EU Foreign Ministers meet in Brussels , discuss enlargement and Western Balkans	BH Radio 1 by Elvir Bucalo – At the meeting in Brussels, EU Foreign Ministers will discuss, among other issues, EU enlargement strategy and the issue of Western Balkans. Reporter comments that the meeting should only approve stances from recent unofficial meeting held in Salzburg when it was concluded that the cooperation with the ICTY is the main burden for both BiH and SCG in their progress towards the EU. BH Radiol concludes that the gathering is expected to result with EU putting the same pressure on the RS Government as it did in the case of SCG. RTRS – EU Foreign Ministers will today also present their readiness to support SiCG in efforts to release from remnants of Slobodan Milosevic's regime. The Ministers have voiced the message that Serbian Government may evade stoppage in talks on SAA of SiCG to EU if “fully tangible evidence were provided” to Brussels and the ICTY Prosecutor by the end of March that the most decisive measures to apprehend Ratko Mladic and Radovan Karadzic.
BiH lawsuit vs. SCG: hearing continues, closed for public	RTRS, RHB – The BiH lawsuit against SCG continues before the International Court of Justice on Monday with presentation of witnesses' testimonies. According to the ICJ's procedures, the testimonies will be closed for public until 28 March.

RS NA holds special session on Thursday to discussing lawsuit, Tihic's demands	RTRS – The RS NA Speaker, Igor Radojicic, RSNA Speaker, has announced in Banja Luka today that the Agenda of the forthcoming special RS National Assembly's session will include the issue of the BH suit against SICG before the International Court of Justice and demand of Sulejman Tihic, Chairperson of the BH Presidency, requesting review of constitutionality of Law on RS symbols before BH Constitutional Court. Special session will be held Thursday.

Agreement on constitutional changes reached

US Ambassador McElhaney: Talks on constitutional changes to continue after elections, US to stay involved	PINK Zeljko Mandic – At a press conference held on Sunday, US Ambassador to BiH Douglas McElhaney stated that the agreement on constitutional changes reached by BiH political leaders sets the framework for one President, stronger Parliament and Council of Ministers, and a Prime Minister able to meet demands of the country on a road to the EU. The leaders of seven political parties on Saturday reached the agreement on the first phase of the constitutional changes by which the future Presidency members should be nominated by the BiH House of Peoples and verified by the House of Representatives. Furthermore, all directly elected deputies at the state level – whose number in the future shall be 87 – will be candidates for members of the BiH Presidency. McElhaney expressed hope that BiH Parliament Assembly is going to adopt the agreement by the end of March, so the changes could be implemented before the October elections. BHT1 – McElhaney added that the “next phase of the talks on constitutional changes could start immediately after the elections, when the structure of BiH should be discussed”. Hayat – “Please keep in mind that US administration will continue its engagement in the process of constitutional changes in BIH”, stated McElhaney. FTV – McElhaney noted “the ultimate goal of BIH is to have the government responsible to the citizens and not some political party”. The BIH Parliament will discuss the agreement adopted on 23 March. The representatives of political parties agreed to discuss the issue of the state organization during the second phase of constitutional changes. PDP's Ivanic, SNSD's Simic welcome agreement on changes; HDZ official Madunic says Dragan Covic betrayed Croats because he was blackmailed with criminal charges	Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Agreement leads to strengthening of BiH institutions' by V. Popovic – Following the signing of the agreement on constitutional changes, PDP's Mladen Ivanic stated the agreement represents stabilisation of RS institutions and strengthening of BiH institutions adding: 'RS lost nothing, but it showed great readiness for compromising'. SNSD's Krstan Simic assessed the negotiations on constitutional changes as positive. Head of HDZ Caucus at F BiH HoP Ivan Madunic says he thinks HDZ President Dragan Covic 'betrayed interests of Croat people because he was blackmailed with numerous criminal charges'.
HDZ leader Covic: Agreement is first step towards rationalisation of BiH; SDS leader Covic: state functionality improved	RHB – HDZ leader Dragan Covic stated that the agreement on the constitutional changes is the first step towards rationalisation of BiH's constitutional order. Covic expressed gratitude to the US Embassy, the Administration and the EU representatives. SDS leader Dragan Covic stated that the agreement relates to several important issues that significantly improve the functionality of BiH institutions. SDP leader Zlatko Lagumdzija stated that the most important thing now is for the whole agreement package to become public and for it to be sent into parliamentary procedure.
SDP's Lagumdzija: election of BIH President and Deputy President is not complicated	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'Election of the chief of state is not complicated' by M. Cubro – SDP President Zlatko Lagumdzija says in an interview to NW that the leaders of seven political parties, which signed the agreement on constitutional reforms on Saturday, did not agree on a complicated model of the election of President and Deputy Presidents of BiH and added that the election of the chief of state through a parliament is a model suitable for BiH as county that has parliamentary democracy. He added that a new phase of constitutional talks would be launched after October elections and will contain discussions on destiny of entities and cantons.

