Mladen Ivanic resigns, all other PDP members in state authorities to resign by Tuesday

Vecernje novosti cover and pg. 5 'There is no BiH without Srpska' by M. Labus – All Ministers and Deputy Ministers at BiH CoM, who are members of PDP, have resigned or will resign latest by Tuesday, as it was decided at a session of the Main Board of PDP party held in Banja Luka on Saturday.

BHT 1 – BiH Foreign Affair Minister, Mladen Ivanic, submitted his written resignation to the Chair of the BiH Council of Ministers, Adnan Terzic, following the measures against RS officials announced by the HR Paddy Ashdown and US Government. He also announced resignations of the BIH Minister of Transport and Telecommunications Branko Dokic and BIH Deputy Minister of Civil Affairs Zoran Tesanovic. Mladen Ivanic commented: "We believe that the political atmosphere created has been directed against PDP, because this party always clear stance of supporting the reforms, but also defending the constitutional position of RS." Speaker of the BiH House of Peoples, Goran Milojevic, stated that he is also ready to resign, but he will wait due to specific decision-making process in HoP. Ivanic emphasized that PDP is aware of the importance of cooperation with ICTY and claimed that party has done everything possible to meet this obligation. However the party condemned HR's efforts to use ICTY for constitutional changes in BiH. PDP announced that they will participate the meeting of Serb parties organized by RS President Dragan Cavic on Monday, as well as the establishment of the new government and plans to overcome this crisis.

FTV – "We have done everything for BIH's association with EU, but we can't imagine BiH in EU without RS. PDP believes that a part of High Representative's decisions, which oversteps constitutional status, is not acceptable for us and it obligates all PDP members not to implement it in their work," said Ivanic.

RTRS – "HR put himself in a function of accomplishing the goals of only Bosniak people and its strongest party SDA", said Ivanic.

However, he added if Ministers and deputies from RS leave CoM that a crisis will occur in that institution. FTV – Terzic also added that he believes that the decision to resign was made too emotionally, stressing he hopes RS officials will reconsider it more rationally. According to Terzic, there are different suggestions on possible solution for political crisis, such as changes at CoM, establishing of a new majority at BIH Parliament Assembly and even new elections. Stressing he is willing to accept any proposal, Terzic warned RS officials that none of the solutions can postpone the deadline for implementation of reforms by April 2005. Otherwise, says Terzic, RS will be the only one to take the consequences. BHT 1 by Almira Huseinovic – In an interview to BHT 1, Terzic assessed that the PDP is not so strong party to cause a crisis of the BiH executive authorities. Terzic also said that SNSD's proposal for extraordinary elections is an attempt to transfer obligations of RS to state level. Dnevni list pg 3 'Ivanic showed seriousness and responsibility' – Terzic concludes that there is a tendency among the politicians of RS, but excluding Ivanic, to try to transfer the crisis to the BiH level in order to buy time as they are not dealing with the key issues. Dnevni Avaz pg 5 'Crisis in the authorities will not be long-term' by M. Kukan – Terzic said for DA that he was still not sure whether Ivanic's resignation was irrevocable, adding that he doesn't believe that the current crisis would be long-term and eventually demand from him to search for new governing partners.

HR: resignations could be political game, but dangerous one and damaging for RS citizens	NTV Hayat by Senad Hadzifejzovic – In an interview to NTV Hayat, the High Representative Paddy Ashdown was asked whether submitted and announced resignations of politicians from RS are a political game, to which he answered that they could be, adding they are dangerous and that they could cause delays in reforms and integrations, adding that the biggest damage will be caused to RS citizens. HR stressed he will not change his final position, and that is that BiH must cooperate with ICTY stressing resignations can't change that. Asked to comment to the statement by RS President, Dragan Cavic, that this situation could cause homogenization of peoples with possible severe consequences, Ashdown said he believes Cavic said this out of anger, adding that there is no chance that 1992 will repeat, stressing that everyone should concentrate on future and underlying RS has not other future but the one to be part of BiH. On the calls for extraordinary elections, HR commented they are not in the interests of BiH since this would also further delay process of joining Euro-Atlantic integrations. In 'Face to face' feature, Ashdown also answered to the questions by the citizens. He stressed that latest measures had no intention to cause any tensions among citizens in RS. Answering to several questions on constitutional changes in BiH, HR stressed that this can be done only by the BiH citizens and not him. HR said that he believes that in ten or fifteen years BiH will either have no entities, or they will be reduced to smallest possible level, explaining that this can happen only when people feel safe enough to allow that and with full agreement of all peoples.
OHR: Plan for BiH will not be changed	Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'Ashdown will not change the plan', pg 4 'The plan for BiH stays the same' not signed – "The plan that is needed to be implemented to ensure BiH moves forward and achieve the progress stays the same. He doesn't exclude the abolishment of RS, says RTRS.

