SDS, SDA, PDP, HDZ: Indictment against Covic can cause crisis

BHT 1 by Mirela Cosic – The office of the BiH Presidency member, Dragan Covic, stated that that last decisions of the BiH judicial institutions can cause a crisis in functioning of the authorities and political parties, which represent parliamentary majority, will do everything to avoid that crisis. This was stated after the meeting held by representatives of HDZ, SDS, SDA and PDP, which was closed for public. In the same statement, it is written that those parties understand the circumstances in which indictments are raised and they respect HDZ's and Covic's stand on this issue. Also, they will give their final opinion on these issues after HDZ gives its official stand. BHT 1 reporter said that, nevertheless, none of participants of the meeting agreed to give a statement for BHT 1. RHB, TV PINK, NTV Hayat, FTV, Dnevni Avaz 'They will do everything to prevent new crisis of executive authority', mentioned on cover 'Terzic: We shall do everything to prevent new crisis' by H.H., Oslobodjenje pg 6, mentioned on cover 'SDA gives in to HDZ and Covic because of announcement of authority crisis' by Az. Zivak, carries that OHR spokesperson Kevin Sullivan stated that this decision cannot be applied retroactively. The article says that this should mean that the decision on sale of a part of the barracks 'Marsal Tito' will not be annulled. Osl. also says that Sullivan was not 'willing' to comment on what would happen with earlier decisions on the ground of which the BiH state property was taken away.

Halilovic, Dzaferovic, Tihic
on HR's decision

Dnevni Avaz cover pg splash and pg 3 'The biggest state-building Ashdown's decision' by H. Orahovac carries comments on the aforementioned HR's decision. President of the SBiH Presidency Safet Halilovic stated that this is the biggest state-building decision that the HR passed since the OHR's establishment. SDA Secretary General Sefik Dzaferovic stated that, although he has not been familiar with details of this decision yet, he believes that this is about a good move that should be completely respected. Both, Halilovic and Dzaferovic expressed regret over the fact that the state authorities have failed to resolve this issue. DA inset under headline 'Tihic: It should be seen as to what was done in Herceg Bosna and RS' carries SDA President Sulejman Tihic as saying that it would be very important to find out as to what happened with the BiH property on the territory of so-called Herceg Bosna and the RS.

SDP: Establishing of Sarajevo City Council illegal and unconstitutional

BHT 1 – SDP considers as illegal and unconstitutional establishment of the Sarajevo City Council, which happened on Friday. BHT1 quoted SDP representative, Ferid Buljubasic, as saying that the BiH election law was violated by election of the Council, as well as the election results, the City Statute and the City Council Book of Rules. SDP also expressed dissatisfaction with the work of the BiH Election Commission, which, according to SDP, did not fulfil its legal obligations in accordance to the election law. “The Election Commission has no mandate to interpret the Constitution. We only implements the BiH election law”, said BiH Election Commission President, Vehid Sehic. SDA commented that there was no violation of the law during election of city councillors. SDA representative, Amir Zukic, said that SDP is trying to keep the power as long as possible and that SDP is the only party which prevents Serb representatives to join the Council. Alma Habul, councillor from the Party for BiH is appointed to Council’s Chair, and BHT found out unofficially that SDA councillor, Seniha Borovac, could be appointed to Mayor’s position at the next Council session.

RS NA adopted the conclusions presented by the RS Government regarding defence reform in BIH

RTRS report by Biljana Knezevic – The RS National Assembly adopted the conclusions presented by the RS Government regarding defence reform in BiH. The RS NA feels that abolishment of the RS Defence Ministry is unacceptable and stresses that further process of defence reform should go towards professional RS Army and BiH armed forces. The RS NA also adopted the declaration of SNSD according to which RS and BiH will be demilitarised. It remains to be seen what will be the role of entity Defence Ministries. Chairman of RS NA Defence board Velimir Sakan stated that an institution that will lead the process of army transformation needs to exist.

Conclusions of RS Government and SNSD Declaration should be the new platform of RS representatives in the Commission for defence reform in BiH. Borislav Bojic from SDS says that according to these conclusions military service will be abolished as well as active and passive reserve of soldiers and officers. RS NA believes that conditions for Partnership for Peace have been fulfilled and according to the reporter they have skilfully avoided the issue of transferring the authorities of RS Defence Ministry to the state level. Bojic says that this issue will be considered after BiH enters PfP. Igor Radojicic from SNSD feels that all these changes to RS Army will ask for changes to the laws and RS Constitution. This reform is not acceptable for Bosniak parties since it “spites” the international community. Ostoja Barasin, military analyst feels that the adopted conclusions are vague and adds that they will further confuse RS and BiH citizens. Dnevni List pg 7 ‘Conditions for PfP met’ by NINA carries a similar report.

DA edit. on RSNA opposition to defence reform	Dnevni Avaz pg 3 'Wasting of time and energy' by E. Mesihovic comments on the last RSNA session and the author says that the RSNA opposed abolishment of the entity Ministry of Defence although Deputy Chairman of the Defence Reform Commission Raffi Gregorian clearly stated that NATO has no intention to communicate with 3 MoDs...The RS opposed international integration again ignoring the fact that obstructions cannot last forever.
Durakovic to establish new political party	NTV Hayat – Professor Nijaz Durakovic announced a new political party he was to establish. He said that the party should be represented in the whole BiH, it should be multiethnic and it would fight the existing political leaders. Durakovic also stressed out his disappointment with the current situation in BiH, saying that BiH could not function in this way. He said that certain constitutional changes had to be made.
'The Economist' on EU concerns about BiH	FTV, Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'EU risks again to meet its promises' not signed – London weekly newspaper 'The Economist' published an article on BiH. According to this article, the EU is concerned about the fact that they did not stop the massacre in Srebrenica. In the conclusion of this article it is being warned that the biggest risk is that Brussels is promising to the poor and disturbed BiH membership in the EU, and in this way they are risking not to fulfil one more promise.