Dzaferovic (SDA): changes can be completed by April 14; Zoric (HDZ): HDZ- HNZ Caucus has not changed its position	Dnevni Avaz, pg 2 'Additional 20 days will be gained for adoption of changes to Constitution', by H. Orahovac – Deputy Speaker of BiH House of Representatives, Sefik Dzaferovic (SDA), expects that the chamber will one of these days get amendments to Constitution, in the form agreed by the party leaders, which will be forwarded to the Constitutional-Legal Commission of the HoR, which has to organize a public debate that should not last for less than 15 days. Dzaferovic insists that the whole procedure (adoption of changes) can be wrapped up by April 14, when writs for elections should be issued, because the proposed changes to the BiH Election Law will shorten the period for organization of elections from 180 to 150 or 160 days, which gives the MPs additional 20 to 30 days for the job. Vinko Zoric, the Head of HDZ-HNZ Caucus in the BiH HoR says that when it comes to their Caucus, nothing has changed with regards to acceptability of constitutional changes (the Caucus earlier said it would not support changes that are detrimental to the Croats). According to Avaz, the same applies for SBiH, BOSS and Ivo Lozancic (independent MP), whilst it is yet unknown how Muhamed Altic (Pensioners Party) and Ibrahim Djedovic (DNZ) would vote. Dnevni List cover pg splash and pg 3 'Ethnic and entity divisions confirmed' by R. Dautevendic carries Zoric.
DL wonders whether HDZ representative in BiH Parliament Zoric is actually HDZ President Covic's player	Dnevni List pg 5 'Vinko Zoric wants to discredit Ljubic and Raguz?' by Z. Jukic – Few foreign diplomats including US and German Ambassadors to BiH held meetings with HDZ representative in the BiH Parliament Vinko Zoric to discuss constitutional changes. A DL source from one Embassy in Sarajevo revealed that the diplomats believed that Zoric is politically mature person and that along with Bozo Ljubic he stands for pro-European stands, however, Zoric's collocutors were surprised by rigid and retrograde stands of Zoric who said that he would support only those changes that would divide BiH according to ethnic principles. DL says that in this way Zoric discredits Ljubic and Martin Raguz and gives advantage to HDZ President Dragan Covic and his supporters, that international diplomats start to view again as their partners regardless of their criminal acts. DL also wonders whether Zoric truly broke up his connections with Covic or he has been acting lately according to Covic's instructions.

