swedish Ambassador promised EURO 2 million for judiciary	BHT1 – The donors' conference for the BiH Court that had started in Brussels continued on Wednesday in Sarajevo hosted by Council of Ministers Chair Adnan Terzic. He noted that the information that came from BIA and MoI, even if it is not true, are equally dangerous because 'even misinformation have its goal and political background'.