BHT 1: Dodik: CoM has no more legality; Paravac: BiH in deep political crisis	BHT 1 by Sanita Lisica – Journalist comments that a number of politicians believe that the resignations of BiH Foreign Affairs Minister and announcements of resignations of other BiH Ministers from RS could cause a political crisis in the BiH Council of Ministers. Ivanic's resign was expected after the decision of US government to ban PDP and SDS officials. However, this could become a problem for BiH CoM. Milorad Dodik, SNSD leader, believes that the problems at CoM will occur very soon, adding that the Council of Ministers lead by Adnan Terzic doesn't have a legality and that a new solution must be found. Mirsad Ceman, Chairman of Constitutional Commission at BiH Parliament, stated that there will be no problems if Ivanic's resignation remains the only one, adding resignations of other ministers would not be beneficial for RS and rest of the BiH citizens. Chairman of the BiH Presidency, Borislav Paravac, stated that announced resignations of the PDP officials leads BiH into a deep political crisis without visible solutions. According to political analysts, new Foreign Minister could also be PDP member, despite of present political crisis within this party. RTRS – journalist commented that only PDP members resigned which draws the question of relation between SDS and PDP. Oslobodjenje pg 4 'Crisis in BiH institutions' – carries Paravac's statement. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'CoM has no legality anymore' by J.S. – carries Dodik's statement. EuroBlic, pg. 3 'Dodik: expected' not signed – carries both Dodik and Paravac.

According to unofficial information, this meeting will establish a "Government of national unity", in order to postpone the implementation of international obligations for as long as possible. Also according to unofficial information, SDS will withdraw their members from BiH institutions. The chairman of the BiH Presidency, Borislav Paravac, said today that his sealed resignation is with the SDS and if it calls for him to resign he will respect the decision of the party. In his statement for FENA news agency, Paravac said that he expects SDS to follow and react adequately to the existing situation. Milorad Dodik stated for FENA that Ivanic's resign is an expected and responsible decision, which puts focus on the crisis at BiH Council of Ministers. RTRS, Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'Borislav Paravac yesterday submitted sealed resignation' by Fena , Dnevni List pg 2 'Enveloped Paravac's resignation in SDS' not signed – also carry Paravac's statement.

That, above everything, means the cooperation with the ICTY, and this can be ensured only by those people who have flawless international credibility," stated Dodik for Oslobodjenje. Tihic: RS politicians do not understand HR decisions are in interests of all citizens	Oslobodjenje pg 4 'I hope reason will win' by S. Sehercehajic – Commenting to the announced withdrawal of SDS ministers from CoM, the member of BiH Presidency, Sulejman Tihic, said that this was unrealistic adding that such announcements were a "result of the RS politician's lack of understanding that the latest HR decisions were in the interests of the RS and BiH citizens." In his statement for daily, Tihic added he hopes that RS politicians will not make decision which would jeopardize functioning of the authorities at the state level. SDS withdrawal would be a violation of the Dayton Peace Agreement, says Tihic, and postponements of the obligations RS undertook with this accord. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'I truly hope they will read Dayton agreement' by Fena – DA carries the statement by the SDA Vice Chair, Seada Palavric, along the same lines as Tihic. Dnevni List pg 2 carries in its 'Statement of Day' SDA President Sulejman Tihic as saying: 'Other countries could also introduce US measures.'