NHI's Zubak: Numerous blockades to happen due to const. changes agreed; SBiH's Halilovic: changes to ensure special status for RS; SDU's Tokic: agreement ensures entity division	BHT1 by Sanita Lisica-Biberovic – Commenting the agreement on constitutional changes, NHI leader Kresimir Zubak stated that because of it "I think that we would have to fight numerous blockades and obstructions, not only in the House of Representatives, but also in other institutions". SBiH leader Safet Halilovic said that "those changes practically ensure special status for RS, as a state within a state... We believe that such changes cannot satisfy citizens of BiH". FTV – SDU Leader Sejfudin Tokic, stated that the agreement guarantees entity division of BiH and gives stronger possibility to obstruct the work of the Government, adding that after the reform of the Constitution, International Community would most definitely leave BiH with the least rational state organisation created in Dayton. Tokic noted that this agreement preserves the discriminatory elements in BiH especially the name of RS warning the delegates in the Parliament that they do not have the support of citizens in "cementing BiH and denying its right on democratic organisation based on European standards". SRS leader Milenko Mihajlica opposes the constitutional changes in BiH asking that RS National Assembly and citizens at referendum discuss the entire issue. Dnevni Avaz pg 2 'Deputies do not have mandate for cementing ethnic divisions', Dnevni List cover pg splash and pg 3 'Ethnic and entity divisions confirmed' by R. Dautevendic – carried Tokic. Nezavisne Novine pg 3 'Agreement leads to strengthening of BiH institutions' by V. Popovic, Glas Srpske pg 5 'They signed betrayal' by D. T. and M. B. – reported Mihajlica.
SDU Vice President Komsic criticizes preservation of entity vote in BiH Parliament	Dnevni Avaz, pg 5, mentioned on front 'Entities will be protected in State parliament by Constitution', by professor Ivo Komsic – Vice President of SDU, professor Ivo Komsic, signs a commentary in which he harshly criticizes the agreed constitutional changes, especially focusing on the issue of entity vote in the BiH House of Representatives, which could according to him, cause numerous blockades in the functioning of BiH, be it election of BiH Presidency or BiH PM designate or adoption of budget.

Ajanovic (BOSS), Halilovic (SBiH) criticise agreement	Dnevni List cover pg splash and pg 3 'Ethnic and entity divisions confirmed' by R. Dautefendic – BOSS President Mirnes Ajanovic stated: 'SDS, PDP and SNSD, that is, their representatives show that Zlatko Lagumdzija and Sulejman Tihic were in favour of Great Serbia interests and not in favour of BiH's interests.' Safet Halilovic from SBiH said that the constitutional changes agreement is short-sighted and irrational.
NN op-ed: it would have been logical if someone raised issue of transfer of competences from Cantons onto F BiH	Nezavisne Novine op-ed pg 7 'The Constitution' by Aleksandar Sekulic – the author complimented the fact the agreement on constitutional changes was signed on Saturday but also criticised the fact no person had so far raised the issue of the Federation of BiH and its organisation since it has ten Cantons – each with its own constitutions, judicial, legislative and executive authorities. He concluded by saying it would have been logical if someone had raised the issue of transfer of competences from Cantons onto F BiH, primarily in order to reduce bureaucracy.

