HR Ashdown addresses BiH HoR: Obstacles are unsolved PBS legislation, police reform and Mladic/Karadzic	RHB, RTRS, FTV, PINK by Zeljko Mandic – In address to the BiH House of Representatives on Tuesday, the HR Paddy Ashdown said that the basic aims BiH is facing refer to the admission into the Partnership for Peace and launching negotiations for signing a Stabilization and Association Agreement with the EU. If and when those negotiations start, the Peace Implementation Council should launch the process of closing down the OHR and replace it with the EU led mission, said Ashdown. EU Special Representative would be without the Bonn powers. BiH HoR on Tuesday discussed the conclusions of the HoR's Commission for Foreign Policy on relations between BiH institutions and OHR. "BiH Institutions – Parliament, Council of Ministers and the Presidency, along with the OHR, should make an action plan on transferring the HR powers to the BiH authorities, but we must not forget the fact that we will need the institution of HR on our path to Europe", said Martin Raguz, the Chair of the Commission. Ashdown stressed that only Ratko Mladic and Radovan Karadzic now stand in BiH's way to join the Partnership for Peace. Ashdown also said that the country need constitutional reforms: "Constitutional reform is something you have to deal with, not me. BiH must become more functional country; therefore, those constitutional changes must happen. But this is the issue which is up to BiH citizens to decide." BHT 1 Marina Boskovic – Addressing the HoR, Ashdown said that they have two months to adopt laws on Public Broadcasting System and police reform, as that was the only way to create conditions to launch SAA negotiations. "When negotiations begin, the process of transition can slowly commence on 10th anniversary of Dayton Agreement. OHR could be replaced with the EU mission already in October 2006," Ashdown said. RHB by Zana Rebo – Commissions' report concluded that it is too early to abolish the function of HR but stressed that the weakening of his function should occur in constitutional changes. HR was also said to have had overstepped his authorities, especially in dismissing members of BIH Presidency. Oslobodjenje cover splash, pgs 4-5 'Bosnia and Herzegovina is not protectorate' by V. What International Community showed us so far is that it can control the crisis, but it cannot find the solutions for the crisis", said BiH Presidency Chair Ivo Miro Jovic. "I believe that HR decided to be the attorney for his own project. Therefore, today we had to listen to his tirade, in which he practically tried to show us how we great we are doing", sarcastically noted SDP President Zlatko Lagumdzija. Dnevni Avaz pg 4 'An answer to Lagumdzija: You get to the power through elections' – Ashdown stated he was surprised with statements by Zlatko Lagumdzija who accused his of brining nationalists parties to power. "No, I have not brought them. Brcko Supervisor, Susan Johnson, held separate meetings with representatives of all the three peoples in the Assembly and representatives of the Brcko Islamic Community, however the agreement was not reached. Oslobodjenje reports that Bosniak delegates in the assembly are of the opinion that the Brcko Supervisor is under an influence of the Serb lobby.

Milovanovic / Kapetina comment on Draft law on defence reform	Glas Srpske cover pg slash 'All we need now is Tito(!?)' by M.Dz. – Daily carries comments regarding defence reform of Dusan Stojicic, SRS "Dr. Vojislav Seselj", Dragan Kapetina and Manojlo Milovanovic. Kapetina, advisor to Serb member to BiH Presidency, says that some RS NA conclusions had to be given up on, because there was no other way to meet conditions for NATO admittance. RS Army General in retirement and former RS Defence Minister, Milovanovic ironically assessed that if Parliament adopts proposed draft laws "we'll get back to where we have started. ..All major duties will be in the hands of one man, as it was the case with [Josip Broz] Tito...At the end, nothing will come out from this Army." Milovanovic further notes that the DRC members from RS did not sign the Report self-willingly, but because they got "a green light" to do that from RS authorities. According to him, by adopting the Draft law on defence reform, the RS NA would renounce RS, and Serb people would lose another important element of national identity.

The source added: 'The HR would not avoid to use his powers when the defence reform in BiH is in question as he did with regard to the police reform.' DL also says that it is hard to believe that the RSNA would support the proposals on the defence reform and the author concludes that the HR would have to impose the defence reform at least when the RS is in question.