Glibusic – Commenting on the HR's decision BiH Minister of Civic Affairs Safet Halilovic stated: 'The HR has taken minimal measures when he removed some Heads. European diplomatic officials think that, at the moment, it is the most important that RS President Dragan Cavic takes the right stance and they think he 'should not resign but he should take the responsibility for newly created situation'. Asked to comment on assessments of some diplomatic sources that have stated HR Ashdown has used the strictest measures, European diplomats in Brussels have said that 'it is also true that Ashdown was under the strictest pressure of USA'.
Oslobodjenje op-ed on measures: 'We are again at the beginning, seeking new reformers'	Oslobodjenje pg 9 'Resignations' op-ed by Senka Kurtovic – Commenting to the resignations announced by Mladen Ivanic and Dragan Mikerevic, author says there were expected, especially since nothing has been done for both RS and BiH to move forward. She also arguments that resignations were not a respond to HR's measures, but to the US Government's decision to ban PDP and SDS officials to enter US. Noting that she was glad this happened so HR Paddy Ashdown can see who were the 'reformers' he worked with to change situation in BiH, Kurtovic also notes that it is true this will have negative consequences for BiH citizens who now cannot expect some country to lessen visa regime. Concluding that sanctions will most probably not change much, Kurtovic says: "And were we stand now? Again, at the beginning. Seeking new reformers."

DA op-ed argues abolishment of RS has started	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Has abolishment of RS started?' op-ed by Edina Sarac – Editorial reads that the measures by HR and US are the harshest the international community imposed against RS up to date. She also notes that these measures showed that HR and US will not accept anybody, regardless to their position, to mess about with them. She further argues that measures ruined PDP credibility and made more space for SNSD. However, authority says that the hardest decision for RS is to abolish entities' Defence and Internal Affairs Ministries. "Already now we can see the indications of the two processes launched on 16 December – obliteration of RS and its isolation," says the author. "True, decisions could lead to larger political crisis in at both entity and state levels. Thus, it is left to be seen whether individuals on power in this country will know how to act in extraordinary situation and make moves best for this country and its citizens, leaving aside their own and party's interests," concludes the editorial.
DL op-ed: 'We are at the beginning again'	Dnevni List pg 2 'Some new guys' by M. VL goes on to say that according to analysts the resignation of the RS Prime Minister might be used as a factor for unification of all Serb parties in the RS in order to find the joint response to the latest sanctions against this entity. VL also says that the result of these talks will certainly depend on the opposition leader Milorad Dodik and his readiness to reach the agreement with the leaders of the parties in the authority. VL also says that it has been speculated that Dodik himself might be the Head of the new RS Government.

In a statement for RTRS, Ashdown said these was reliable information, and not just journalists speculations. He added that NATO forces have tried a number of times to arrest both Mladic and Radovan Karadzic, but failed to do so due to the fact that there was no cooperation with the RS authorities. "The threat to RS is not coming from me, but from a fact that they do not meet international obligations," reiterated Ashdown. Vecernje Novosti, pg. 5 'RS depends on the Dayton' not signed, Dnevni Avaz cover splash 'Ashdown will not change the plan', pg 4 'The plan for BiH stays the same' not signed – also carries Fena's report.

Alijagic case

NTV Hayat comments by Senad Hadzifejzovic
– NTV Hayat broadcast feature on the verdict of the Trebinje District Court who ruled in favor of Salih Alijagic and ordered Municipality Trebinje to pay 36 million KM of compensation for war damage. After municipality has failed to pay out the amount within deadline, its bank account should have been frozen. However, as Hadzifejzovic comments, at the time the politics got involved, i.e. RS Government, and it blocked the Court's ruling. He further stressed that the international community encourages independent judiciary, but once judges become independent the IC allows politics to get involved concluding that this is hypocritical. Prosecution in Trebinje considers the ruling to be final and obligatory. Howeverm Stevo Pamucina, justice at the Trebinje District Court said that the audit of the case was demanded by the by Municipality Trebinje and RS authorities. According to Hayat, RS Supreme Court accepted to carry out audit following anonymous demand and has put aside all other cases. Dobroslav Cuk, Major of Municipality Trebinje, admitted that Alijagic was robbed, however added that he should seek responsibility of those who have committed this. According to Hayat, Cuk is also a on a list of 50 persons suspected for war crime of ethnical cleansing and genocide in Eastern Herzegovina and that he would be tried at the Mostar Court.