Circle 99 discusses problems of higher education system in BH, urge adoption of the law	PINK by Zeljko Mandic – In the session held in Sarajevo on Sunday, Association of the Independent Intellectuals “Circle 99” discussed the problems of higher education in BiH. Dean of Sarajevo University Hasan Muratovic said that the major obstacle for BiH on its way to the EU is that fact that state law on higher education still does not exist, while there is a lack of interest on a part of the state institutions for this reform. He reminded that in most EU countries, state institutions are in charge of education. Professor Miodrag Zivanovic from Banja Luka University stated that the Bologna Declaration needs to be implemented in BiH as soon as possible. However, he adds it needs to be harmonised with specific conditions in BiH. Dnevni List pg 3 ‘So far state has lost 1,5 million Dollars’ by M. Zorlak – : Due to failure to adopt high education law in accordance with Bologna Declaration BiH has lost 1,5 million Dollars of World Bank loan so far. BHT1, Hayat, FTV, Oslobodjenje pg 6, mentioned on cover ‘Two classrooms in primary school and there is a university’ by E.Kamenica Dnevni Avaz pg 4 ‘State is not interested in higher education reform’ not signed, Nezavisne Novine pg 11 ‘Urgently adopt law on high education’ by S. EU official Lange: SAA negotiations conducted so far were not difficult	PINK – Commenting first technical round of negotiations on Stabilization and Association Agreement [SAA] held on Friday in Sarajevo, Head of EU technical negotiation team SAA talks Dirk Lange stated that the negotiations conducted so far were not difficult, adding that there is consensus on all general issues. Lange reminded that EU encourages the establishing of a customs-free zone in the West Balkans, being that most countries in this region are rather small, and such zone would help their industry and economic development. Lange believes that BiH economy is ready to fulfil the conditions of free trade with the EU and region countries, despite of certain critical stances in BiH. RTRS also covered.
Gligoric (MP, Socialist Party) hopes he will be able to remove BiH CoM	Dnevni Avaz, pg 4 ‘I will win Lagumdzija over for removal of Terzic’, by N. Diklic – An MP in BiH House of Representative, Tihomir Gligoric (Socialist Party), who launched an initiative the aim of which is to remove the BiH Council of Ministers, believes he will get the necessary support from the MPs from the RS. However, he needs a support from 10 MPs from the FBiH. Gligoric expects he will win over votes of independent MPs from the FBiH, announcing that he will talk to the SDP leader, Zlatko Lagumdzija, about the issue in order to get the SDP’s support.

BiH CoM delegation and Croatian Ministers discussed property-legal relations/VL: Serb side obstructs reaching of agreement on this issue	Vecernji List cover pg splash and pg 8 'RS blackmails Croatia with flats' by Z. Kresic – BiH Security Minister Barisa Colak stated that the last week's meeting between the BiH CoM delegation and Croatian Ministers (held in Zagreb) was not secret and it was a result of a previous meeting between Chairman of BiH CoM Adnan Terzic and Croatian Prime Minister Ivo Sanader. Colak added that they talked about property-legal relations between two countries and VL learns that the problem is a stand of the Serb side which brings into connection 'return of Serb flats in Croatia with wartime robbery of Croatian property in BiH'. According to the article, they also talked about construction of the bridge near Peljesac, Free Trade Agreement etc.
DL op-ed: BiH is not willing to resolve disputable issues with Croatia due to October elections	Dnevni List pg 2 'Secret negotiations' by I. Glibusic comments on disputable issues between BiH and Croatia such as an agreement on rights of HVO victims, border near Neum etc. and the author concludes: 'It is clear now that a pre-election campaign has started in BiH and for this reason BiH is not ready for any concessions and therefore there would be no any attempt to resolve these disputable issues by the October elections and its is only possible that secret negotiations take place by then.'

Preparations for upcoming elections: SDS has collected BAM 1.2 million from members so far	Nezavisne Novine pg 4 'They collected over BAM 1.2 million' by V.Popovic – Momcilo Novakovic , member of SDS Presidency, Sunday confirmed that SDS is collecting resources from the membership in order to ensure SDS participation at the upcoming elections, noting the amount of BAM 1.2 million has been collected so far. President of BiH Constitutional Court Tadic: To be legal expert with high moral qualities is only criterion for BiH Constitutional Court judges	Dnevni List pg 9 'Constitutional Court partly political and partly legal institution' (hdl refers on election of Constitutional Court judges in Europe not in BiH) by D. P. Mandic carries an interview with President of the Constitutional Court (CC) Mate Tadic. Asked how common it is in the world that a high-ranked politician becomes a CC judge such as the case of Seada Plavric, Tadic said it is typical for Europe that politics appoint these judges since CC judges are not regular judges and the CC is not a typical category of judiciary. He added that 'in these countries the judge must not perform some executive, legislative or political duty at least 3 years before he takes over the position of the CC judge'. Tadic added: 'We do not have this regulation and if we had it we would not be faced with the aforementioned situation.' He added that as far as the BiH Constitution is concerned as the only criteria it was stated that the judge should be a legal expert with high moral qualities.
